Senior-Power Senior-P

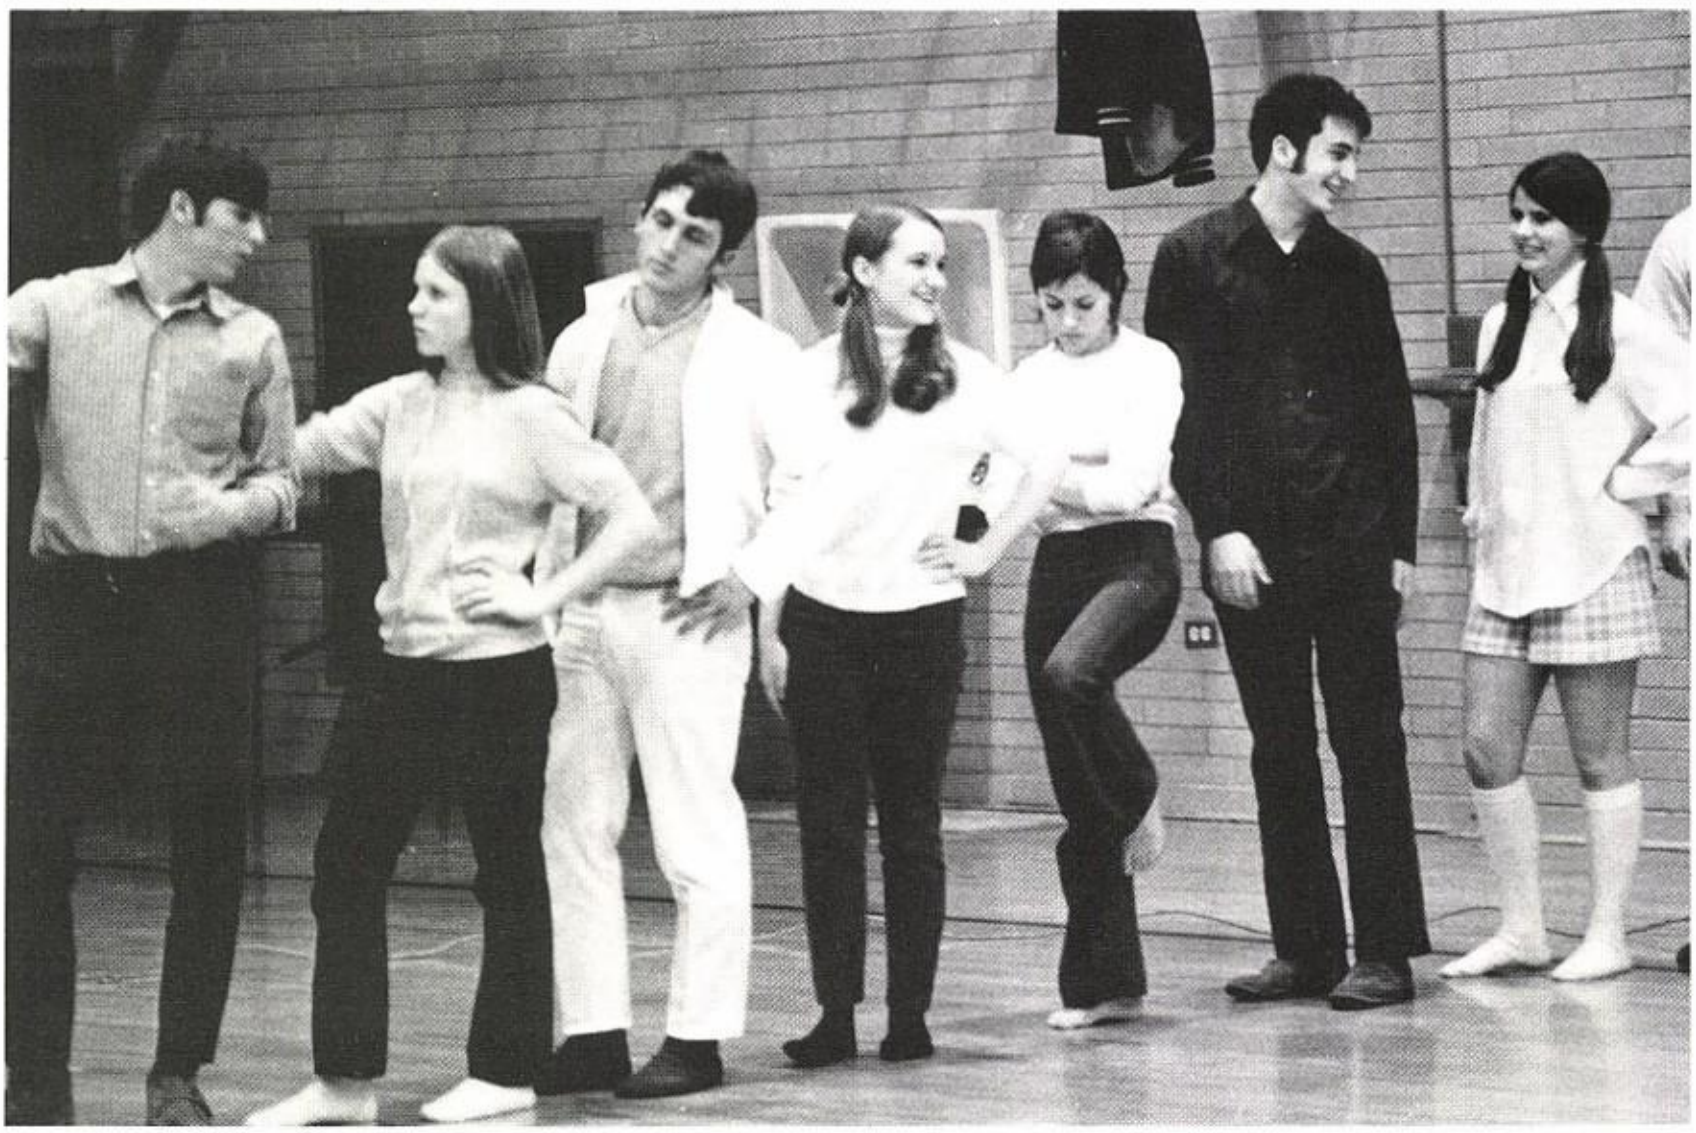
Laura Toscani displays her skill in idiot work.

"Help, my lips are stuck."



"Wake up Schulte!"

ower Senior - Power Sen

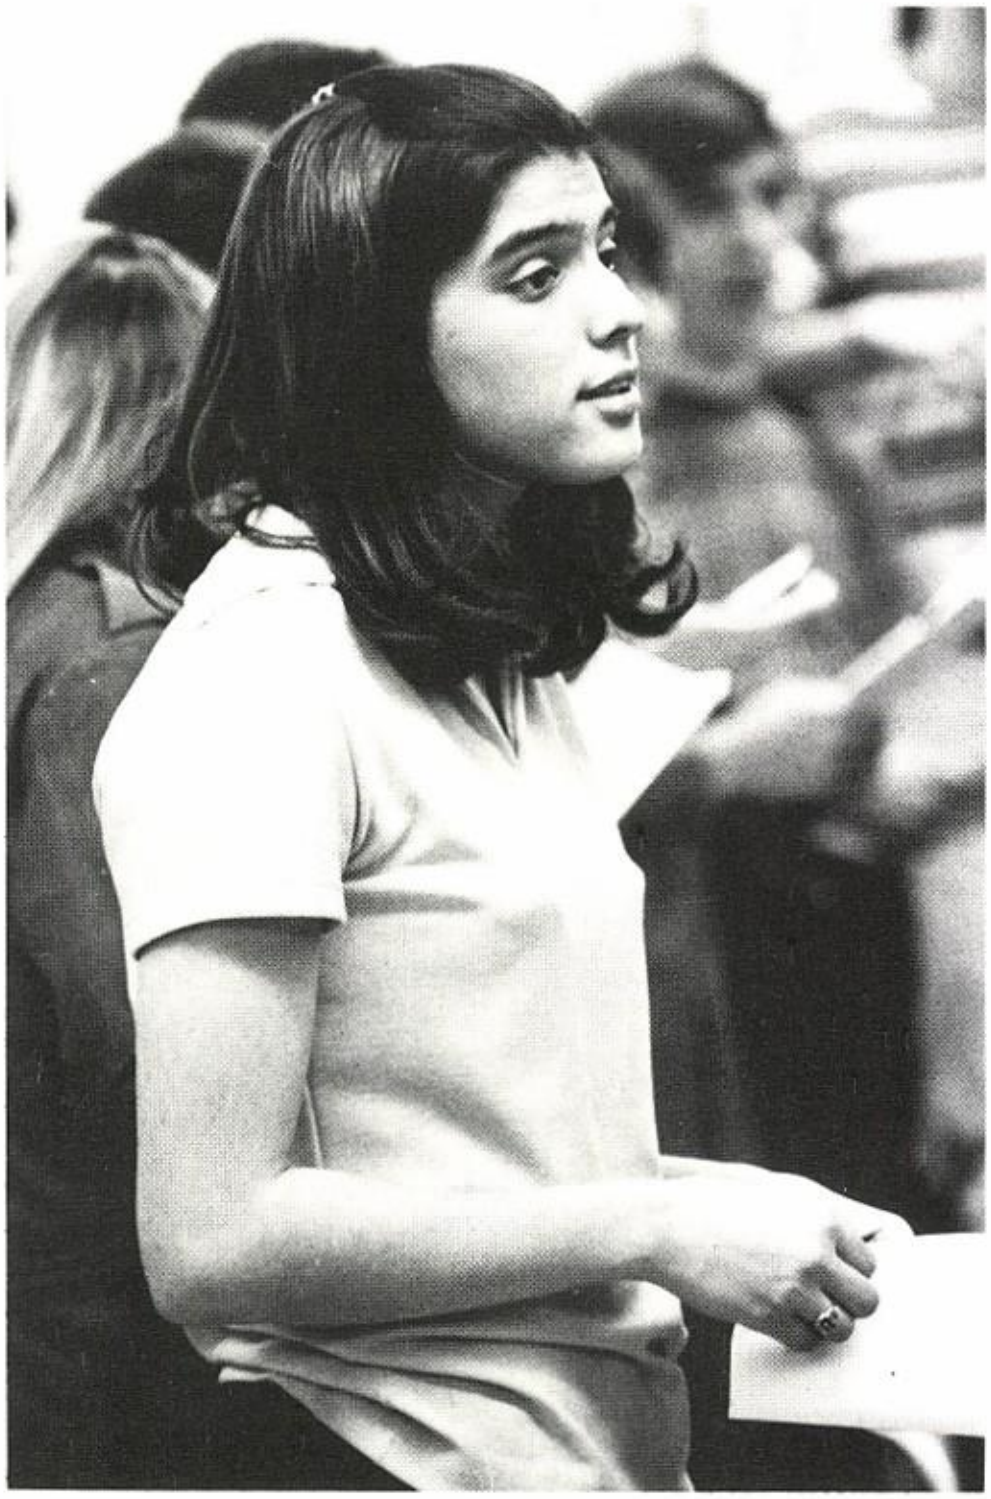
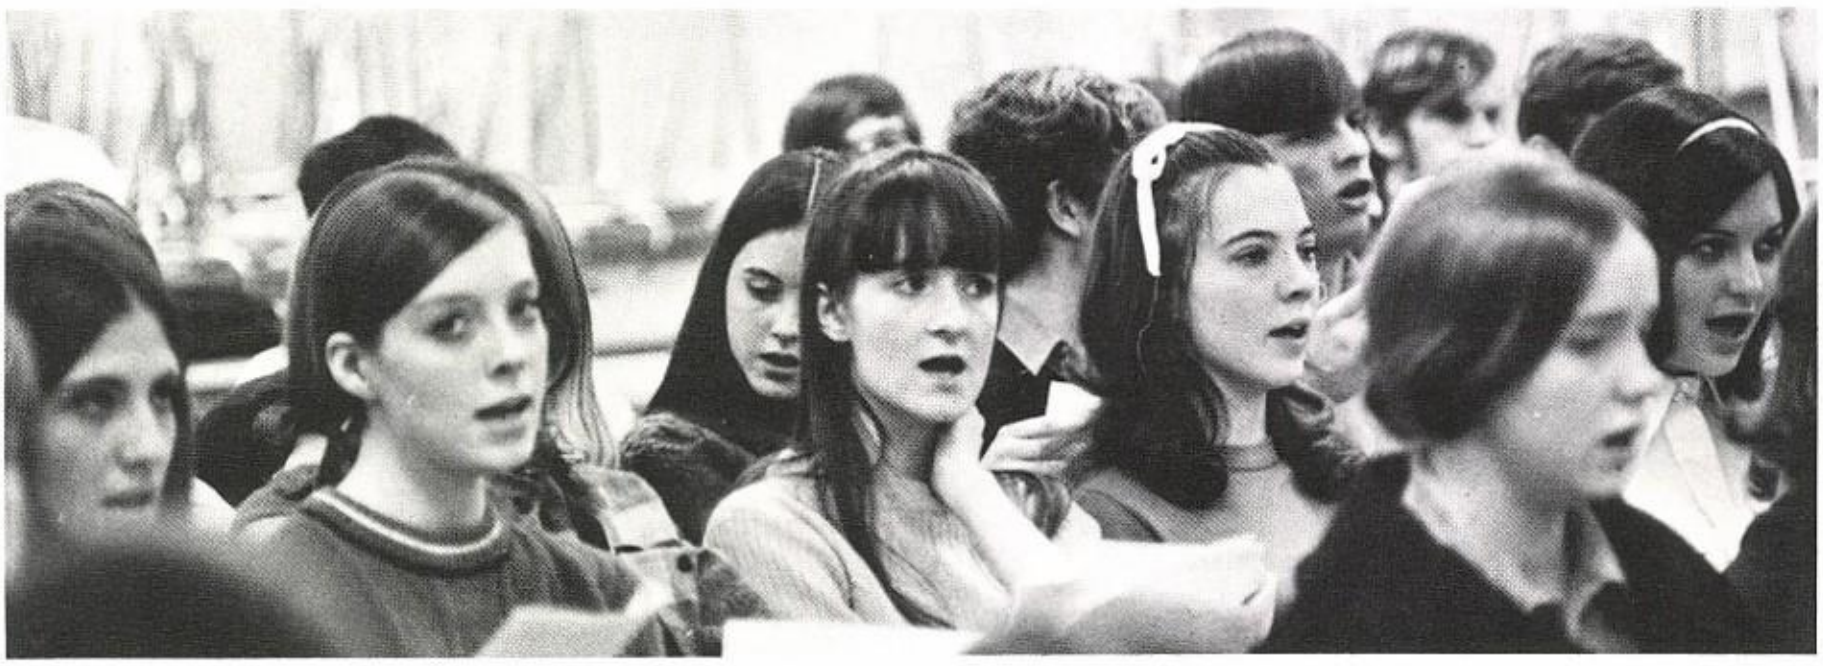
"Sink it Clyde, Sink it!"



"That's the second corny joke I've heard tonight."

"How did you get in there?"



"Everybody say AAAH!"

"Who stole my lollipop?"

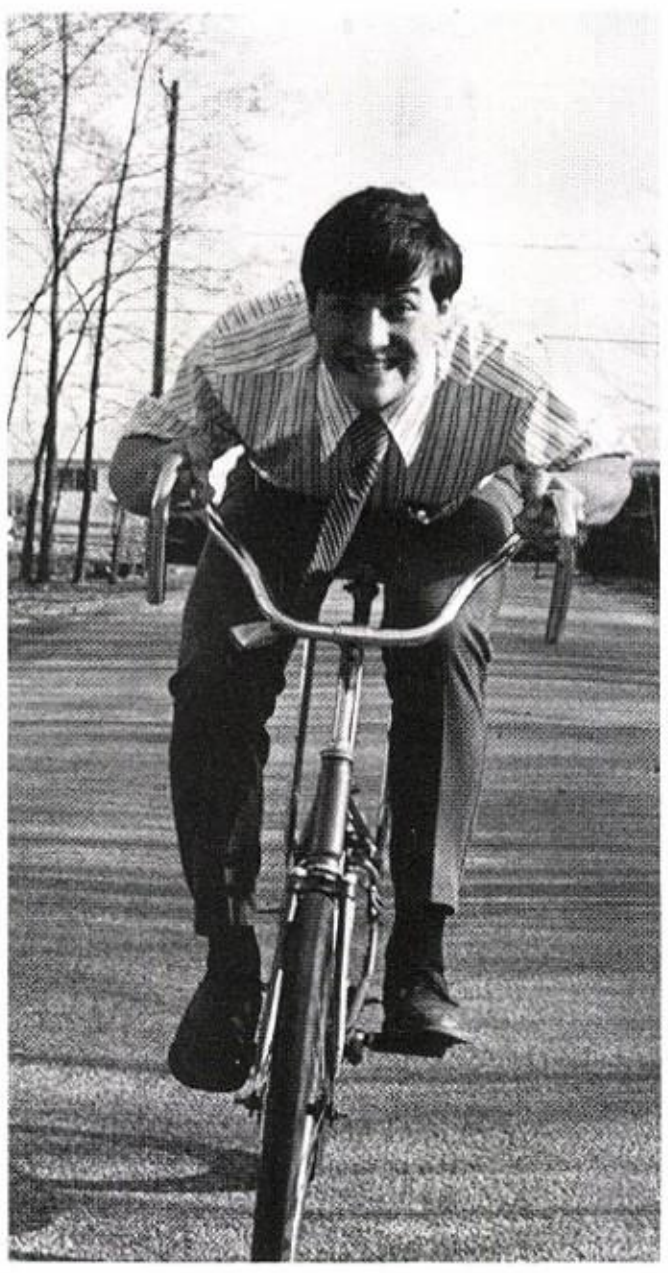
"How in the world did he do that?"

"I should have stuck with knit one purl two."

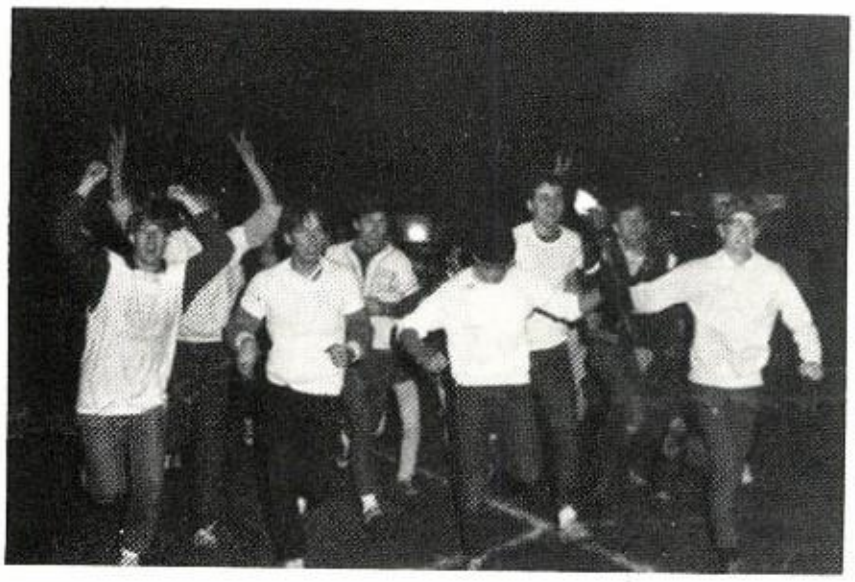
"Smil yor on kandide kamra!"

"Sigh!"

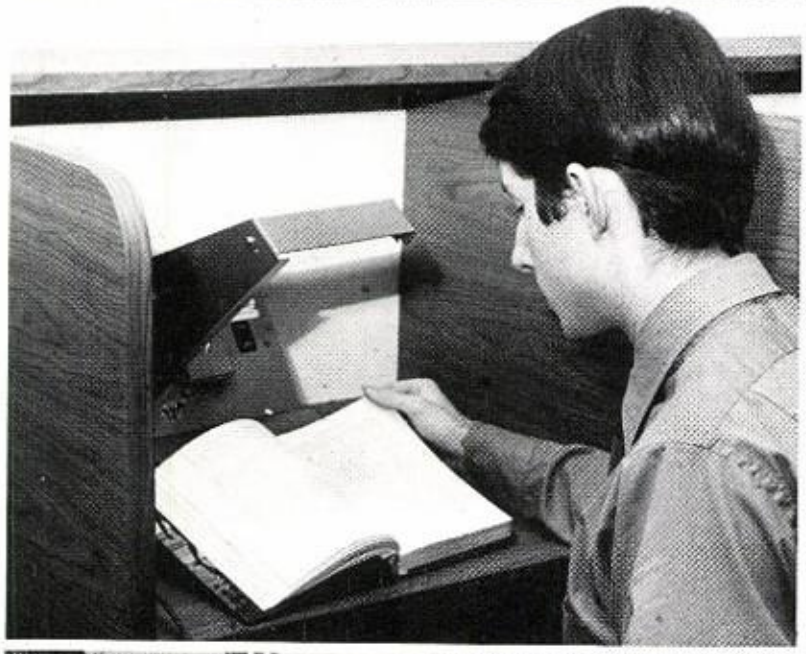
"Ring around the armpit, ring around the armpit."

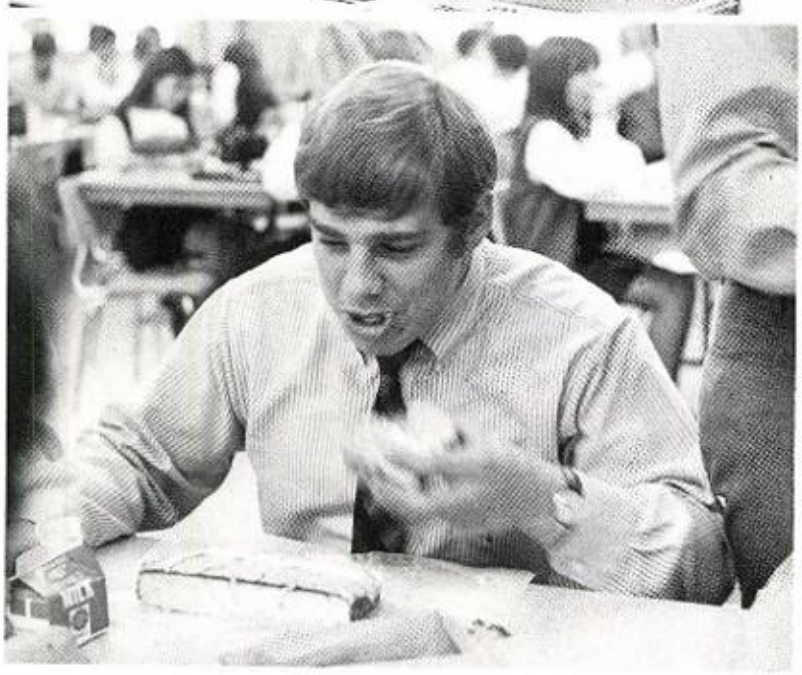


Mad cyclist, Pete Hovey, strikes again.

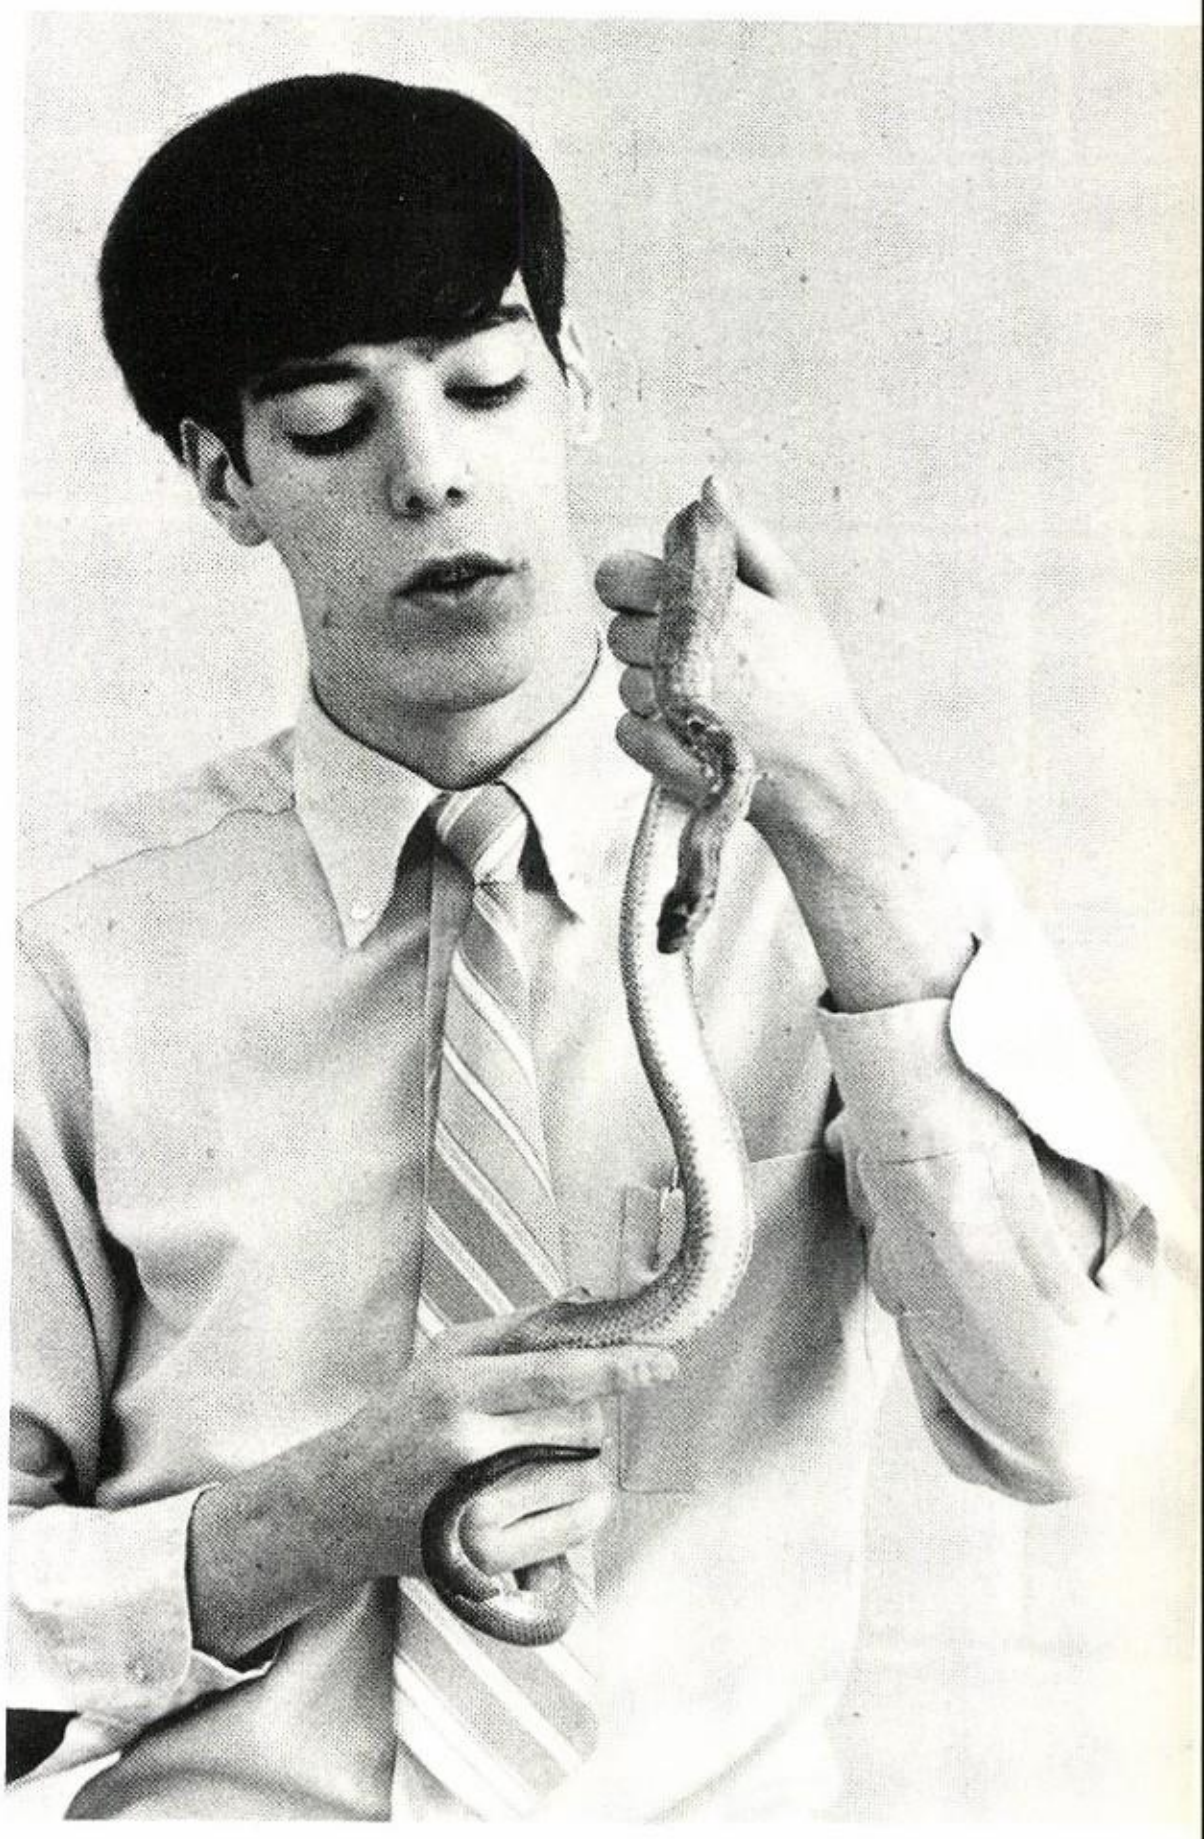


"It's a long road to freedom . . ."

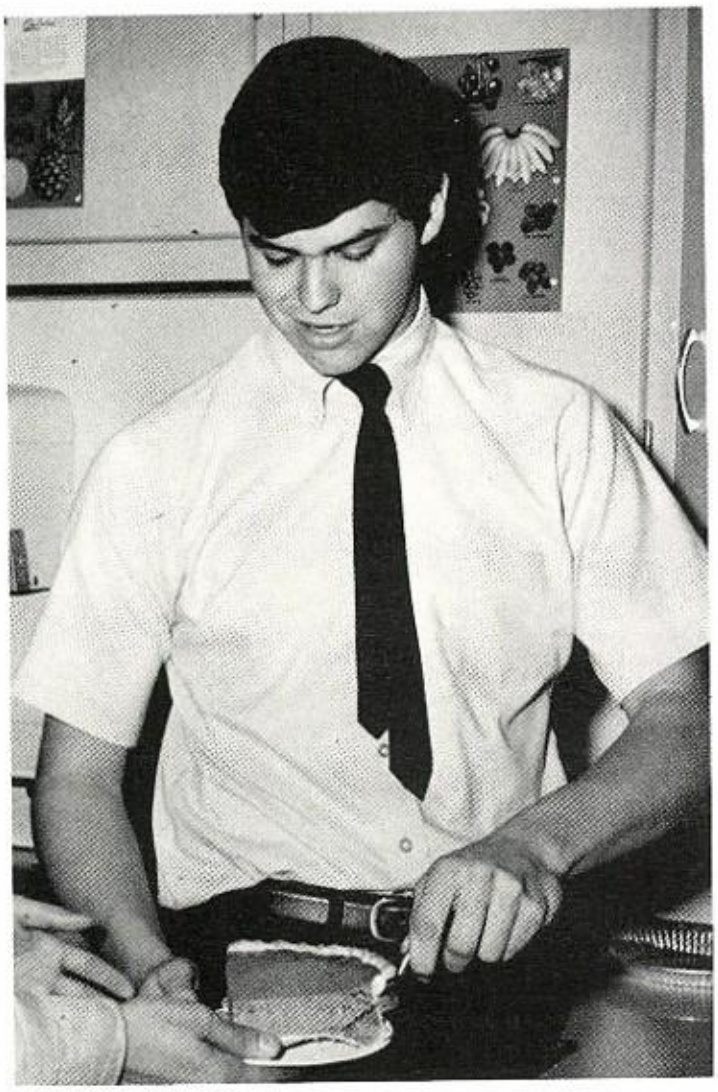




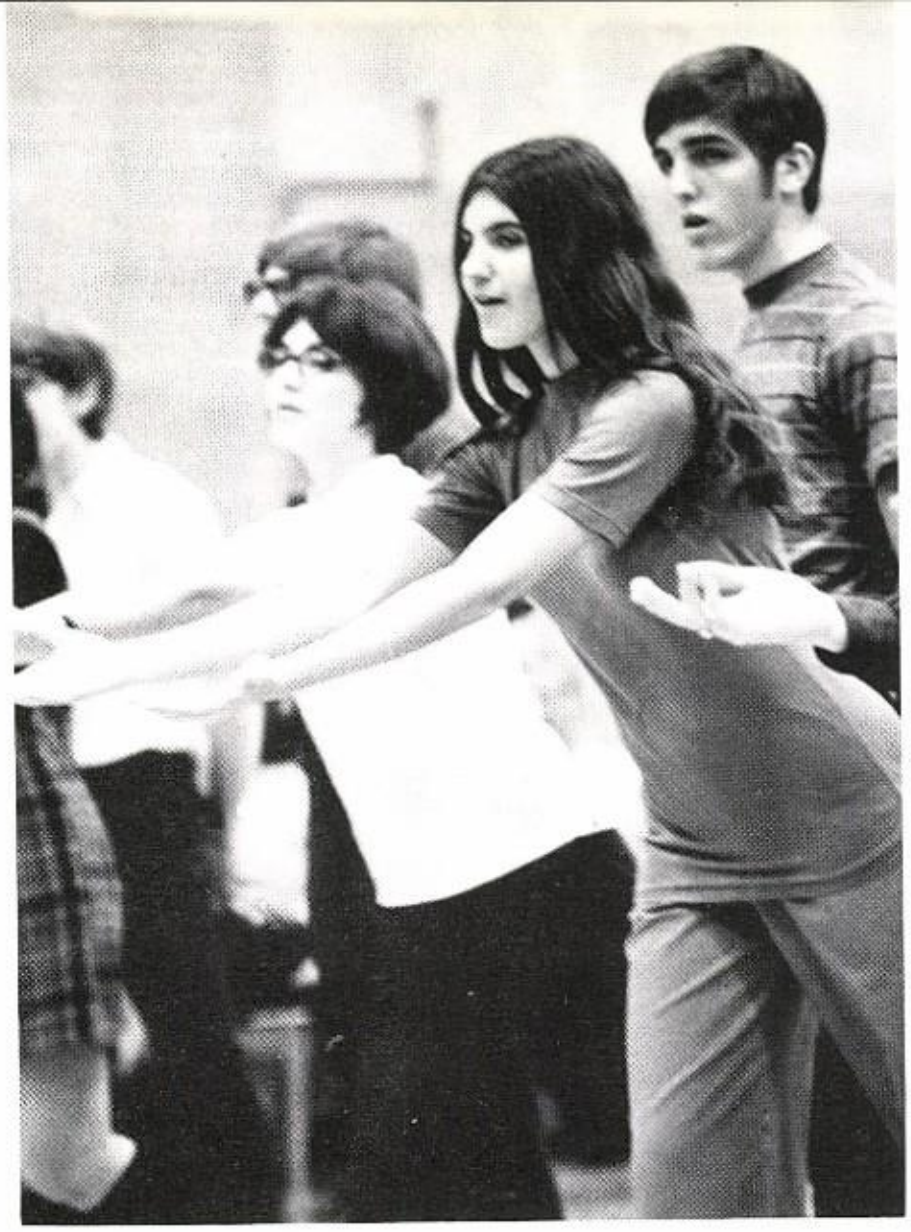
Work! Work! Work! Work?



"Meet me out back in the woods tonight, honey."



"Dig in Steve!"



"Come on Steve, we want some too!"

Monkey see, monkey do.

Keep smiling! — and everyone will wonder what you've been up to.

"C-C-Courage!"

Big Badin, 26-20

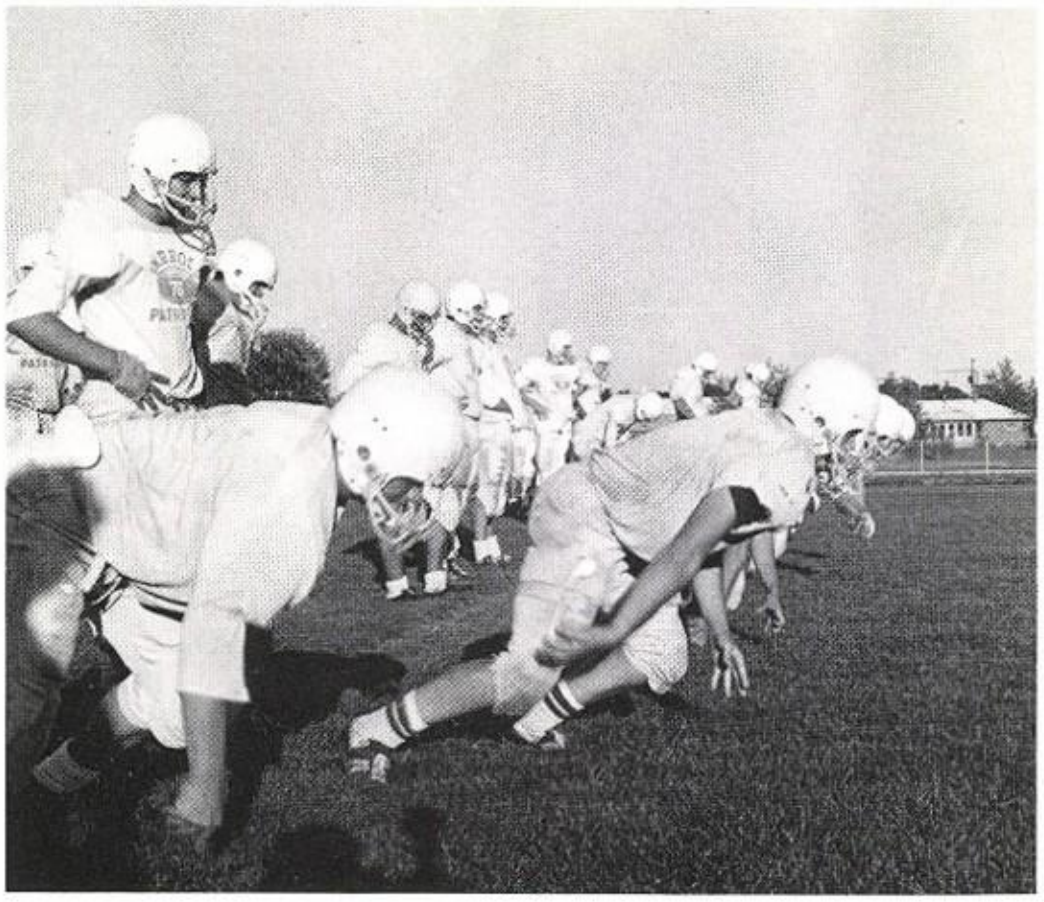
.oll wrapped up the Mid-

There was a change in attitude towards football this year; Carroll elevated from conquered to conqueror! After a loss to Beavercreek, the Patriots won nine games in a row to establish the school's best outcome in nine seasons.

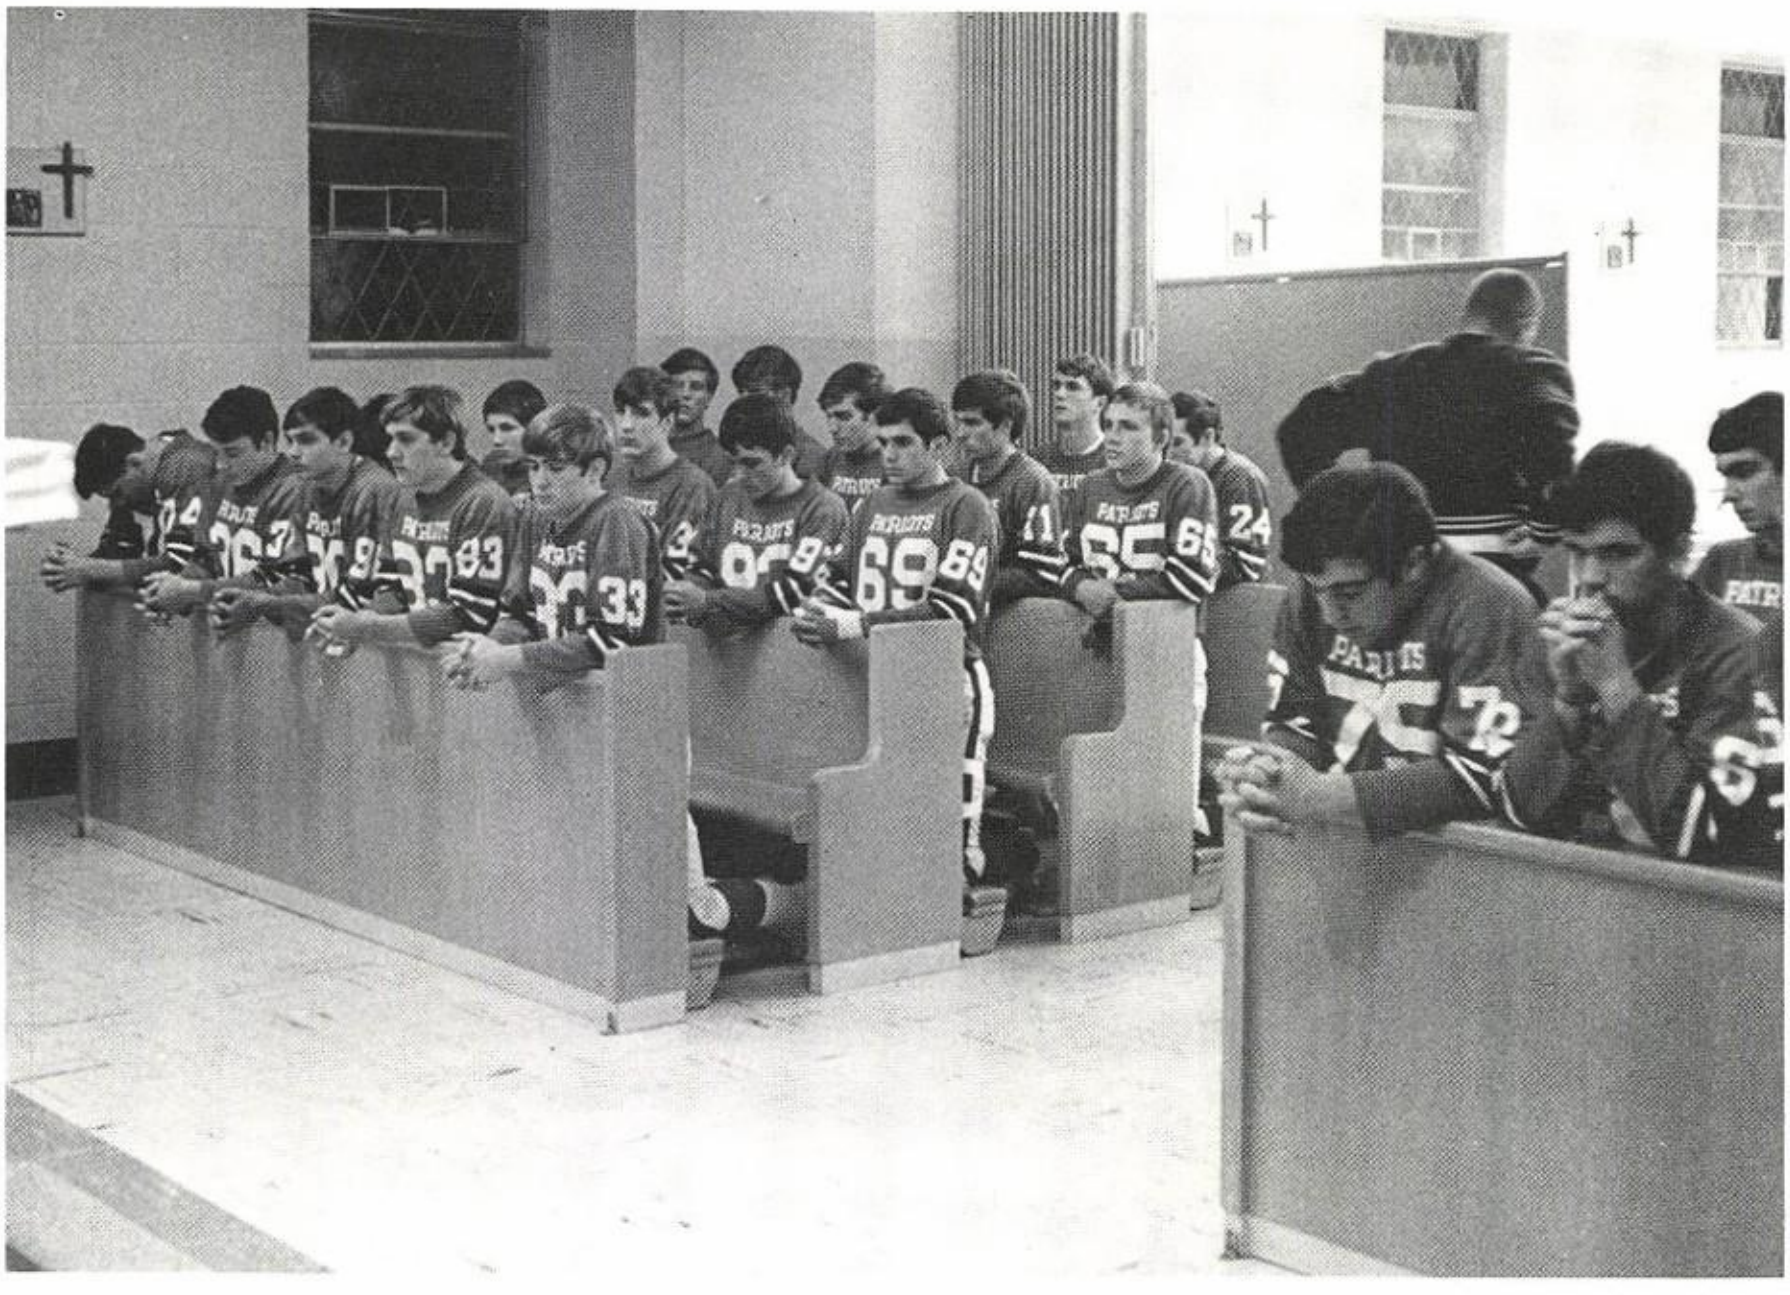
The following pages will try to relive that football season of 1970, while telling a story of football that is always present.



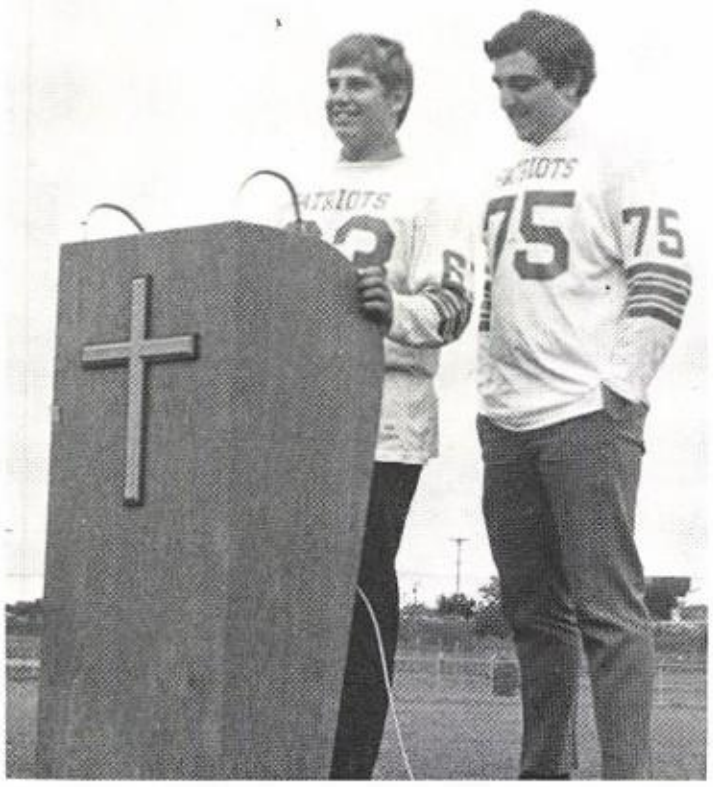
The first thing to do is get in shape.

Practice makes perfect.

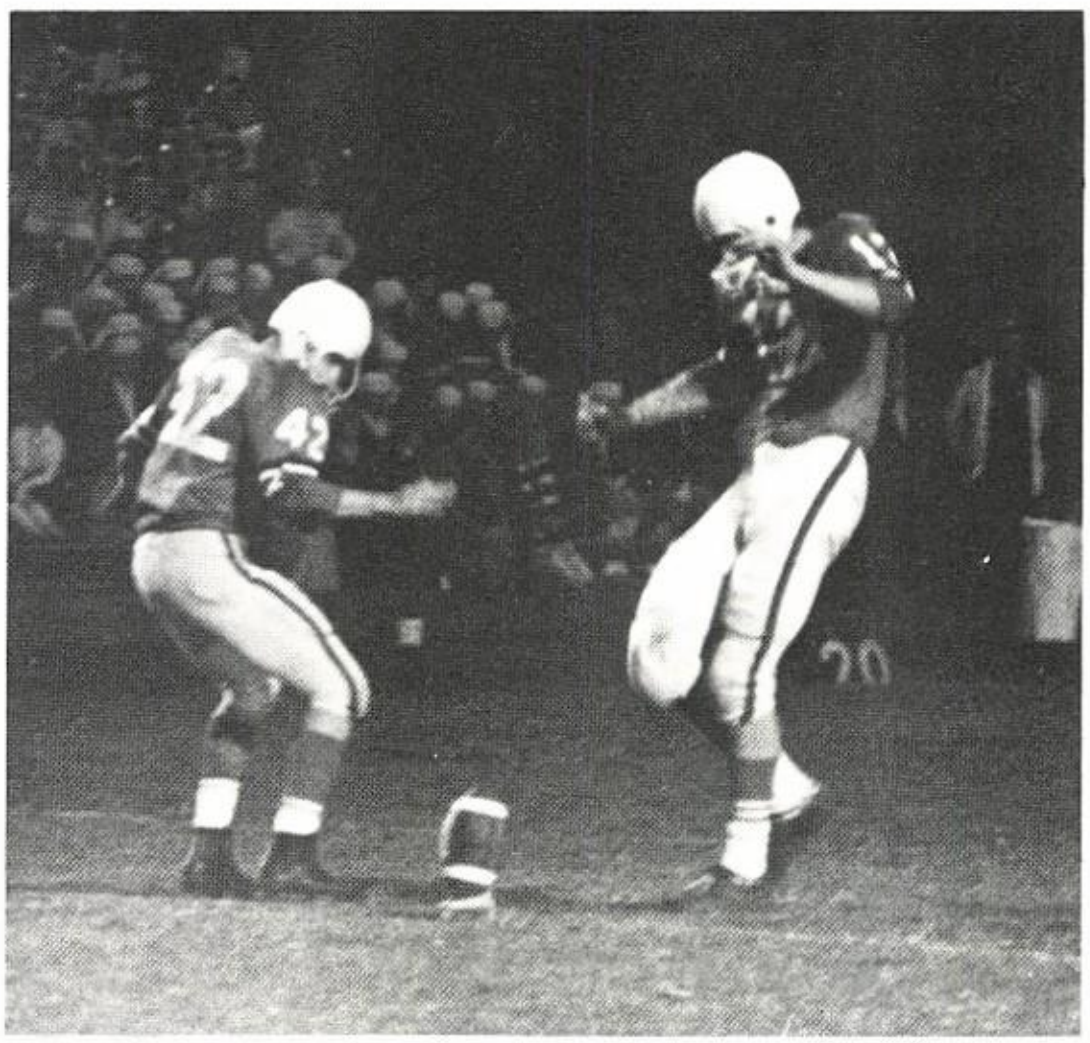
The day before the game practice is conducted in game uniforms, without pads, to get every detail down just right.



"Our Lady Queen of victory . . . Pray for us."

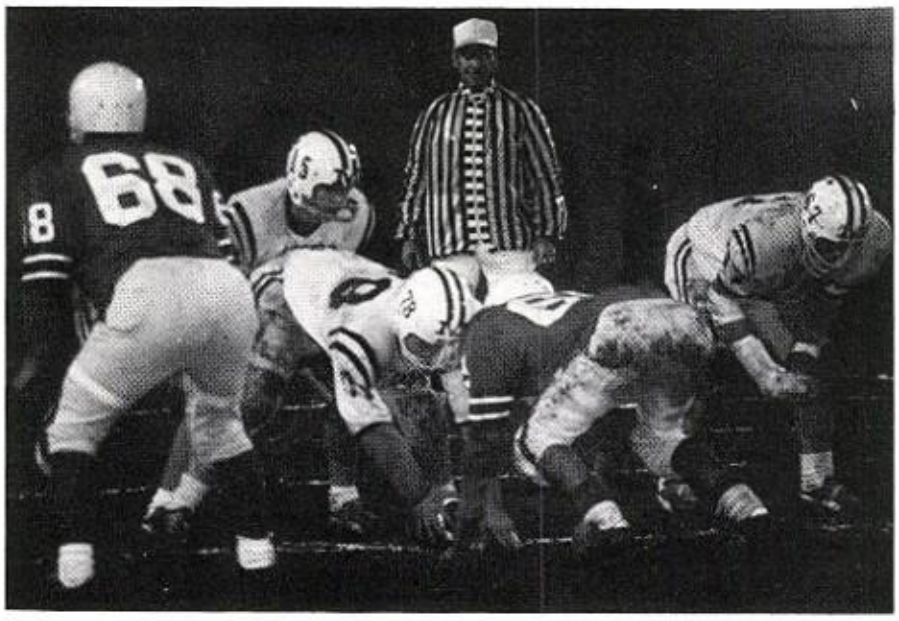


And now a few words from our co-captains; Nick Anello and Steve Wolodkiewicz.

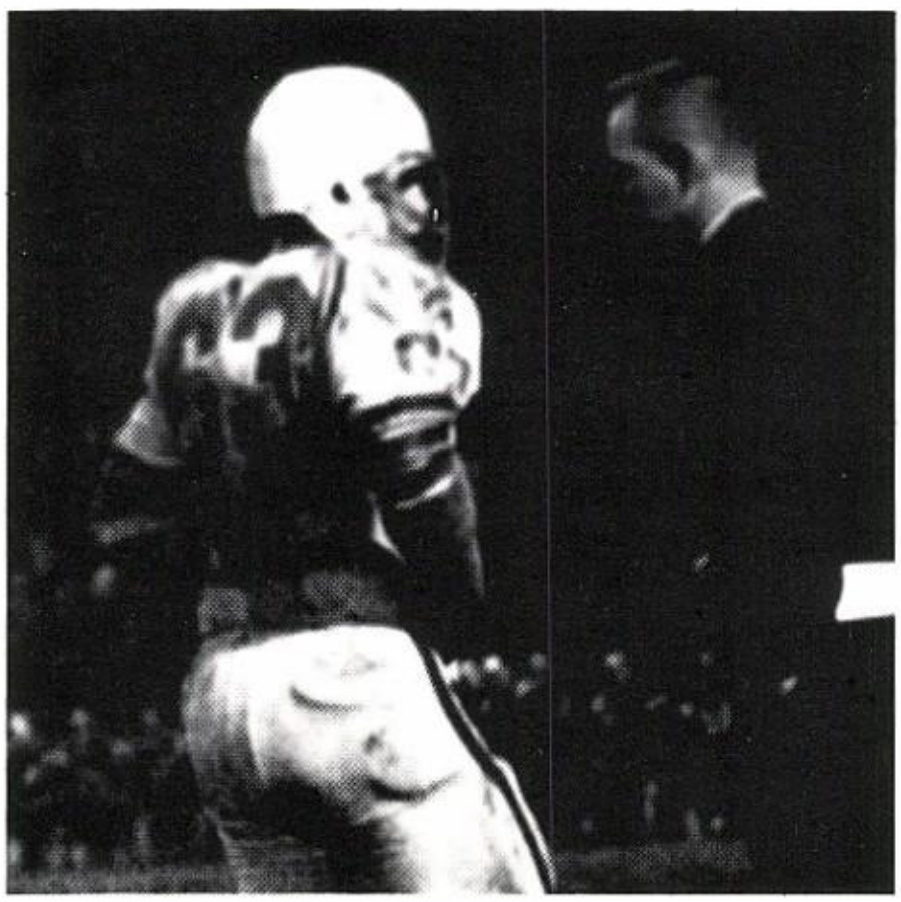


After much hard work, we're finally ready.

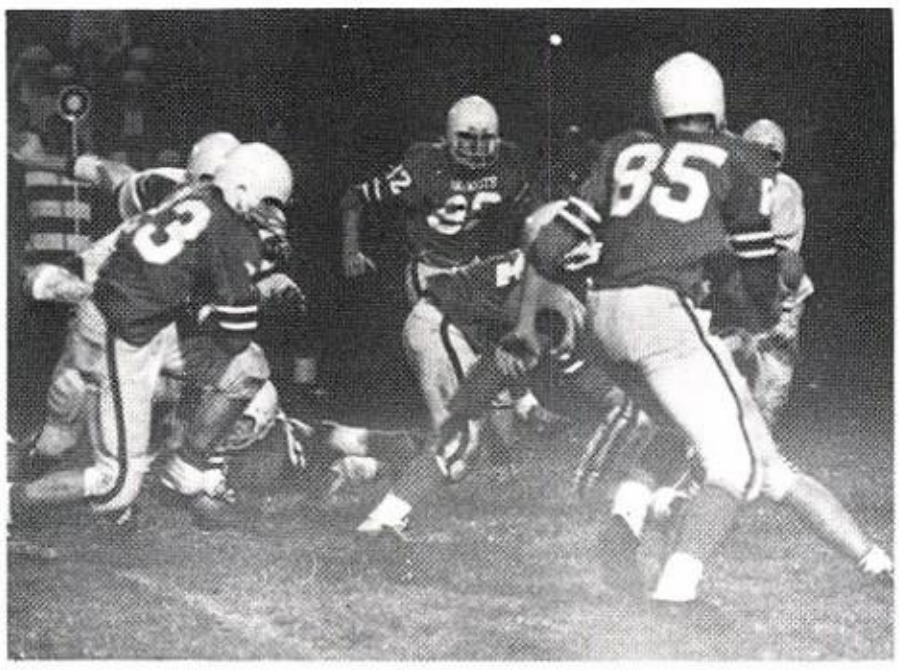
Coach Kuntz tries to rearrange the blocking.



George Hammermeister keys in on the Viking's backs.

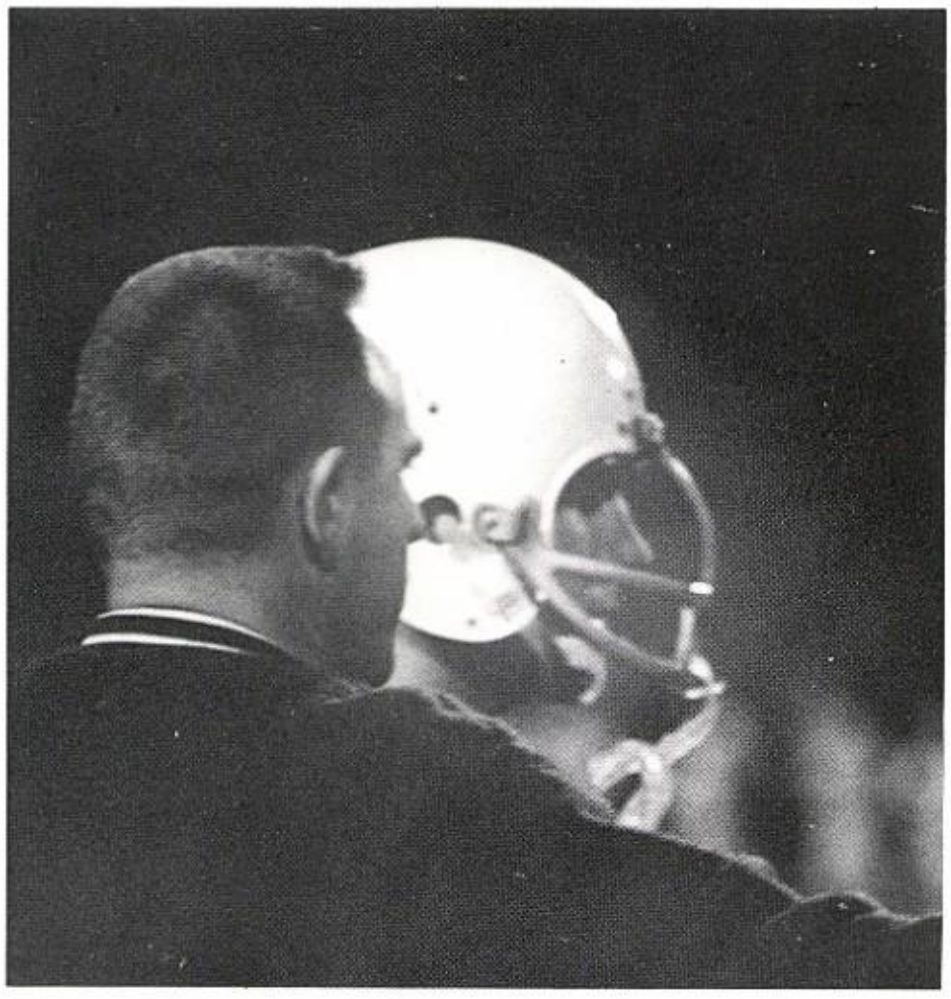


Looks like a bad night for this Knight!

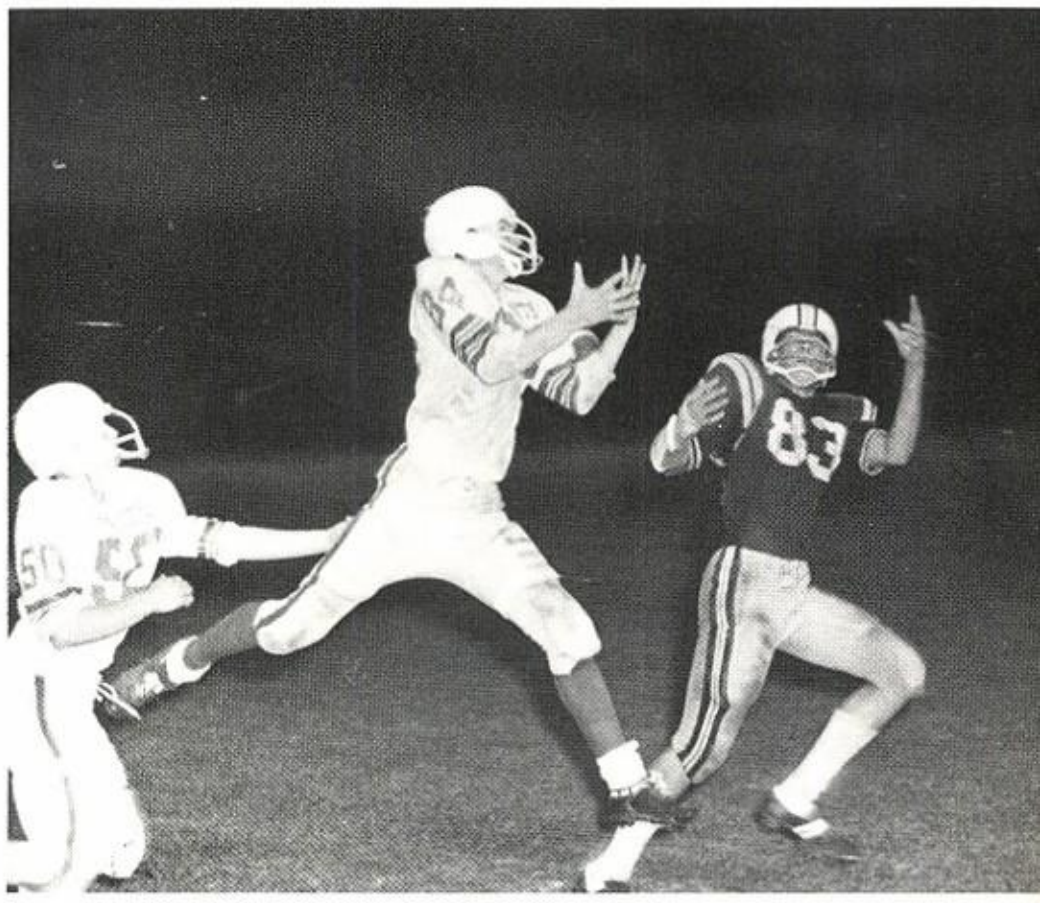


Everybody opens the hole for Denny this time.

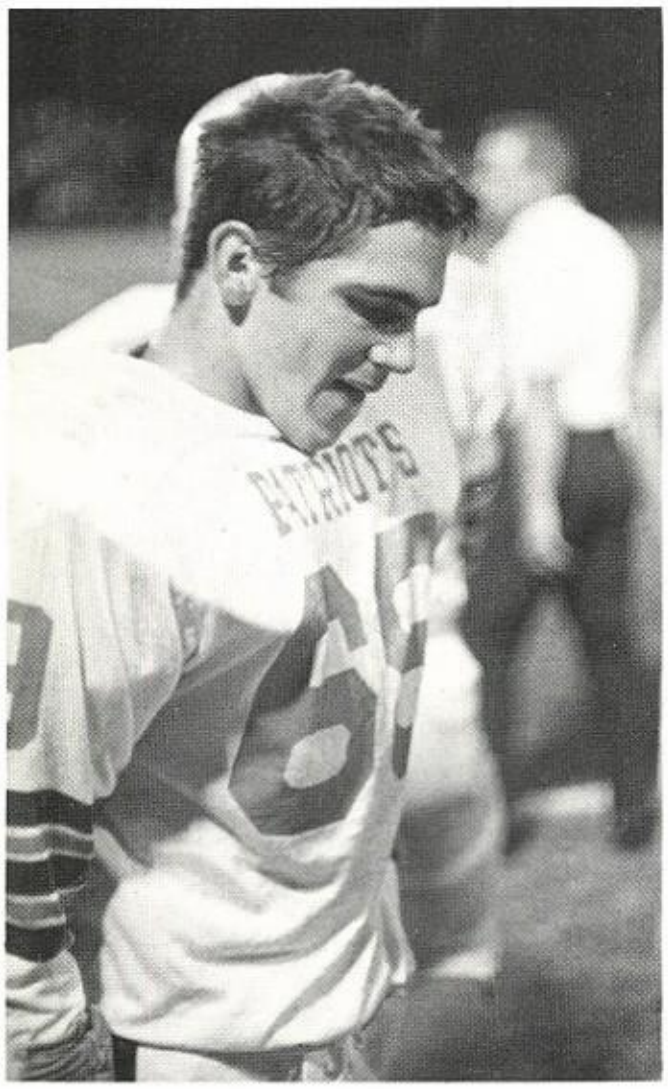
Color this opponent gang tackled.



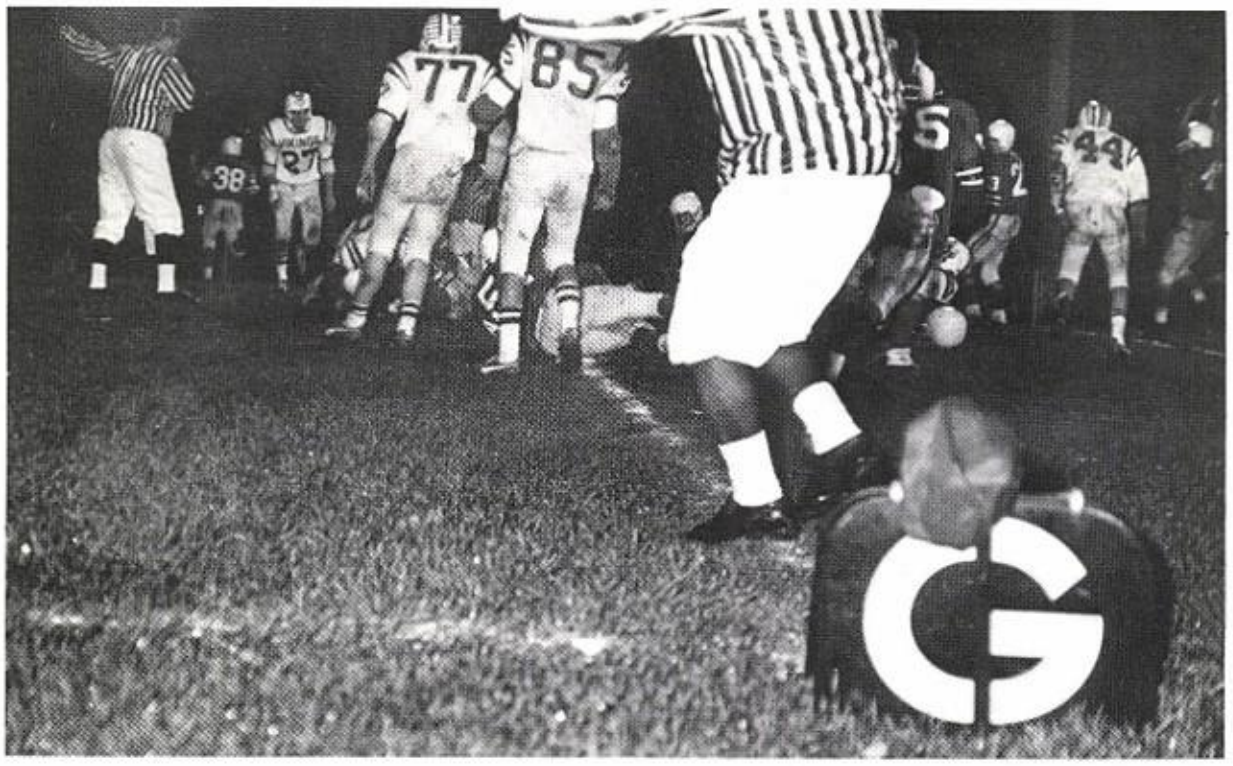
John Kappler prepares to bring in the next play.



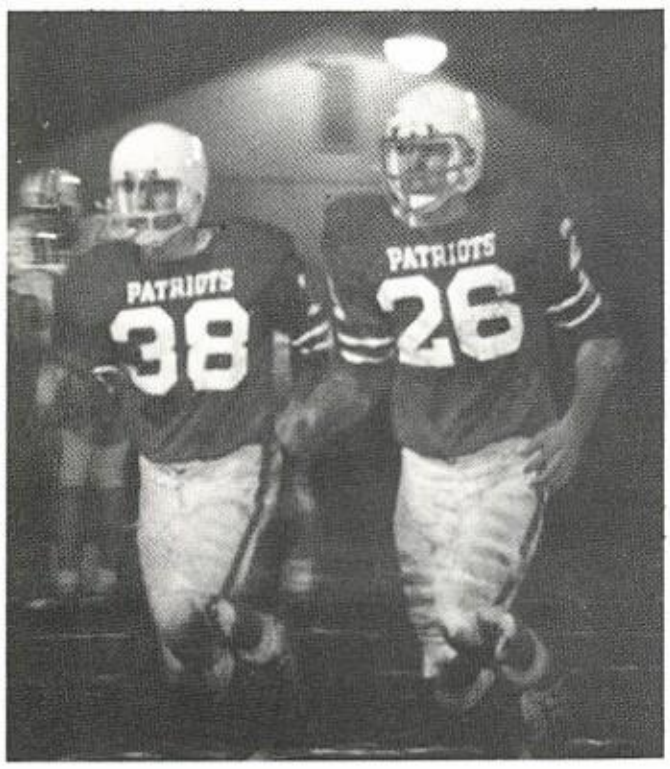
This one is all mine.



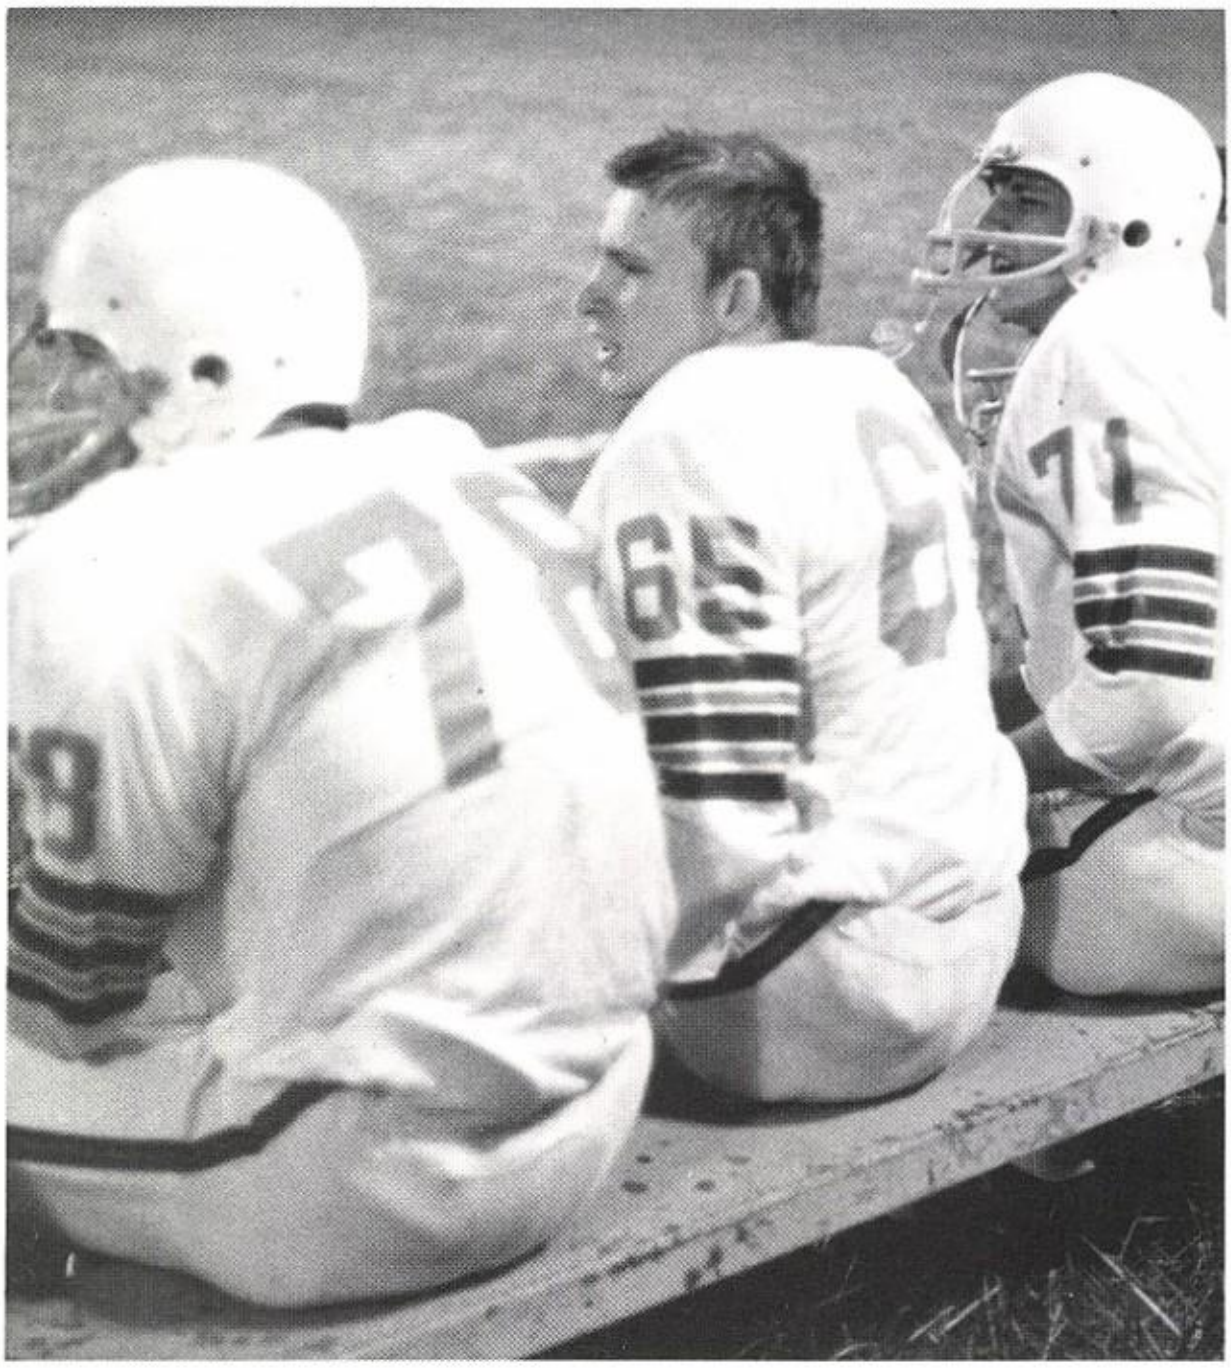
Hickey and Co. Defense



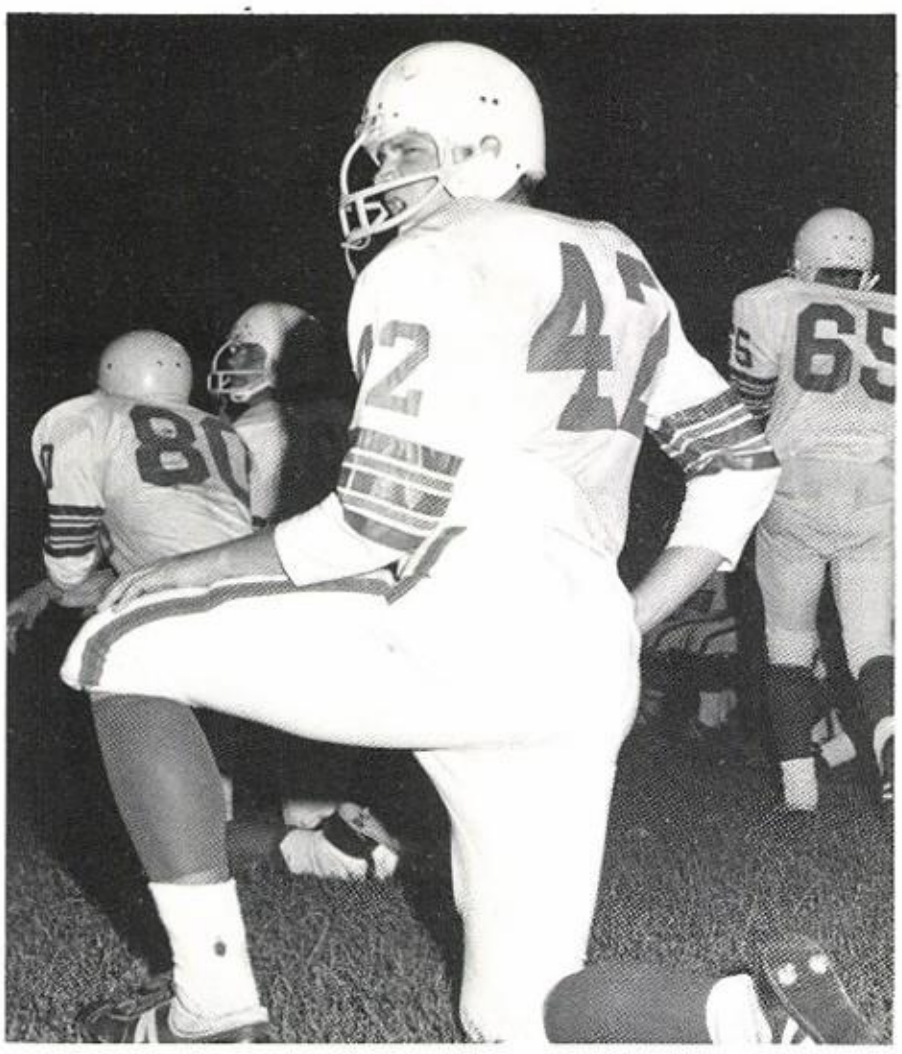
The Patriots close in once again.

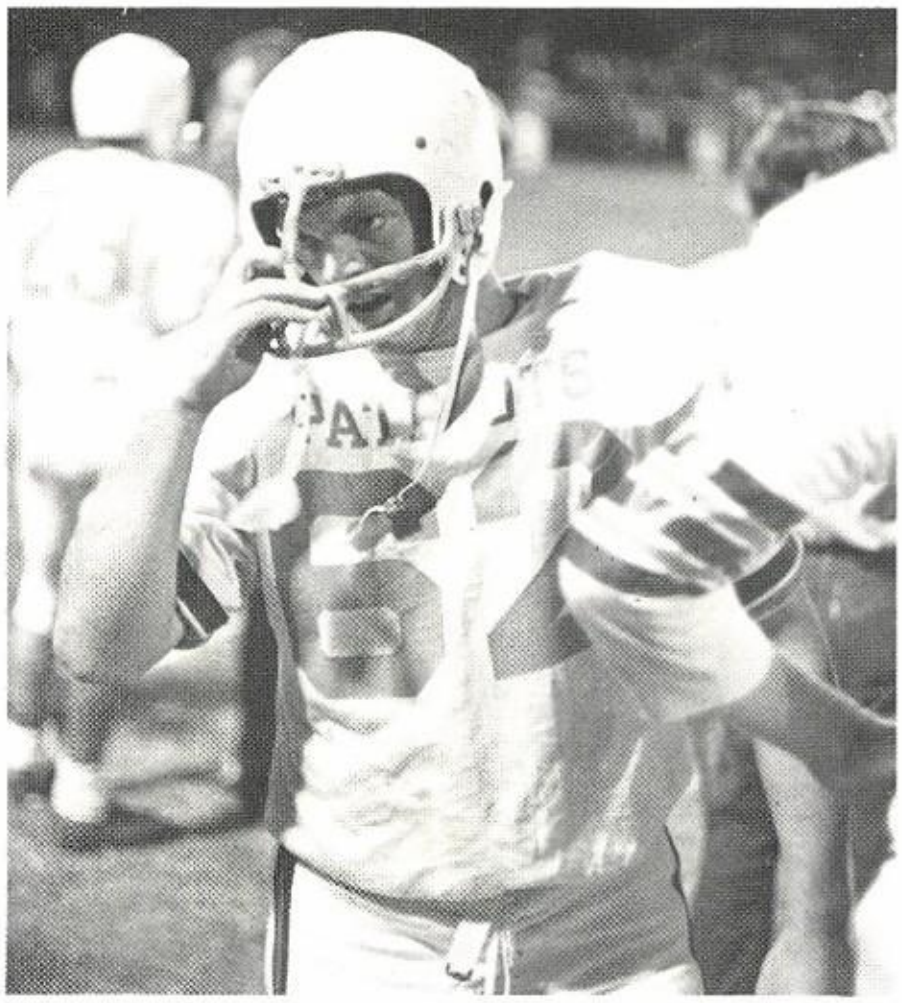


Jerry Waag and Bill Flohre



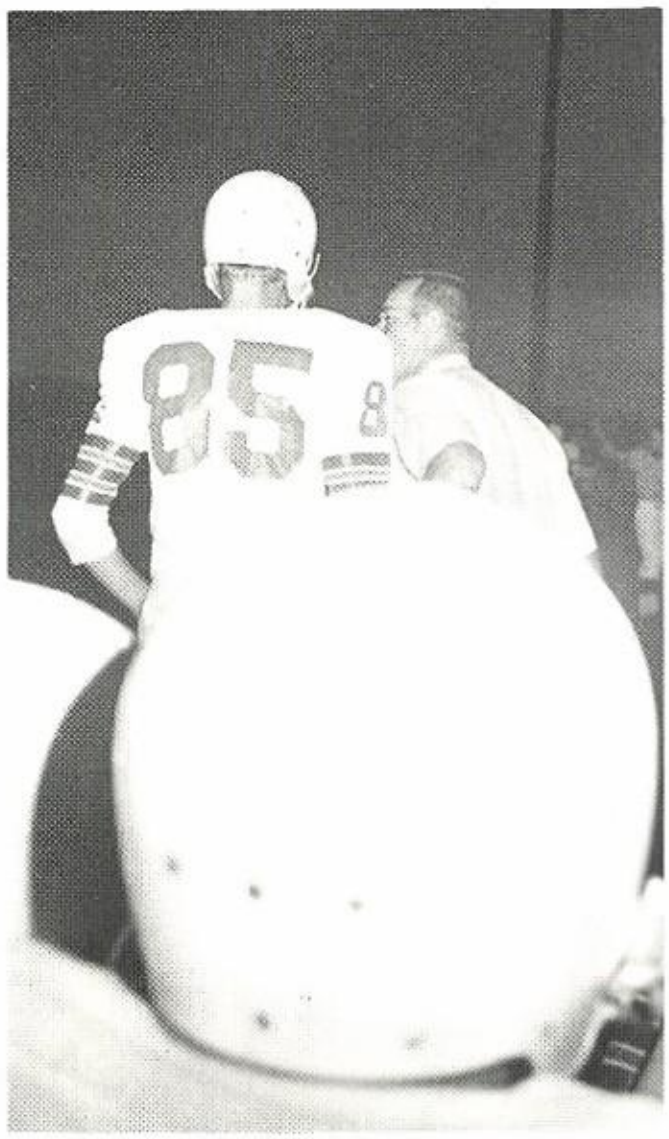
A strong bench means a strong team.



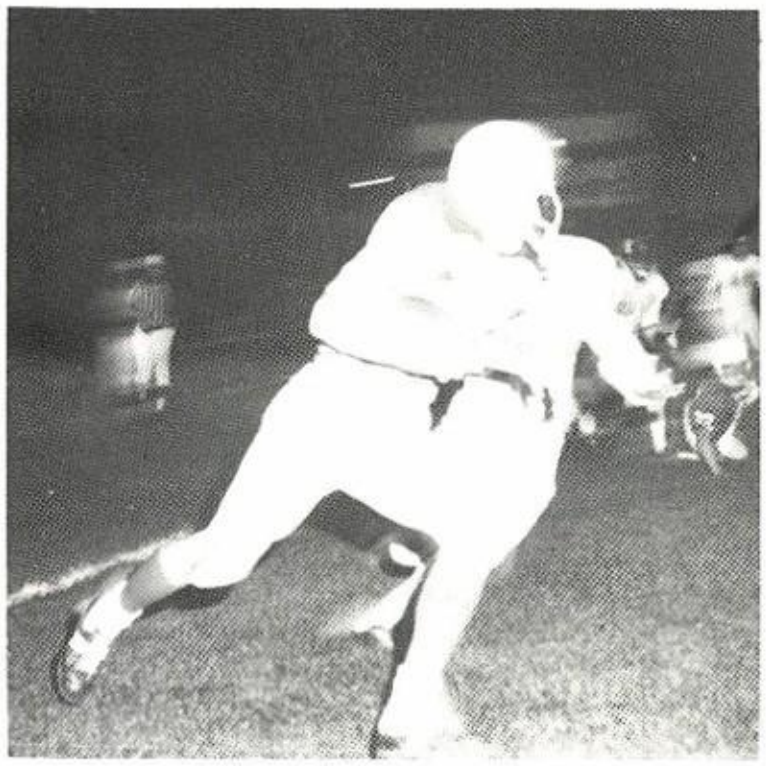


Dan Kopp takes a rest.

Tom Mullins and Tim Mosher get things straight.

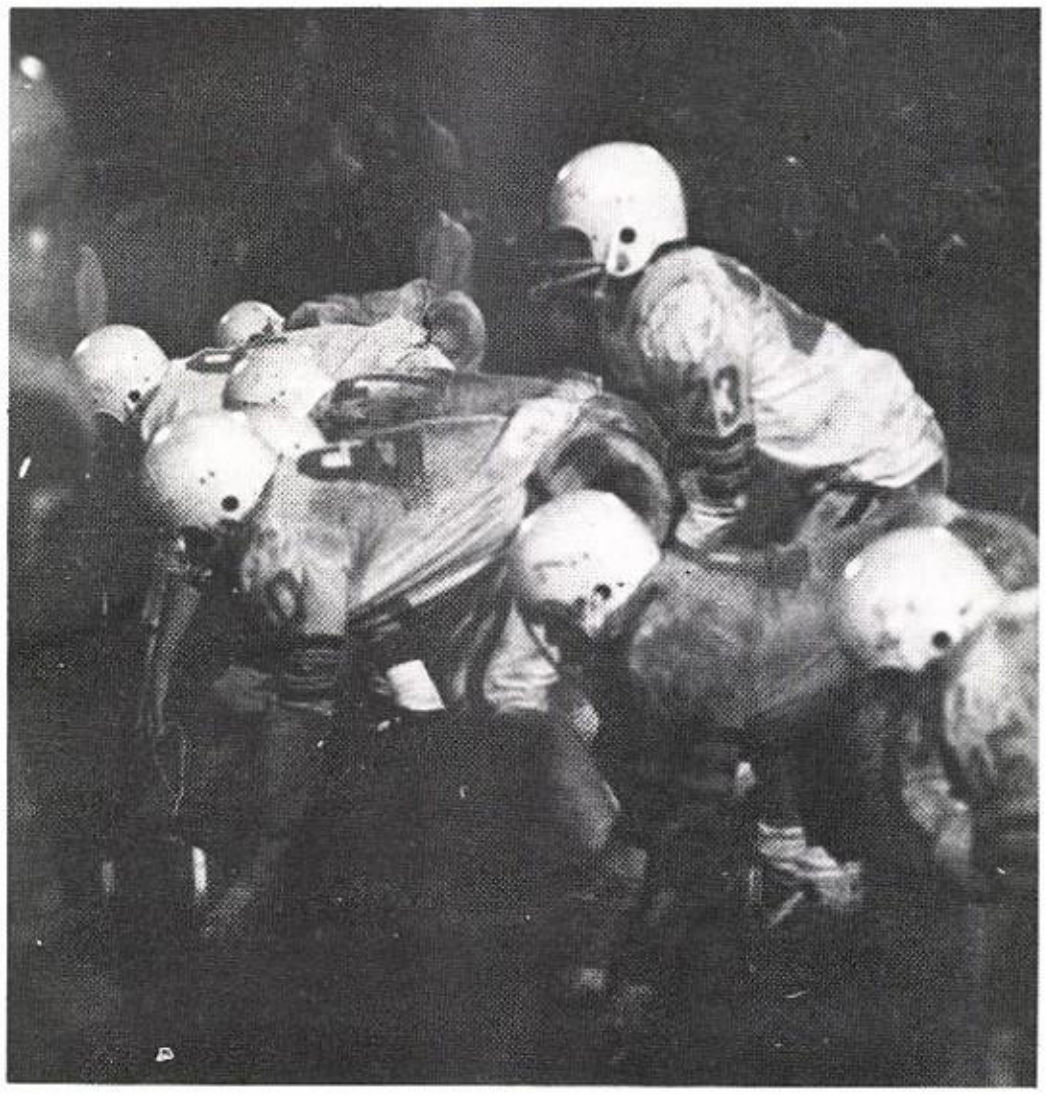


Mike O'Keefe brings in the next play.

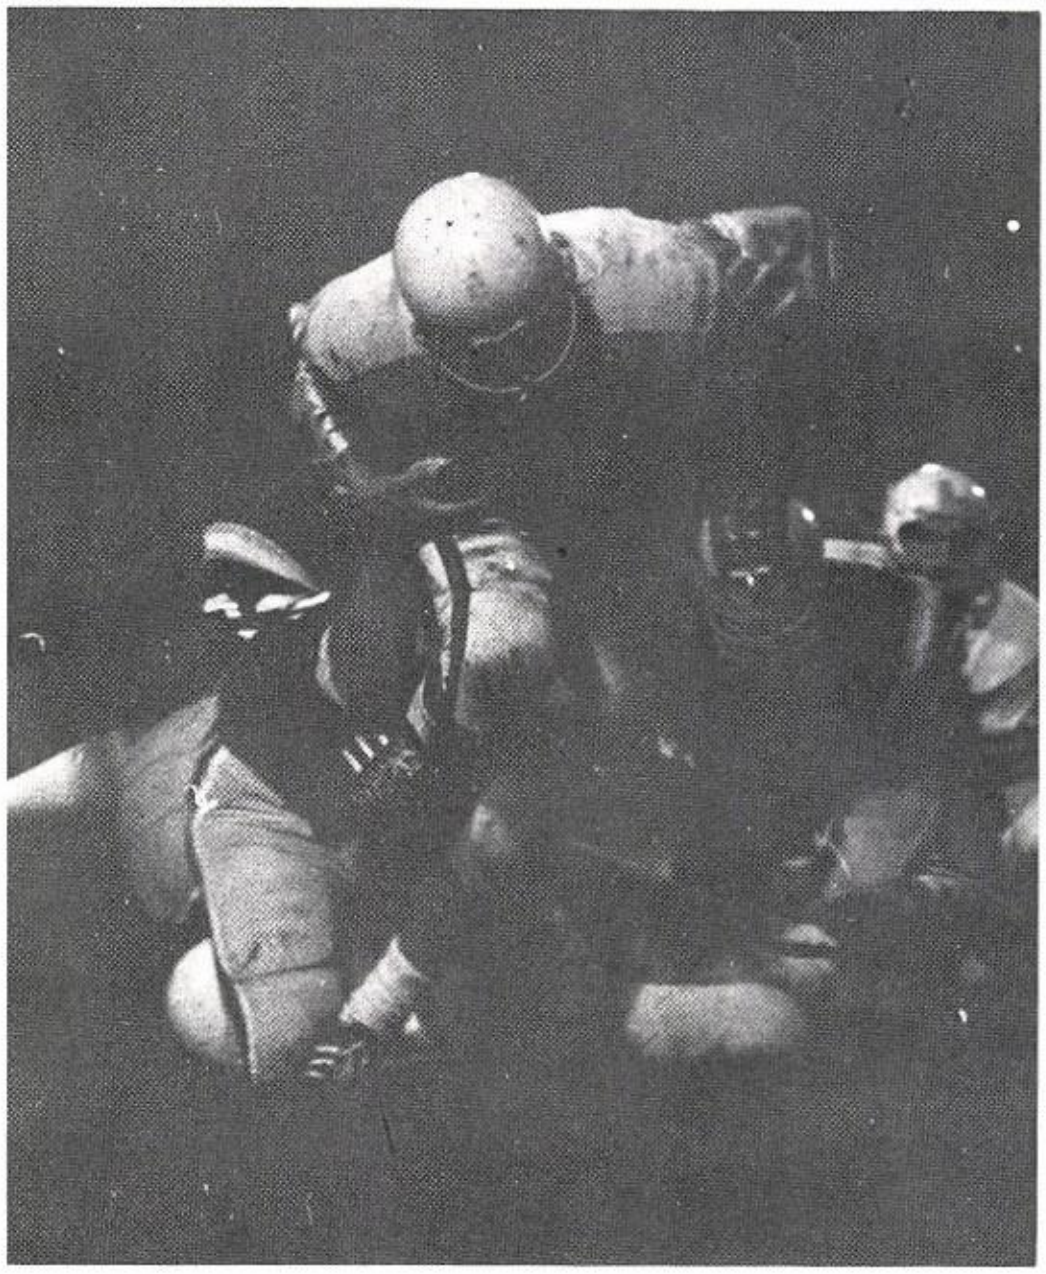


John 'Speed' Schneider

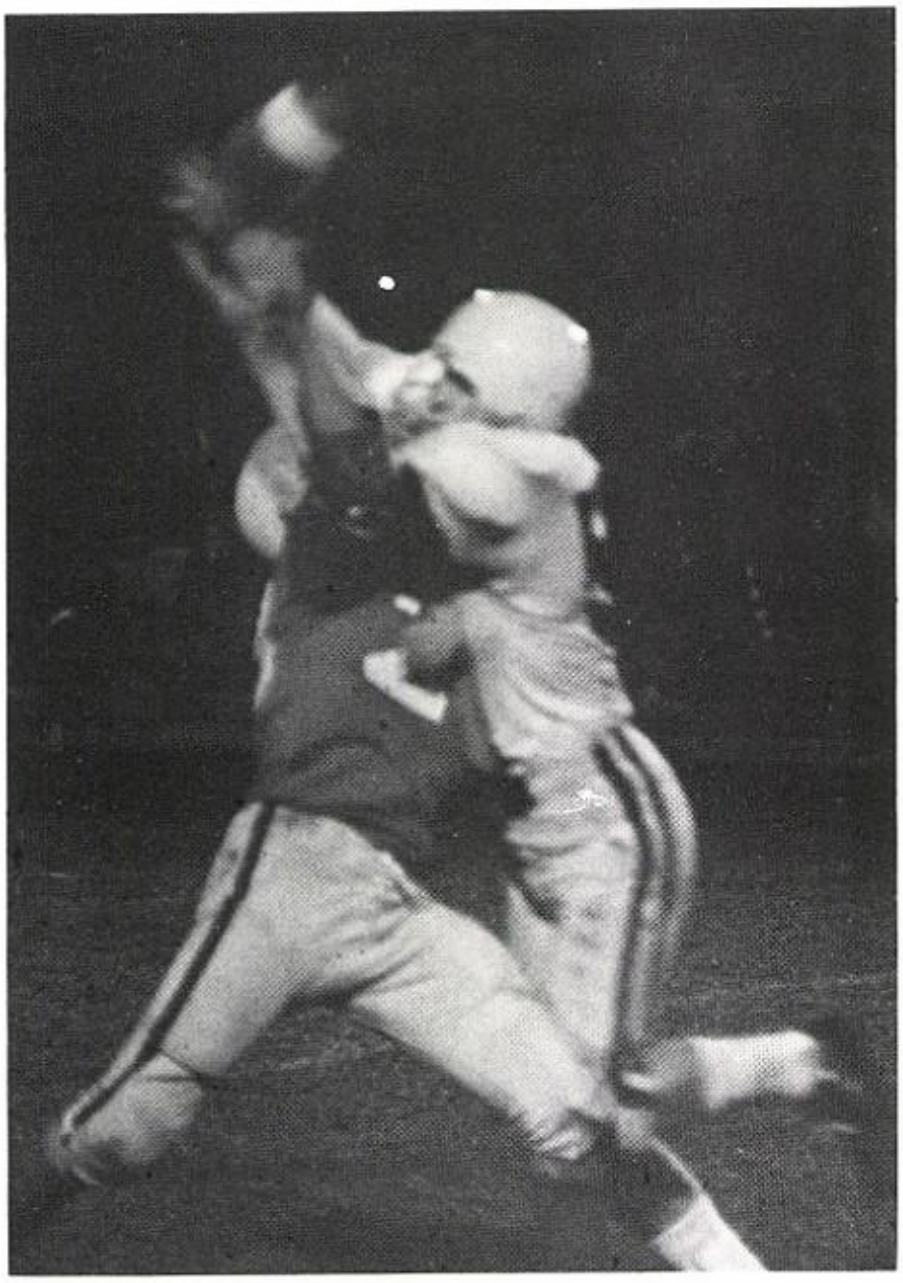
Chalk up another first down.



A line that any coach would be proud to have.

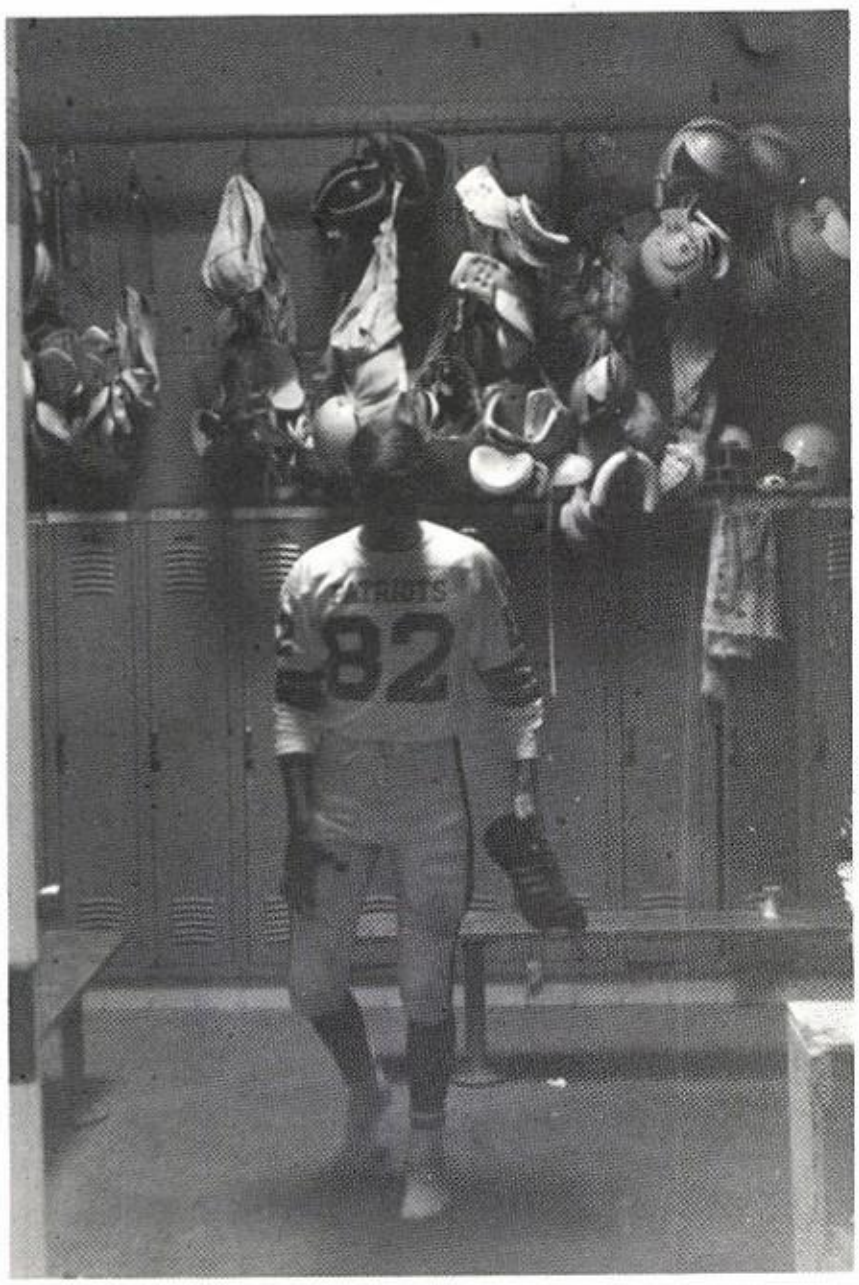


A break into daylight.

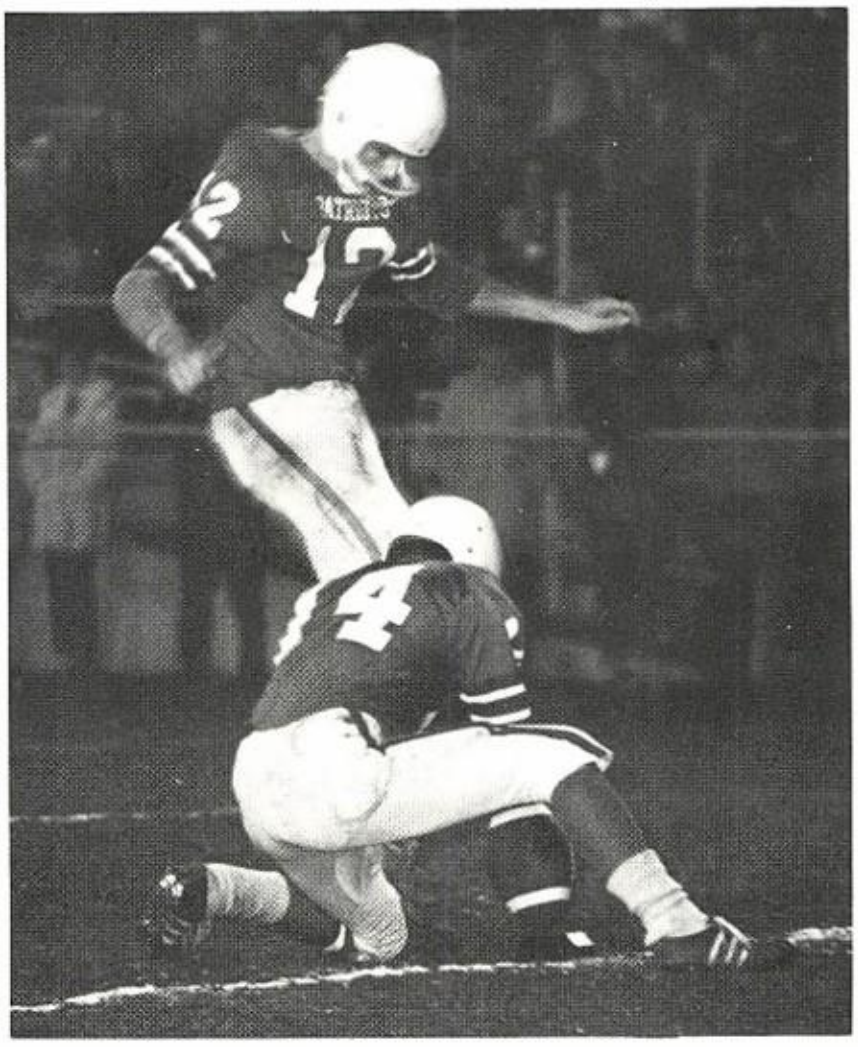


But sometimes they just don't go that way.

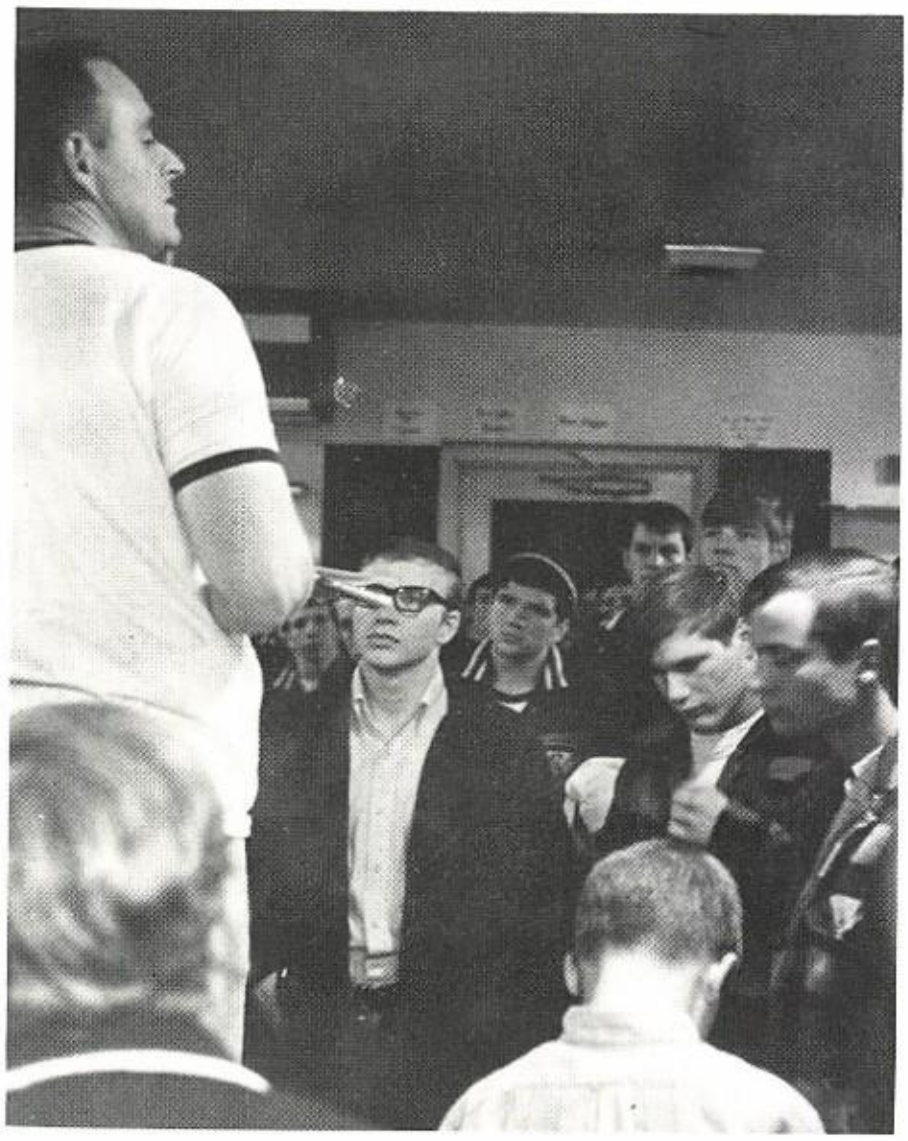
What a Pass!



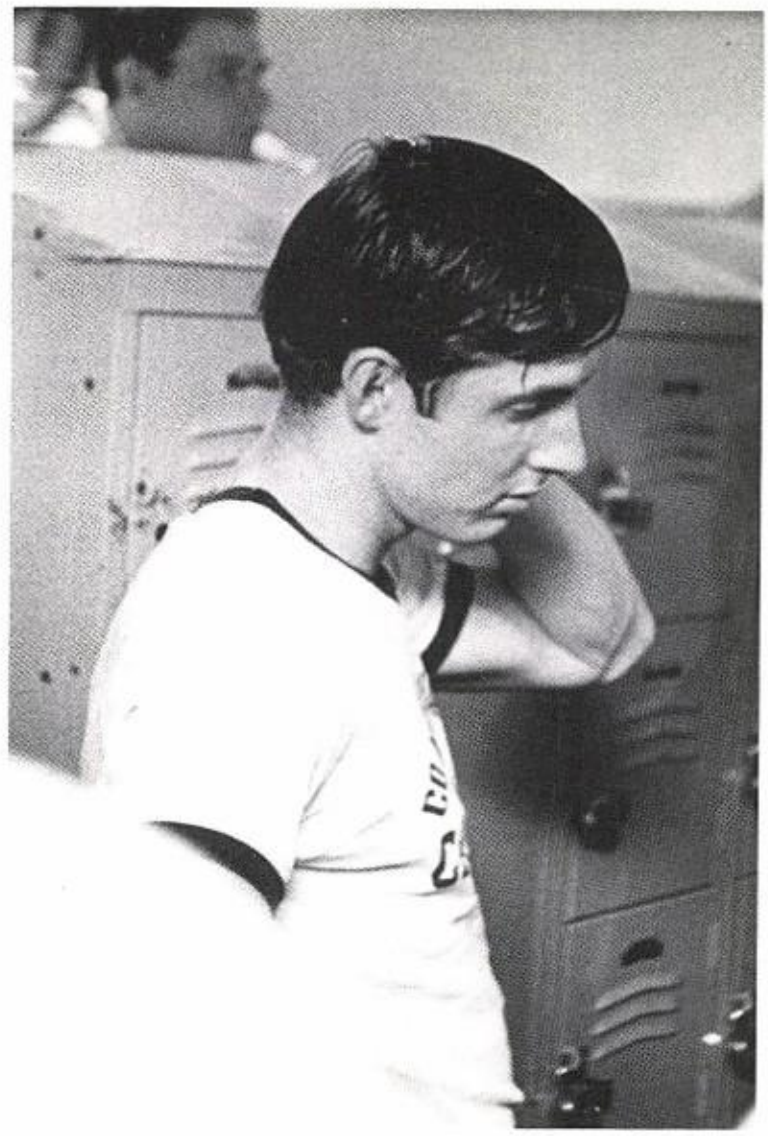
Finally it's over.



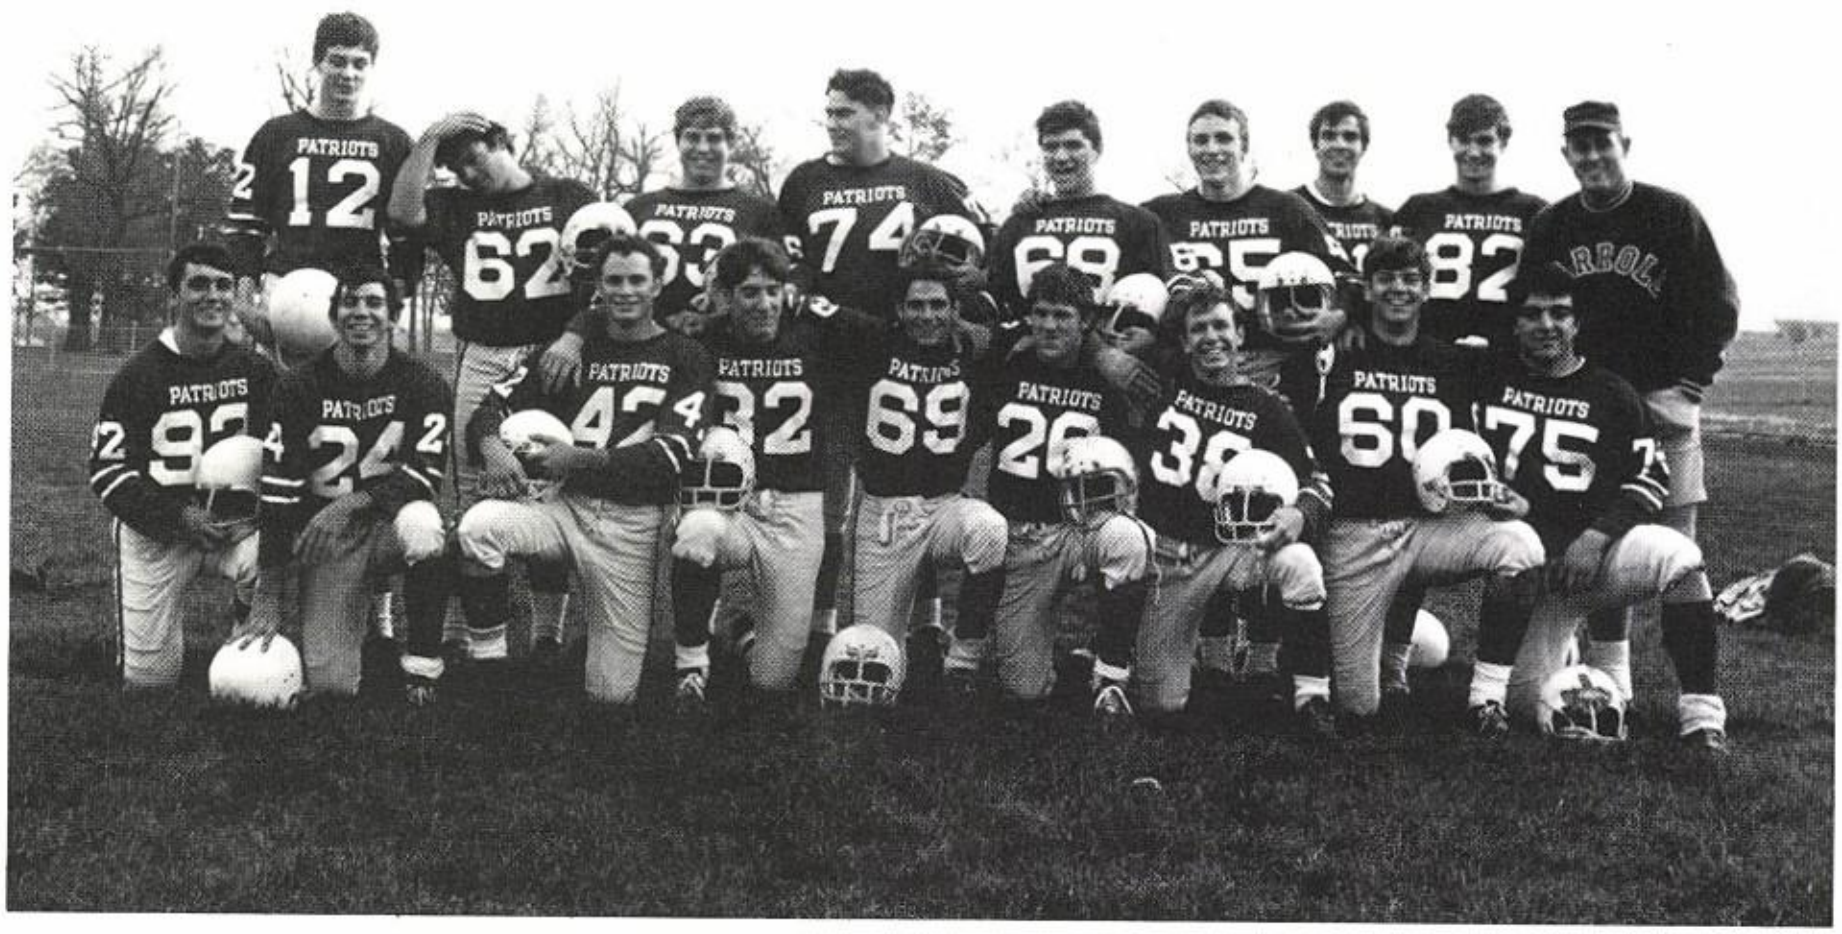
One more just for luck.



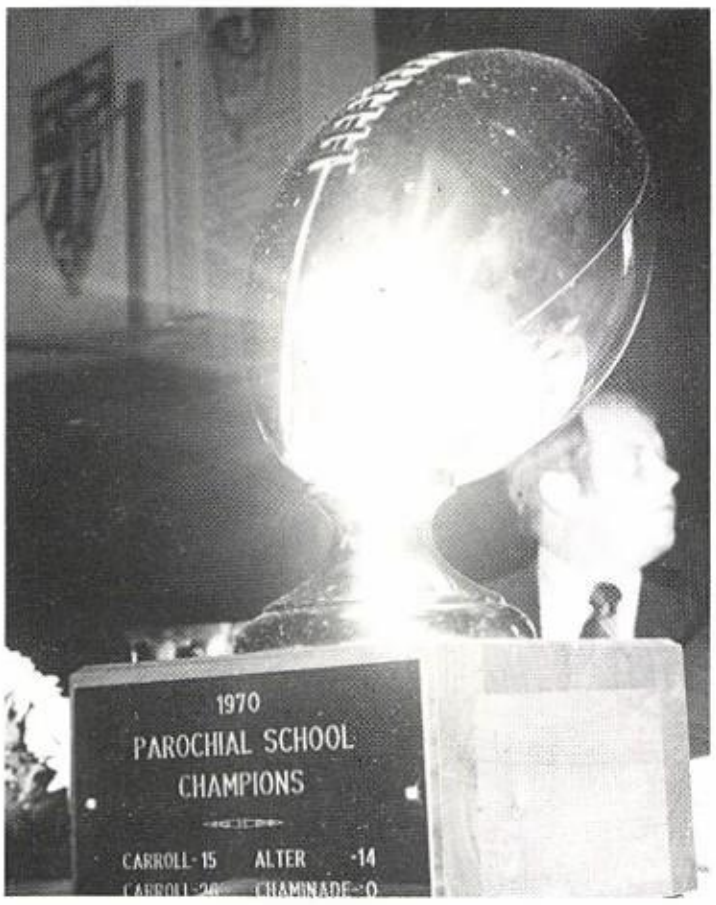
After this talk, we go all the way!



Losing doesn't hurt just the players, it catches everybody involved.

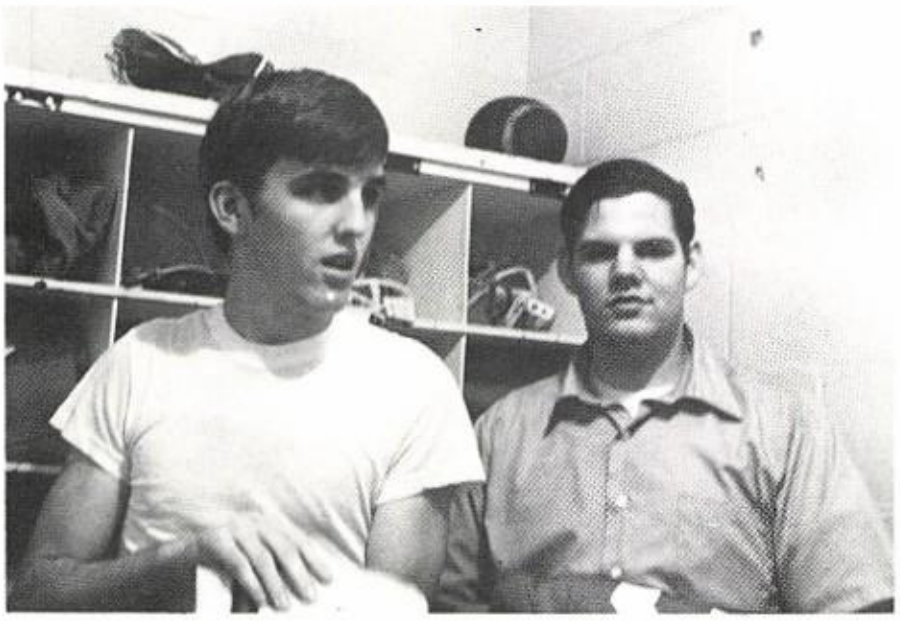


Senior leaders are the big influence in a winning season!

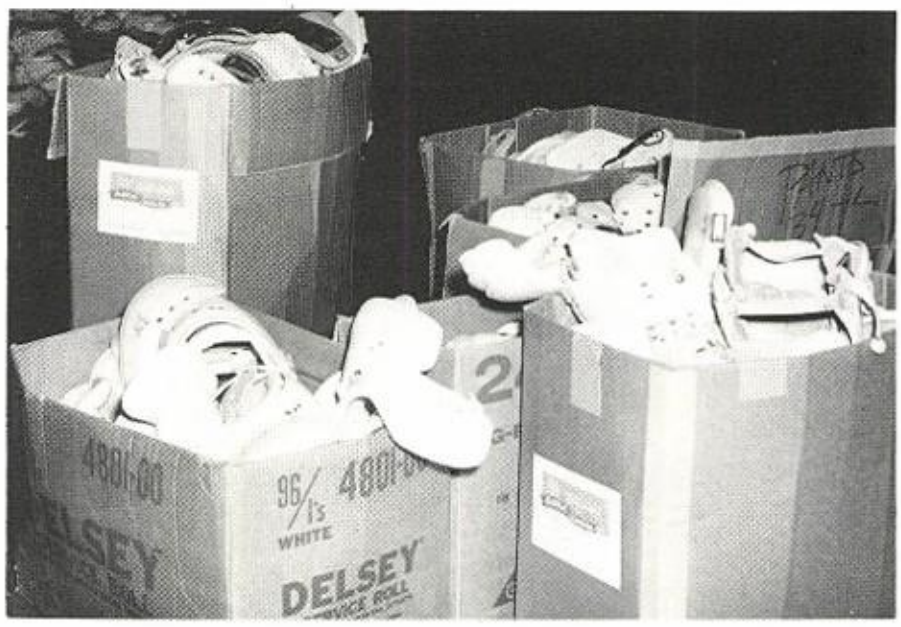


Glory to the conquerors!

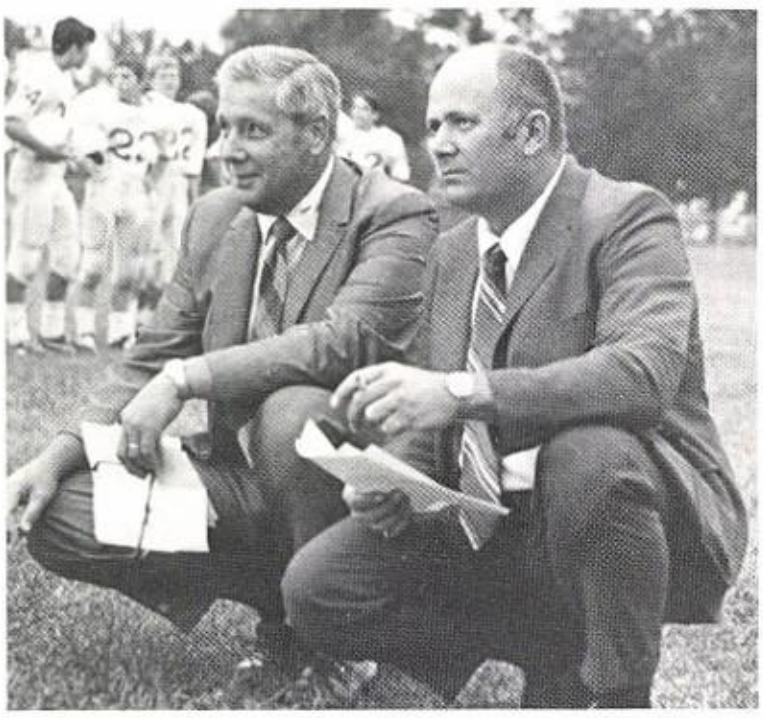
Praise to the leaders!



The coaches' helpers.



The remnants of a tough season.



Thanks to the Boosters.

Thanks to the men behind the camera.

The Fighting Patriots

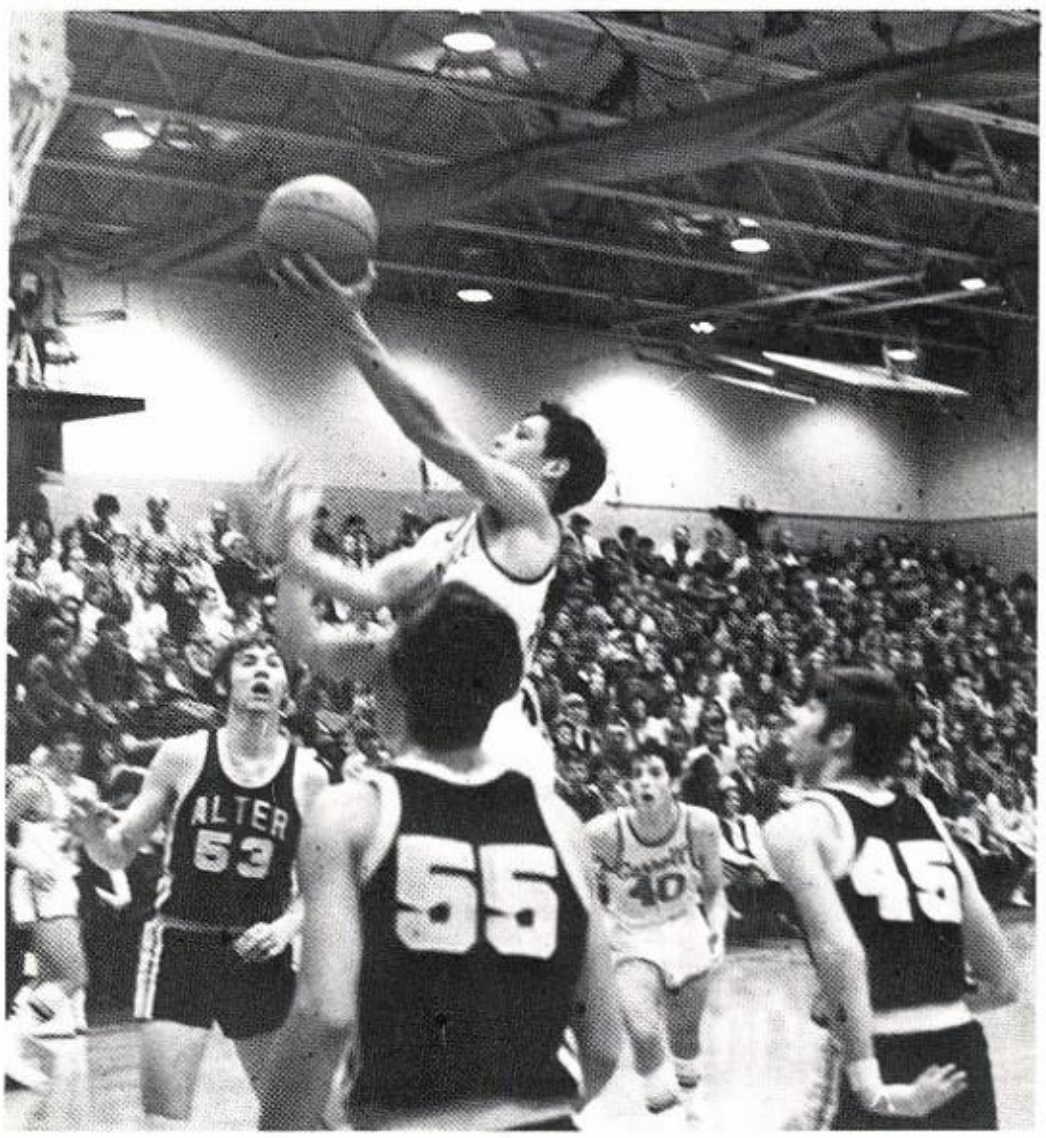
Quinter takes aim and fires.



Driving Ed Schaeffer scores on a lay-up.

"Inexperience plus one of the toughest schedules in the area are probably two of the biggest factors resulting in our 0-19 record this season. The strength of our schedule showed such teams as: Beavercreek (20-2), Vandalia (17-5), Butler (19-2), Lima Catholic (20-3), Tipp City (17-5), Middletown Fenwick (14-6), Chaminade (13-6), and Miamisburg (17-5)."

"In our last seven games, we've only been out of two," states Coach Vedova. Those seven games include a double overtime loss to Alter, an overtime loss to Hamilton Badin, and a one point loss to Springfield Catholic . . . They didn't quit hustling no matter what the situation; they gave it their all."
Words of Coach Vedova, as taken from the TORCH release.

Torque it!

The tracksters ran their way through many hot grueling practices to a victorious season, breaking numerous records. Coached by Ray Monnin, the tracksters recorded a perfect season in the dual meets (3-0), and placed second in both their tri-meets. Members of the team went on to the Sectionals in four events, and the 880 relay team went on to place in district and state meets.

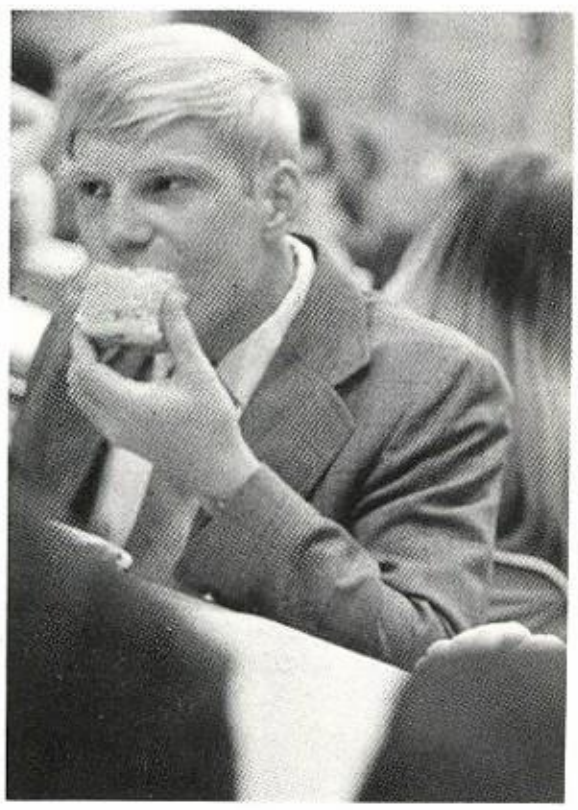
The special award winners in track were: Doug Miller, the 3C award; Jerry Waag, the 3C award, most valuable player, and athlete of the year; Chris Schmitt, the 3C award, Patriot of the year, and athlete of the year; Pat Carrothers, the 3C award.



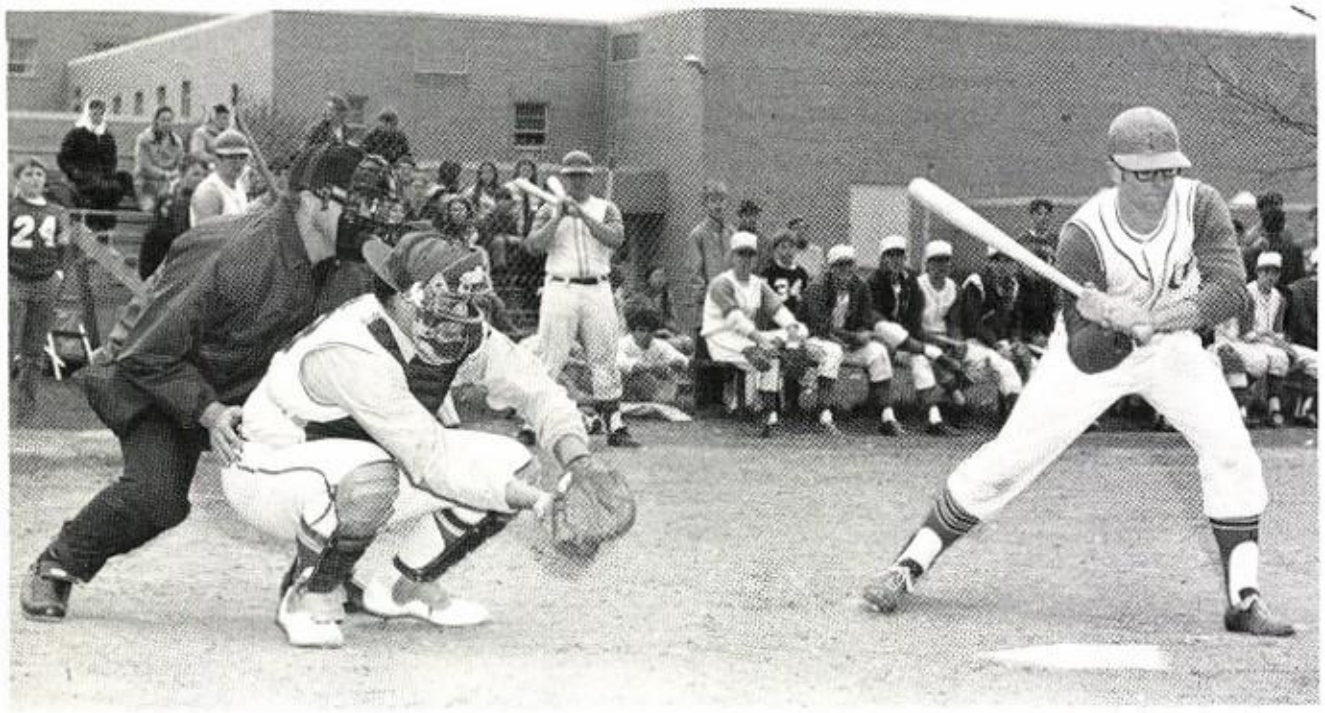
Mike Templeton enjoys the fruits of his labors at the spring sports banquet.

Pete DiSalvo makes catching a grounder look easy.

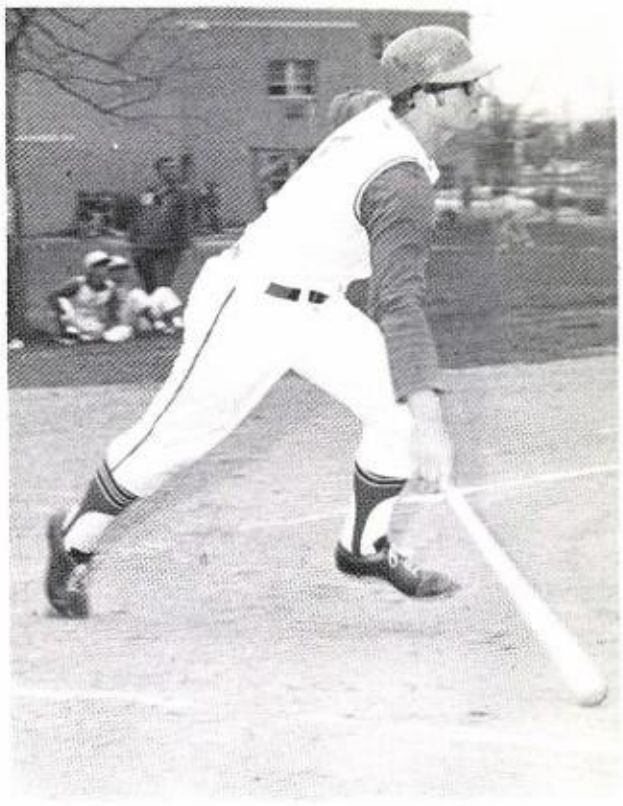
Believe it or not, this isn't a sandlot team. It's Carroll's 1971 Varsity baseball team.

The 1971 MOC Baseball Champs, left to right, Kneeling: Coach Hemmert, Greg Notestine, Pete Hagler, Steve Wolodkiewicz, Ralph Mercuri, and Steve Dahlinghaus. Second Row: Glenn Manny, Dave Trick, Jerry Notestine, Bruce Weber, George Sikora, Denny Lane, Pat West, and Ed Schaeffer. Third Row: Tony Bunger, Pete DiSalvo, Larry DePasquale, John Slightam, Dan Witt, and Dave Storer.

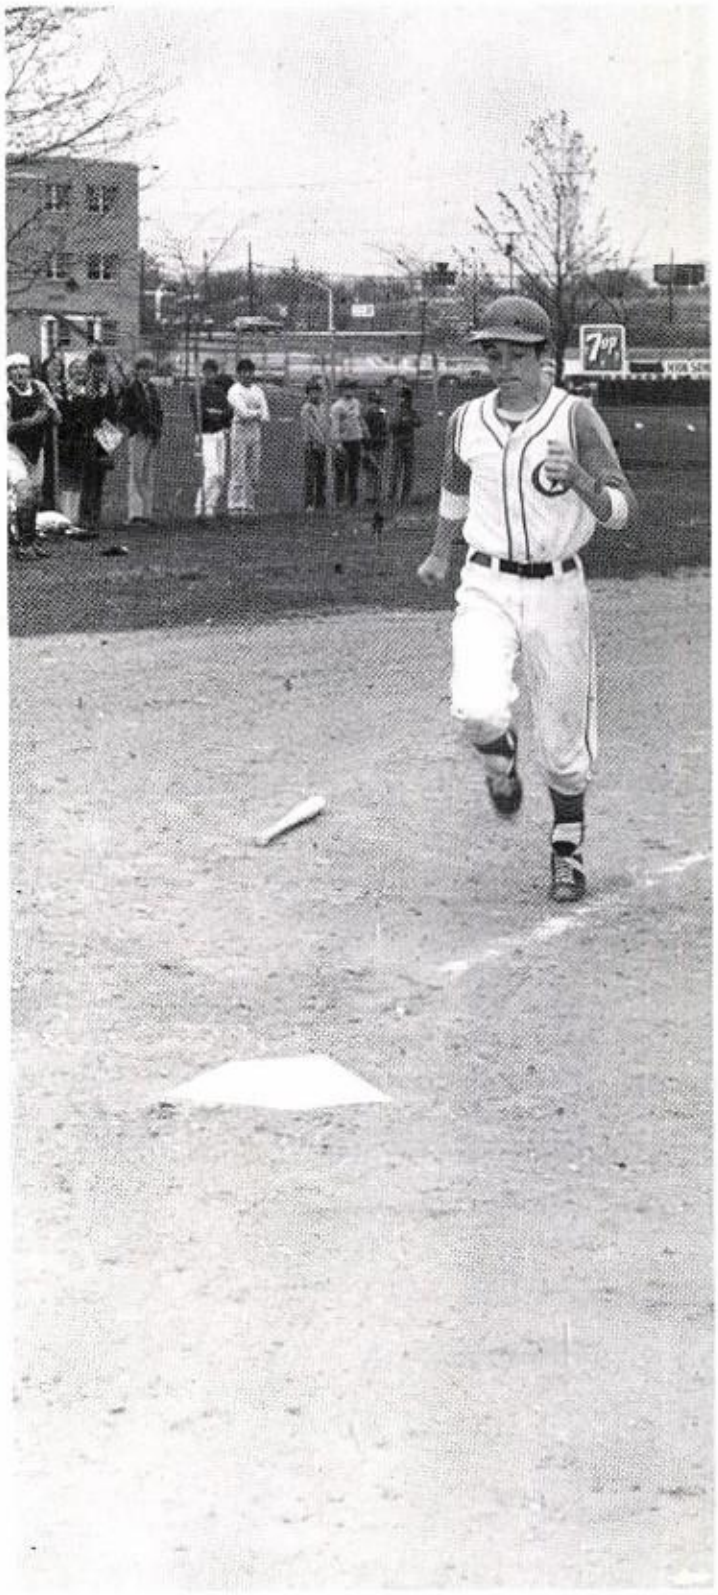
For the fourth year in a row, Carroll's baseball team, coached by Mr. Hemmert, has captured the MOC title. This year they won the title by defeating Alter 1-0, and Springfield Catholic 4-1. "Hemmert's Hitters" broke a number of school records including the number of runs scored (Steve Wolodkiewicz — 30), number of hits in one season (Pete Hagler — 34), and the number of homeruns in one season for an individual (Pat West — 6) and for the team (20). Strong pitching, fielding, and batting helped the Pats compile their winning record of 14-12.



Glenn Manny's going to fool this catcher and hit the ball out of the park.

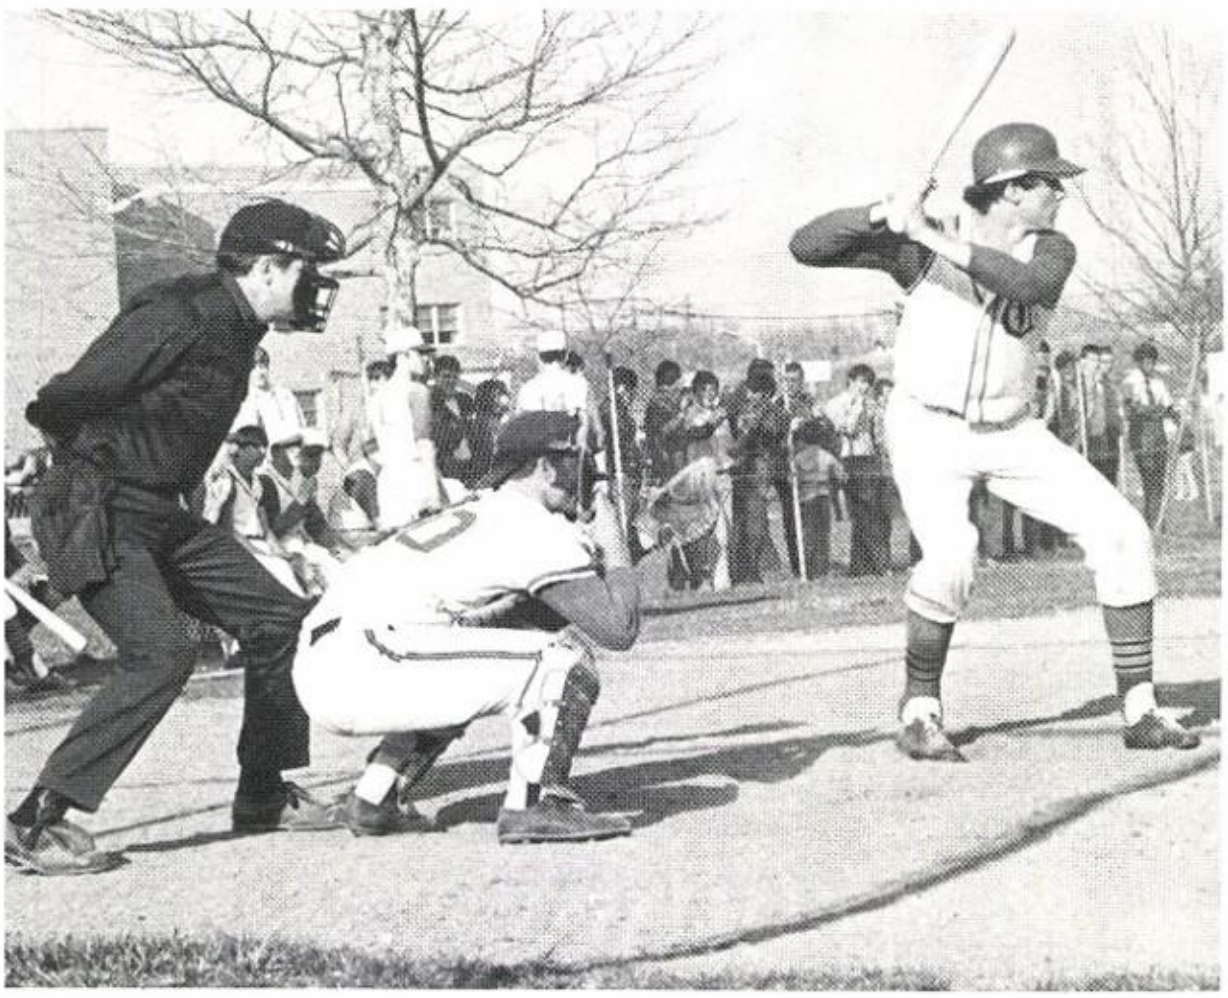


Each hit advances all the players as Pat West moves to third.

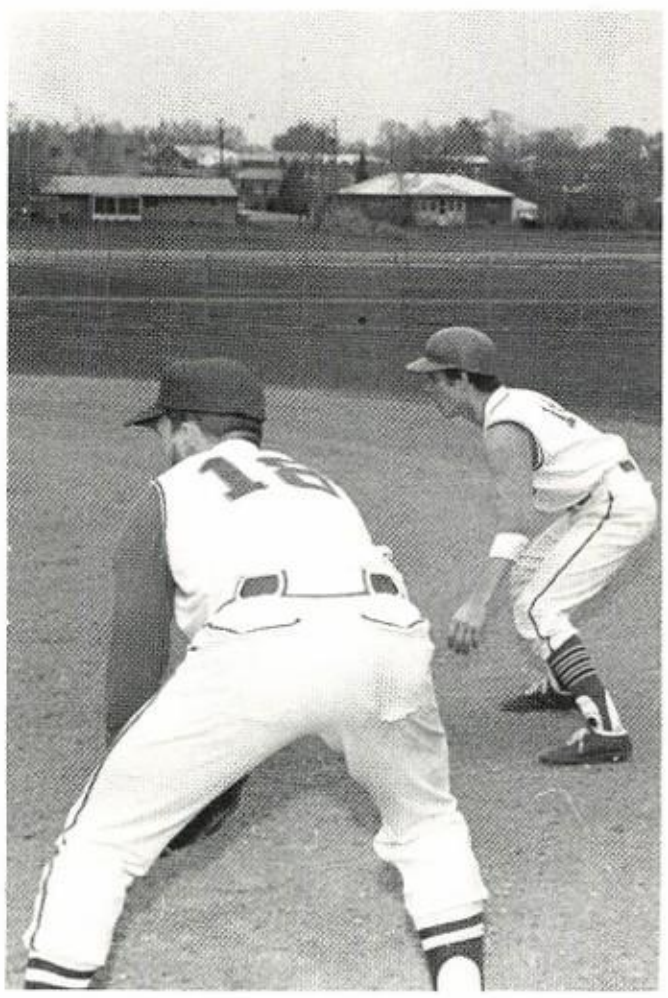


"I think I can, I think I can, I think I can . . ."

Tension mounts in the stands as Denny Lane waits — ready for action.



As a batter he has only one weakness — a pitched ball.



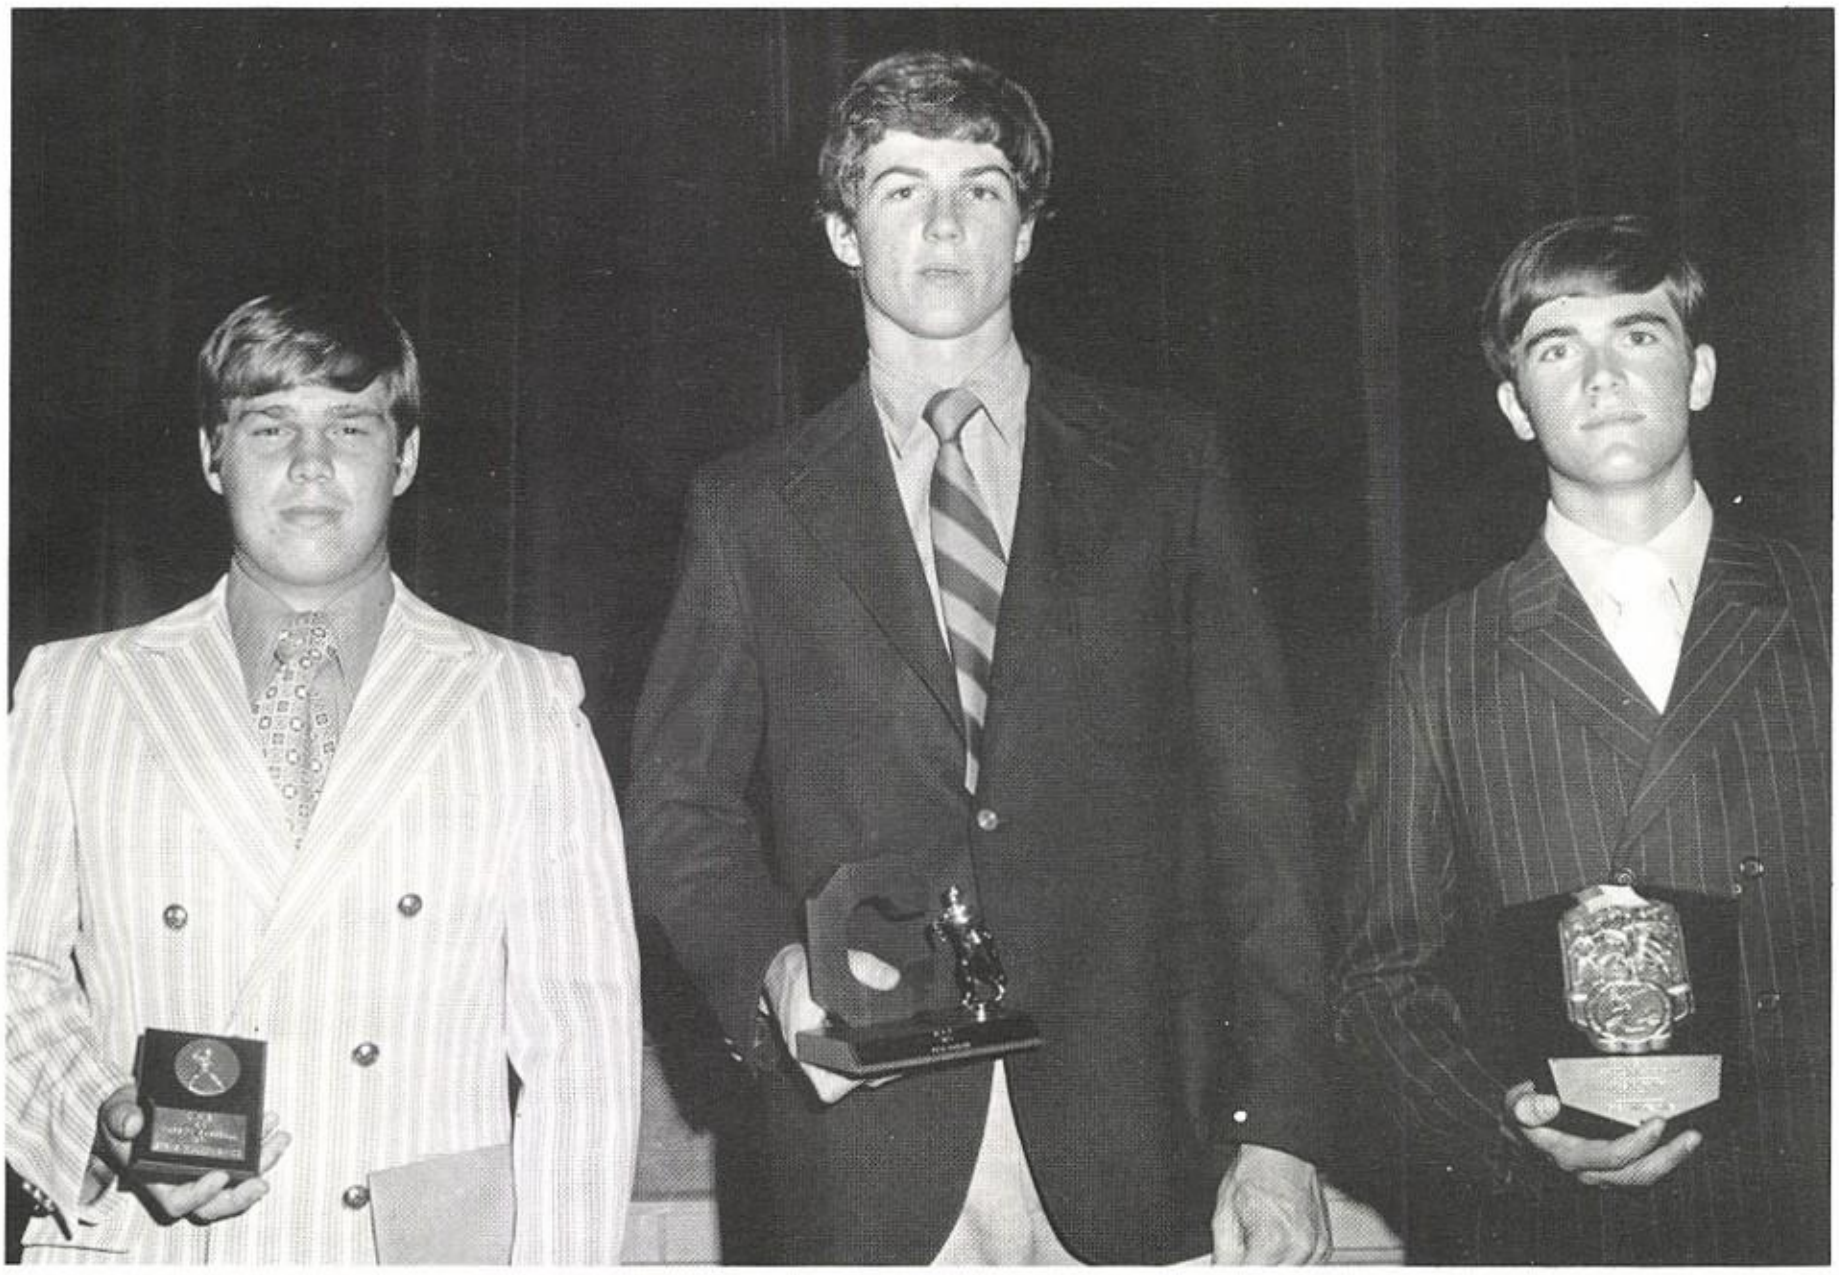
Ed Schaeffer is just waiting for the catcher to miss the ball so he can steal second.

All right Wally, enough dancing! Now where's the ball?

Besides being a powerful hitter, Pete Hagler has great fielding ability.

Pat West isn't even going to give this Fairmont runner a chance to score.

Jerry Notestine shows he is not only a good pitcher, but an able batter as well.



Baseball awards were given to the following athletes: Steve Wolodkiewicz — the 3-C award, Pete Hagler — Most Valuable Player, and Greg Notestine — winner of the Patriot Award for baseball.

GOLF

Maybe Jeff Graham thinks talking to the ball will help.

Fr. Heinl must not trust his golfers; why else would he be hiding behind a tree?

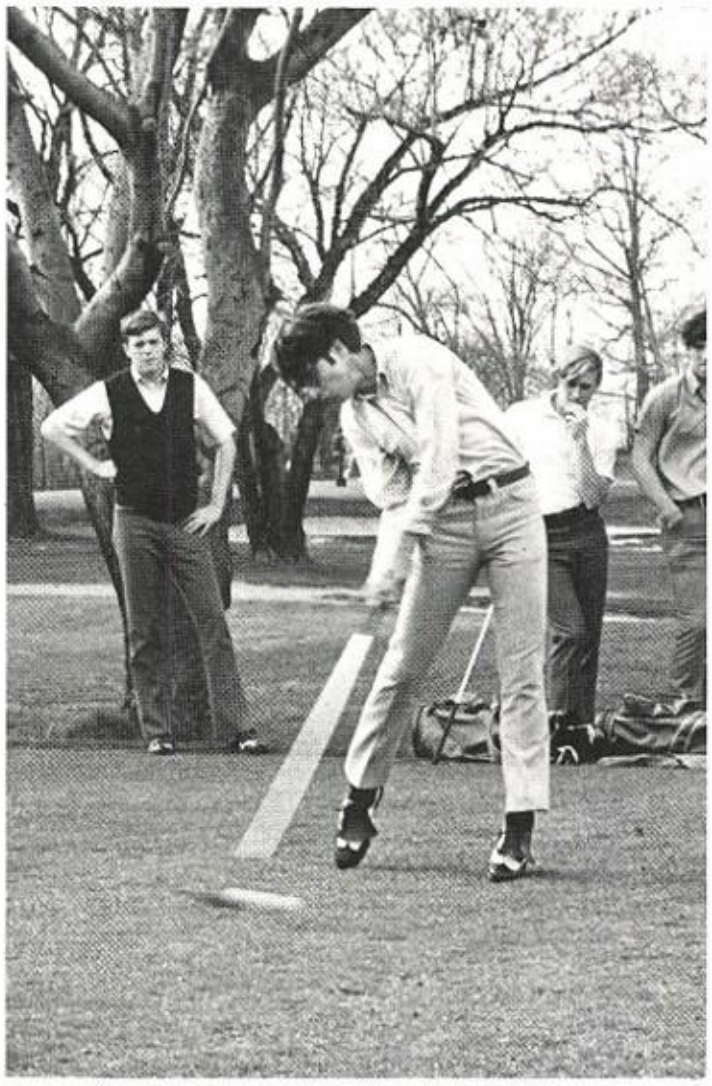
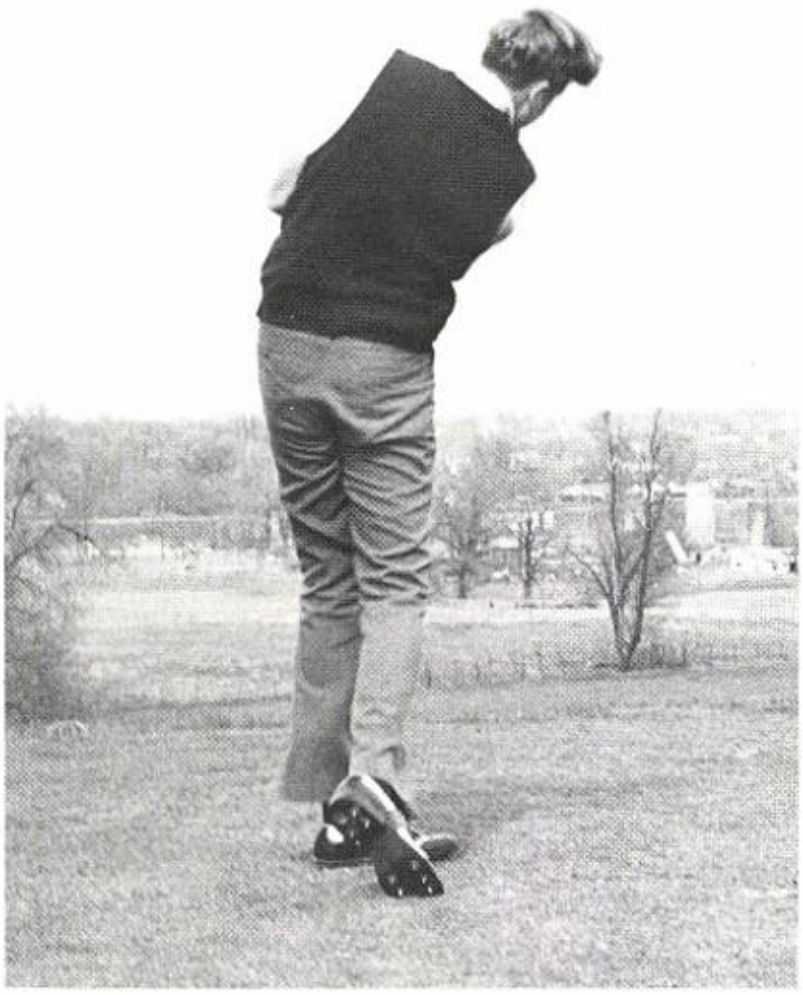
Kurt Reynolds must have hit a long drive, as fellow teammates, Mark Smock and Scott Graham, strain their eyes to follow the ball.



Gary Alexander hits a long drive, as Mark Smock, Kurt Reynolds, and Scott Graham watch.



Mark Smock seems to be heading into the trees.

I wonder if Jim Keller can manage this "hard" shot.

VOLLEYBALL

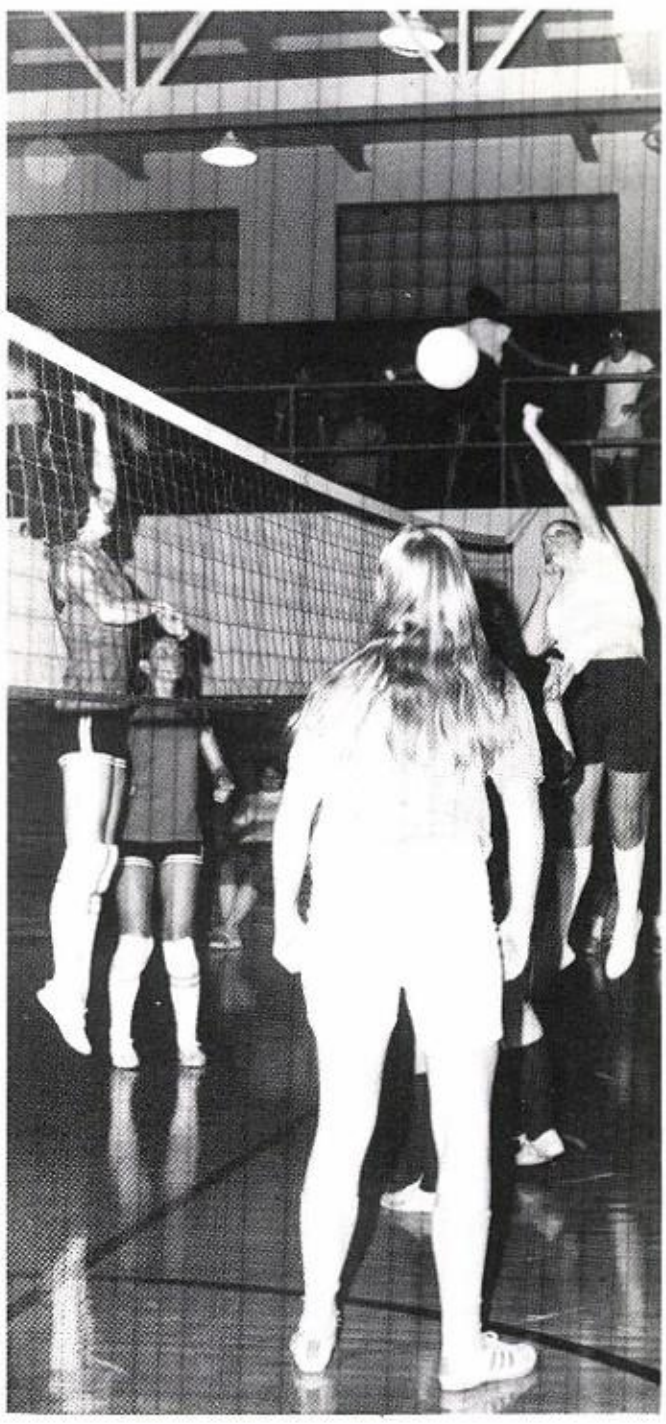
Miss Ewald gives the team a little "encouragement" during halftime in a game with Beavercreek.



These opponents will soon learn that Carroll's front three are power-packed players.

Girls don't get too emotional, do they??

A new style of ball was started this year by Miss Ewald, girl's sports coach. Instead of fingertip control, the fists powered the ball over the net. Power-volleyball demanded hard practices and teamwork — both were evident in actual games; however, inexperience seemed to be the major factor in a 3-9 season. At the end of the season, the team participated in the Fairmont East Invitational, and placed second in a field of 10.

Girl's Basketball

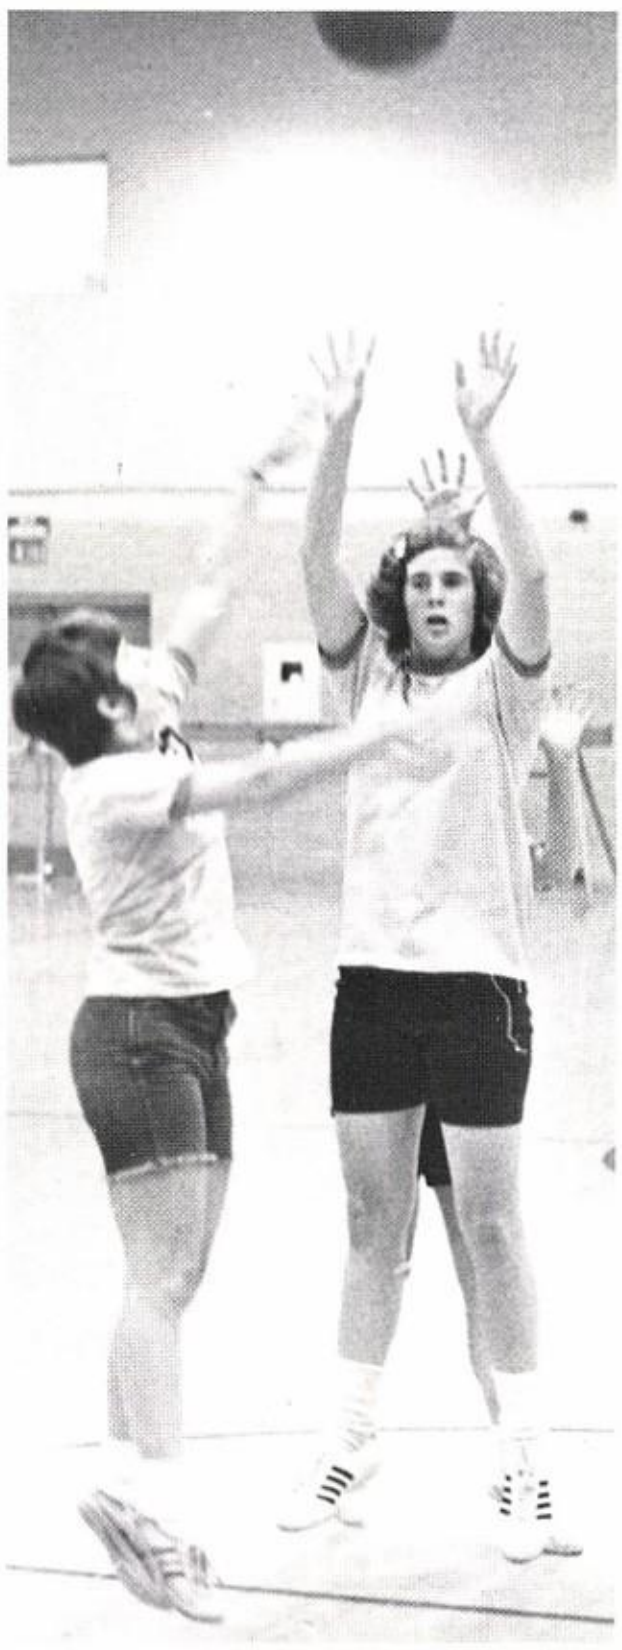
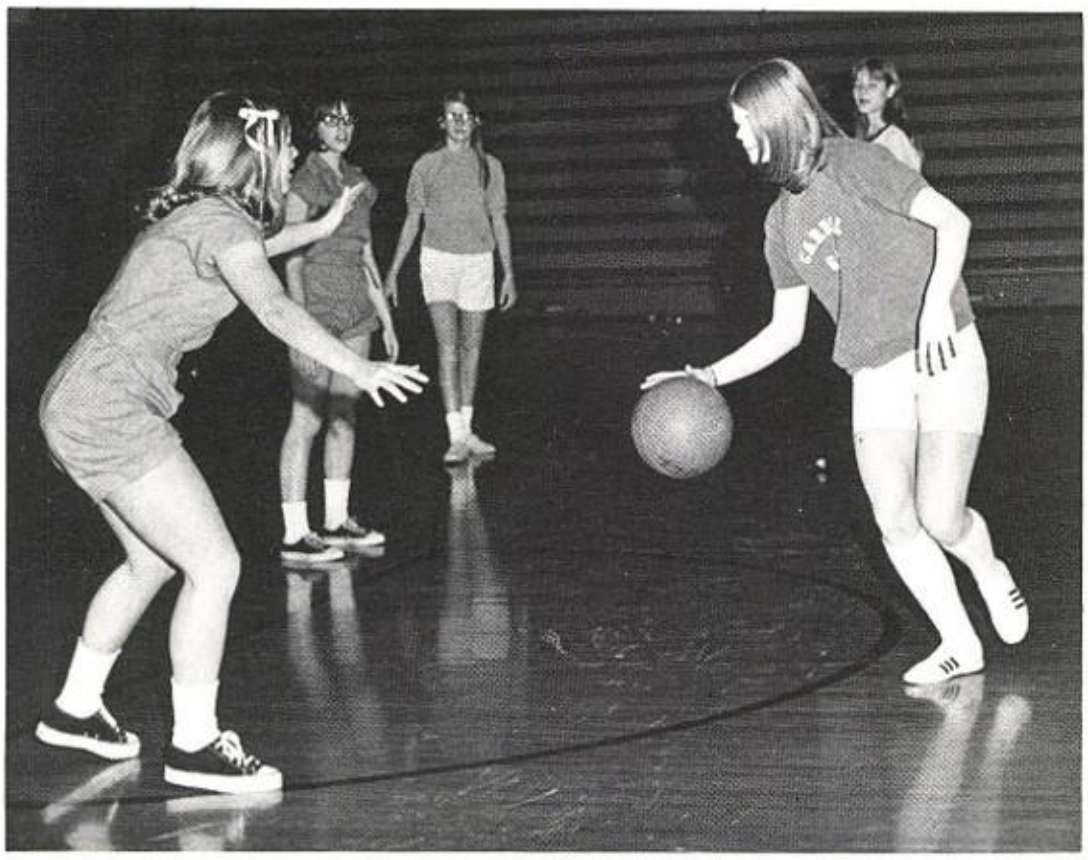
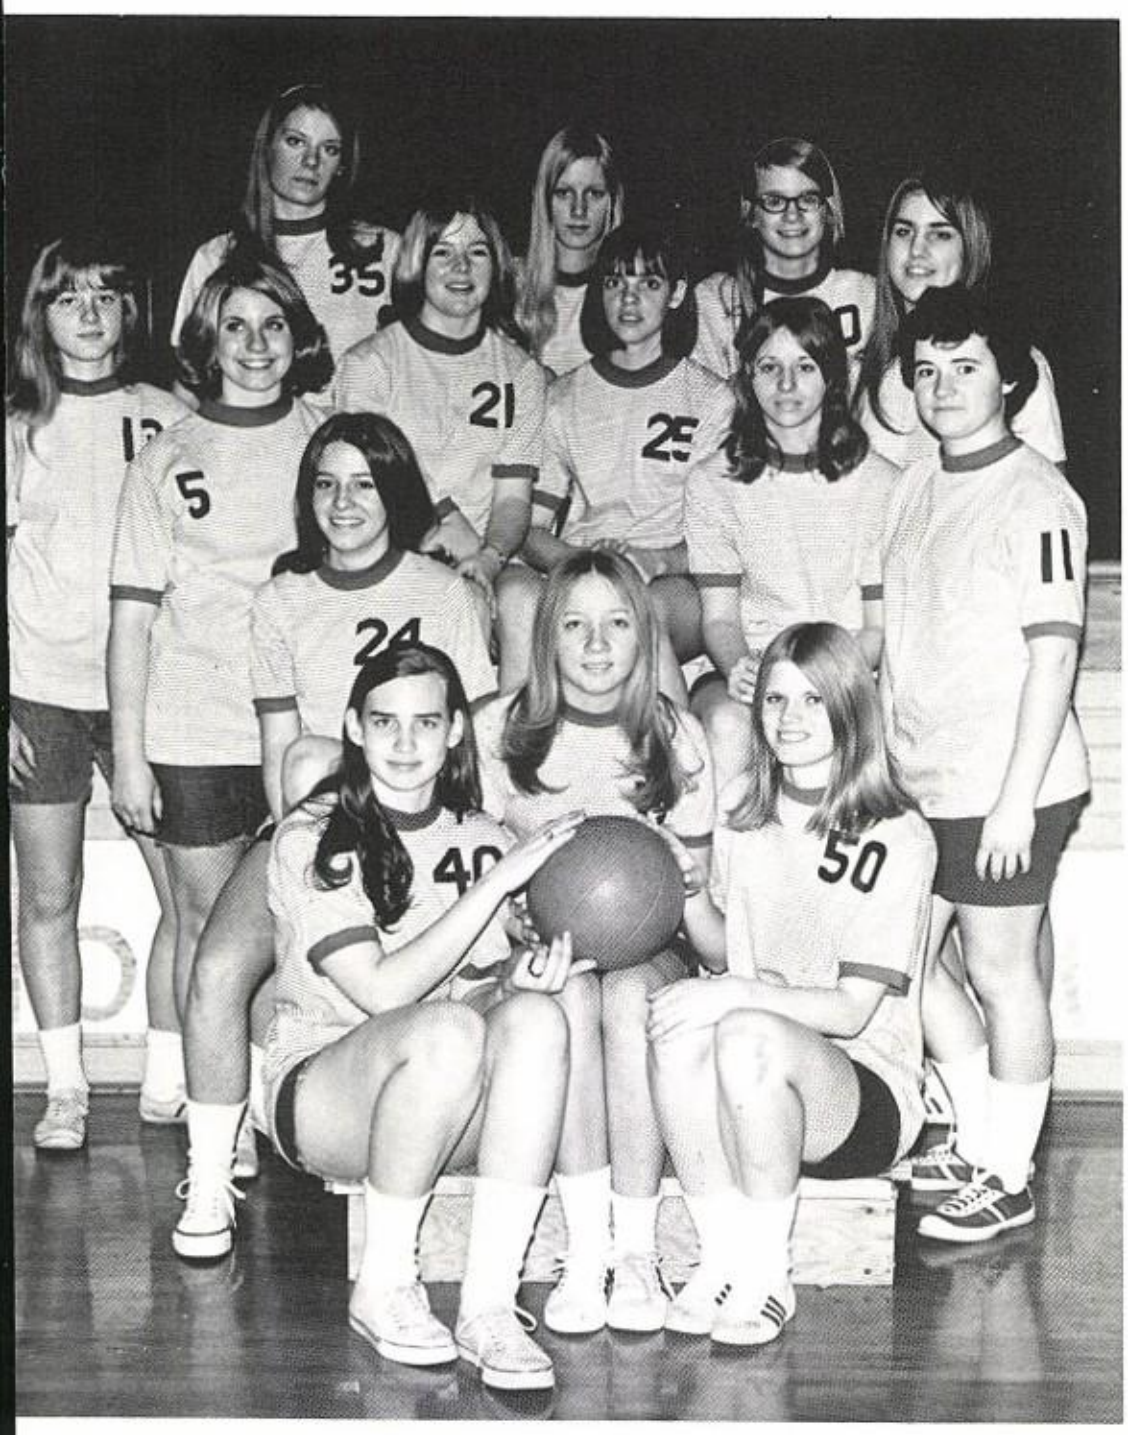
Karen Butler pleas for help as she is surrounded by Mary Lou Holder, Jo Blatz, and Terri Kohlmann.

Members of the varsity squad are: Jo Blatz, Jan Palivec, Mary Lou Holder, and Colleen Giambrone. Second Row: Terri Kohlmann, Lynn Ervin, Sharon Beigel, Mary Lynn Bertke, and Jan Abel.

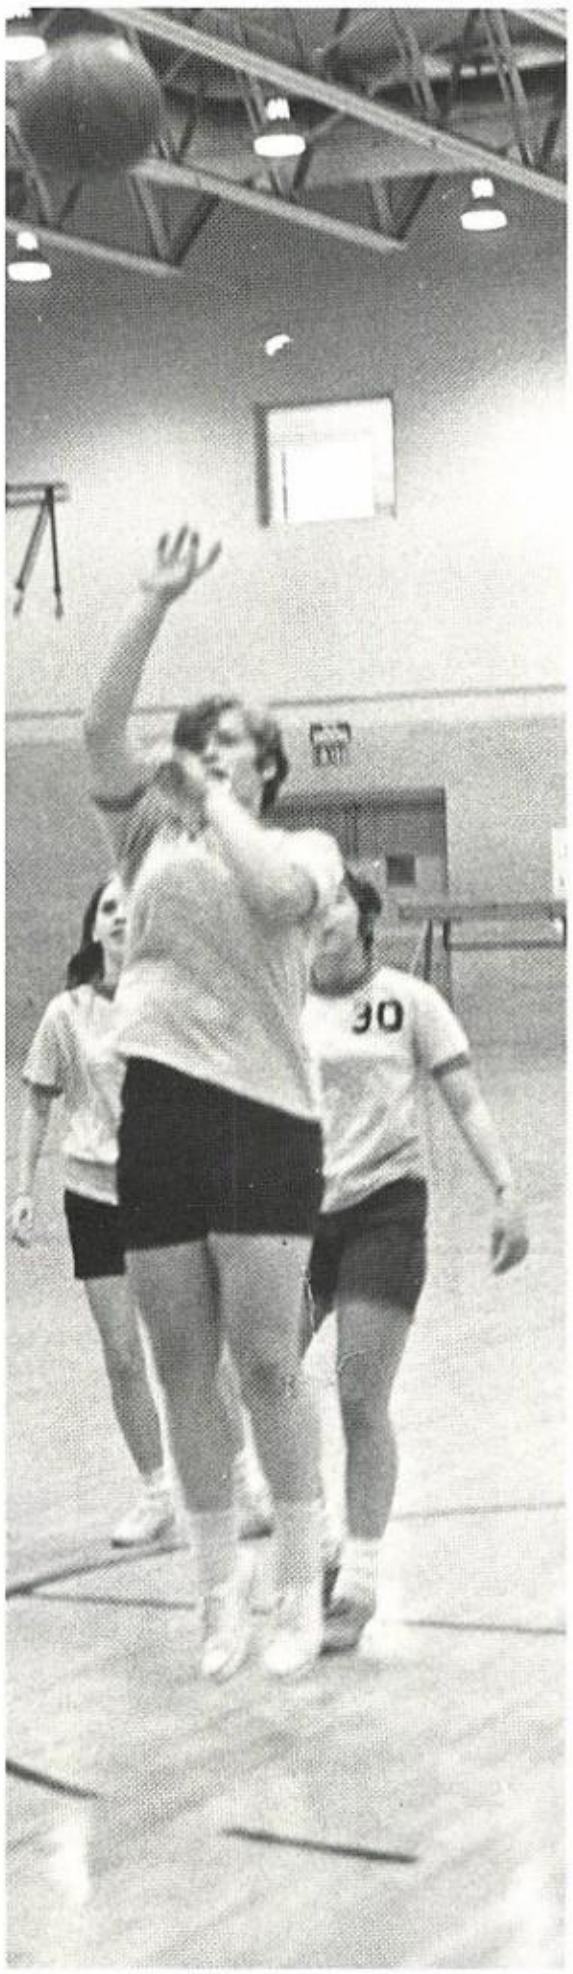




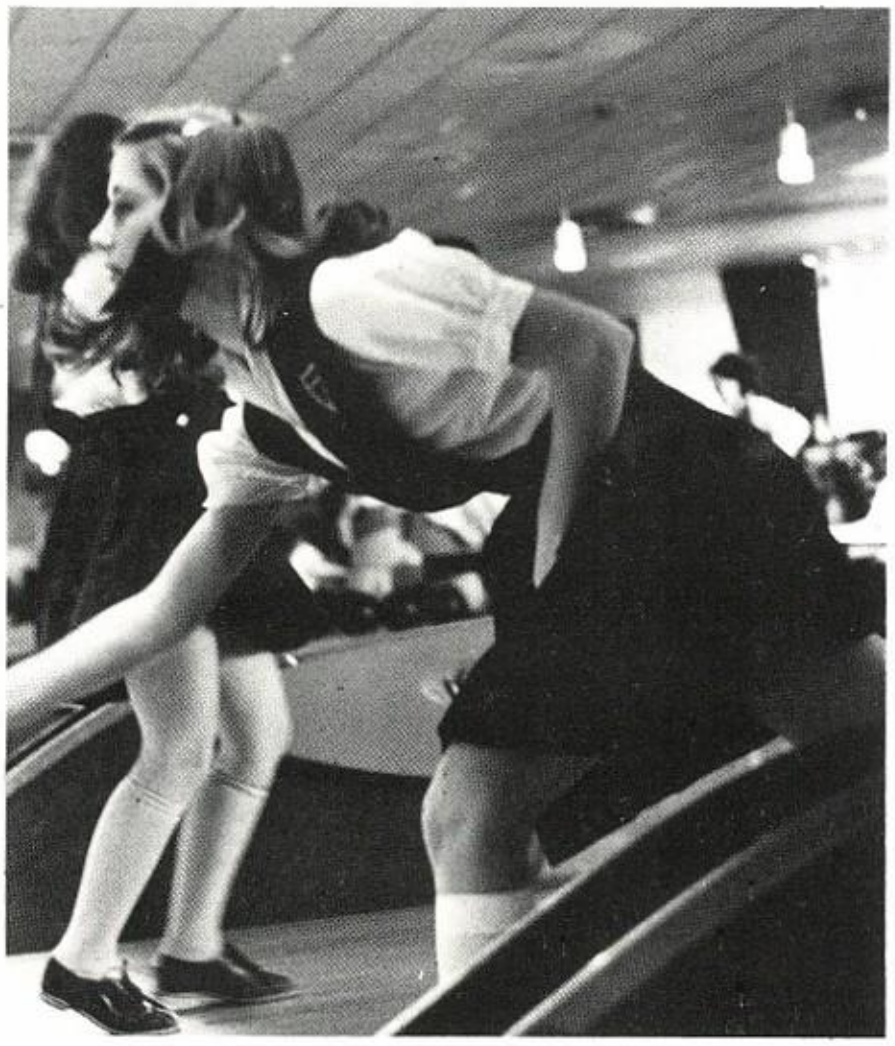
Karen Butler shows her guarding ability by challenging Linda Brown, as Carol Schaeffer, Jennifer Wagner, and Cheryl Saylor watch.



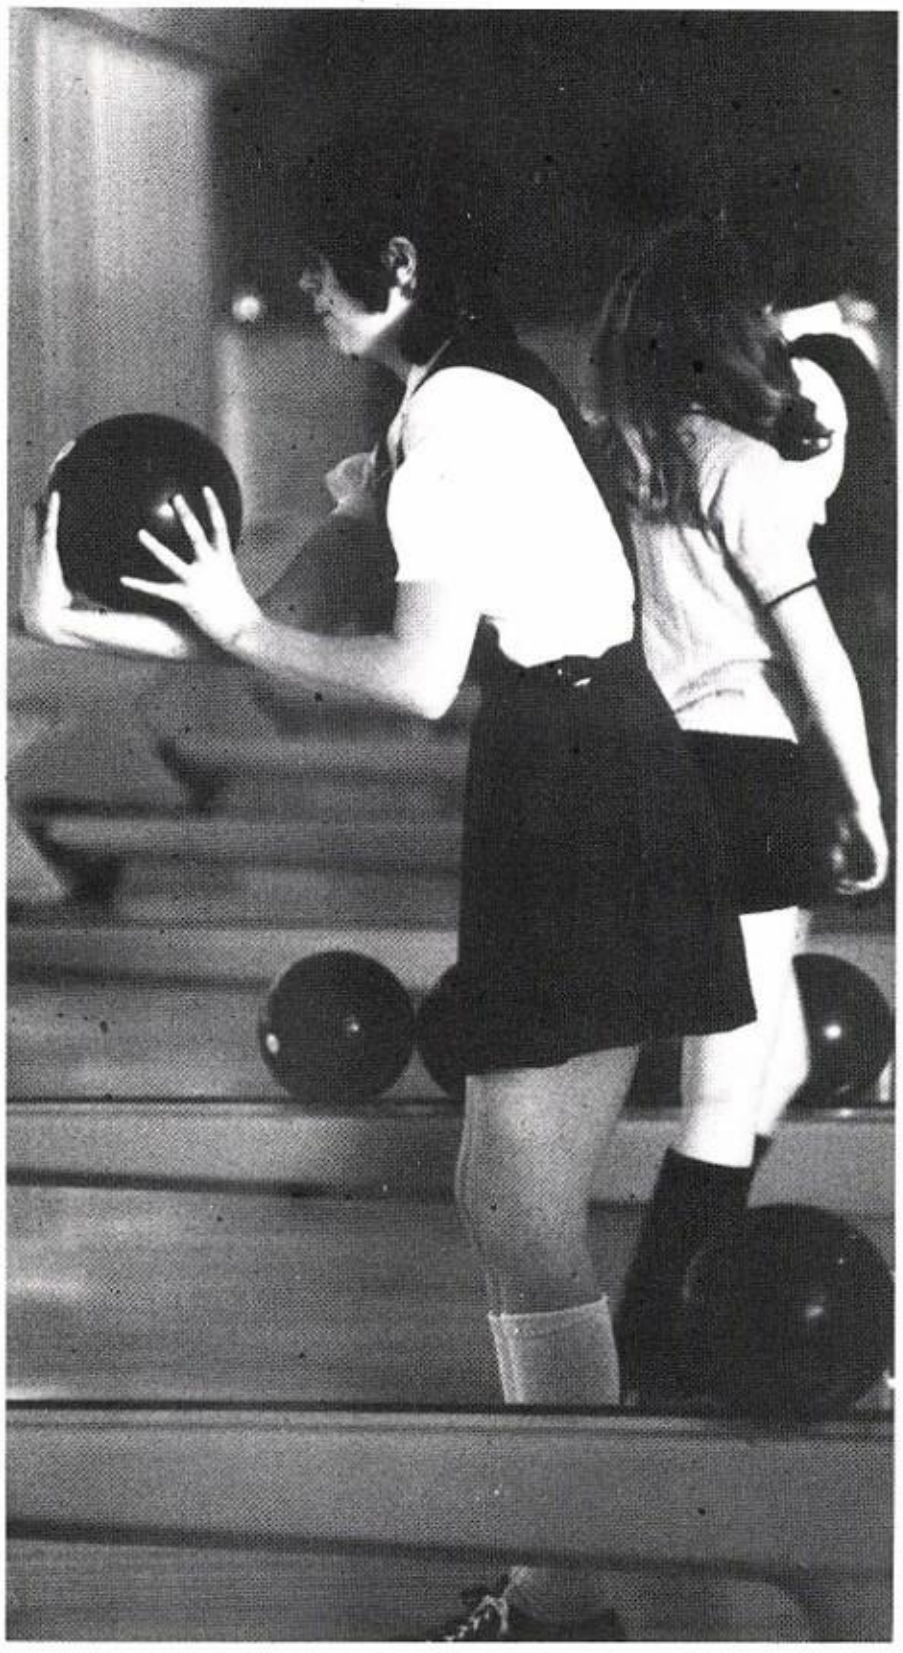
The members of the reserve squad are: Deborah Kohlmann, Barb Stout, and Linda Brown. Second Row: Sharon Butler, Laura Muick, Karen Butler, Carol Schaeffer, Kay Knapschaefer, and Libby Gormican. Third Row: Cheryl Saylor, Sue Fish, Linda Kaiser, Jennifer Wagner, and Cecelia Bochenek.



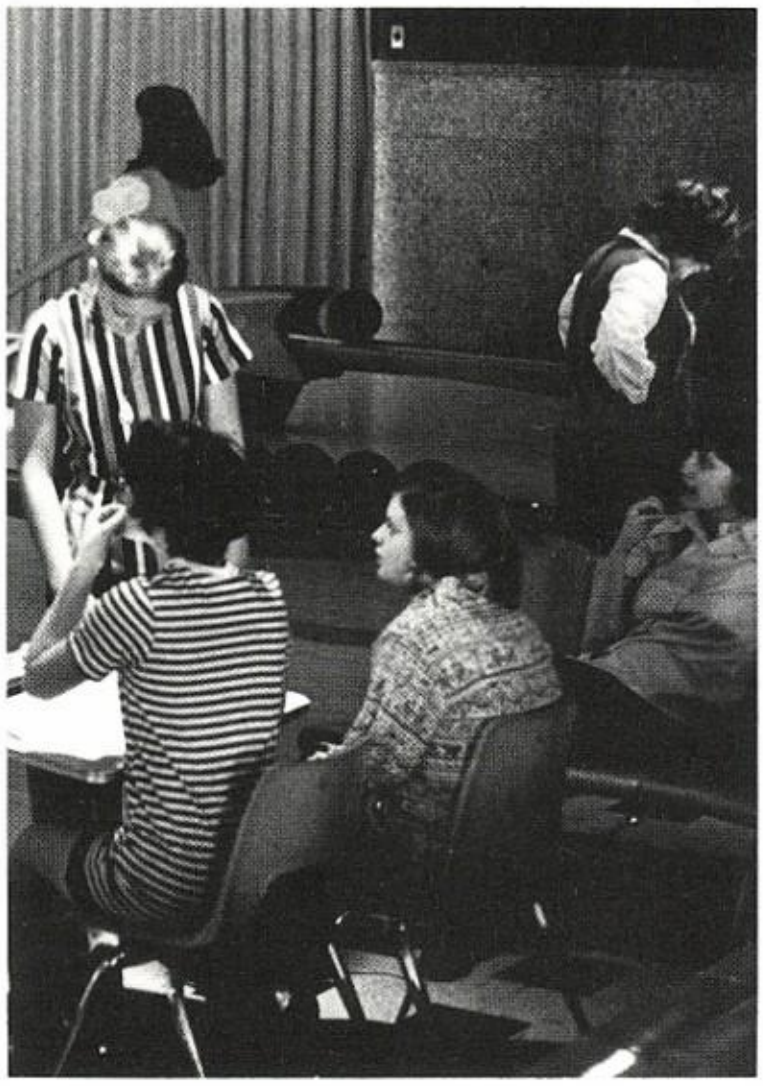
Jo Blatz lets loose another jump shot, good for two points during a practice game with the reserve squad.



Jean Beirise shows the perfect style for the "professional" bowler.



Maureen Hennessey shows the concentration needed to be a good bowler.



If you think Agatha Van Oss looks worried here, you should see her when she bowls.

BOWLING STRIKES, SPARES AND GUTTERS

SOFTBALL

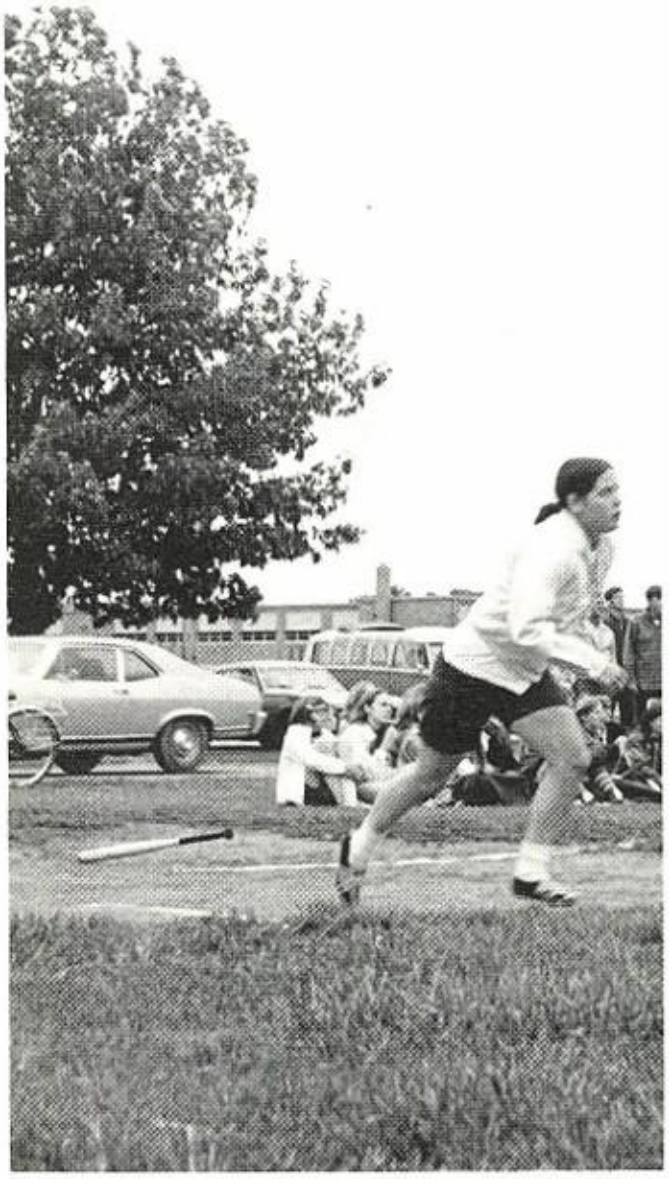
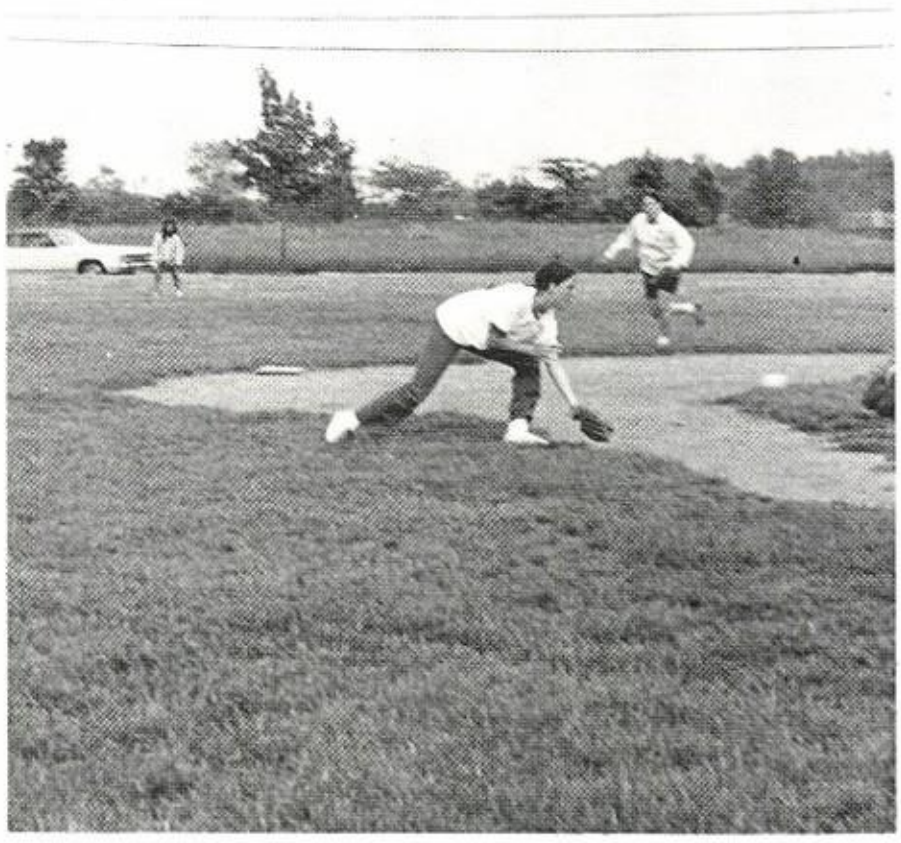
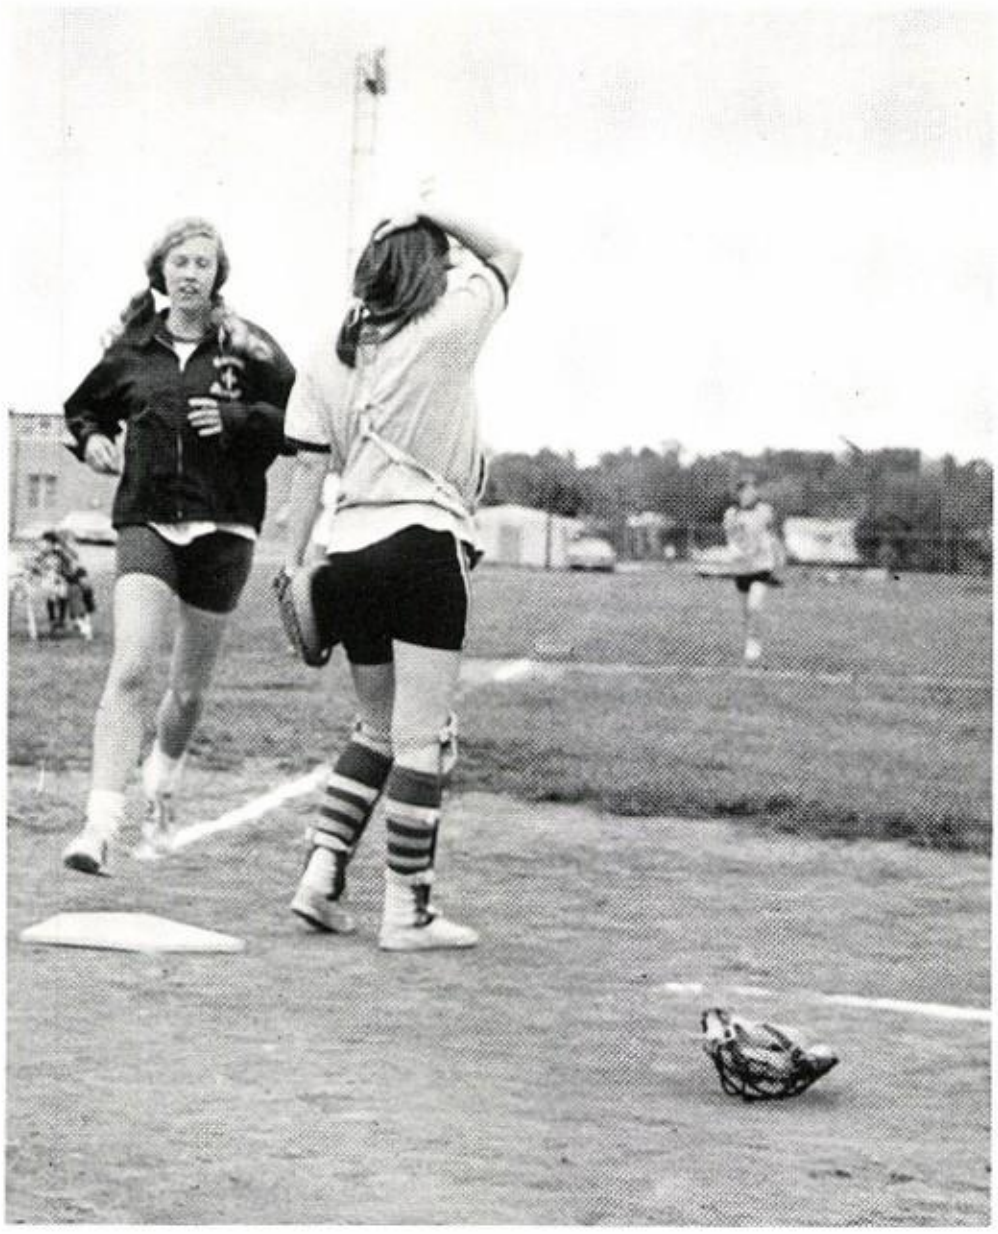
Playing on Carroll's softball team is a lot of fun, although Miss Ewald does try to make the team work once in a while. After they're on the field, all she can do is wait behind the backstop, and hope they come through. Although they lost to Alter 18-17, and to Fairmont East 13-3, they ended their season with a 7-2 record, proving once again that the Softball Superstars stay on top.



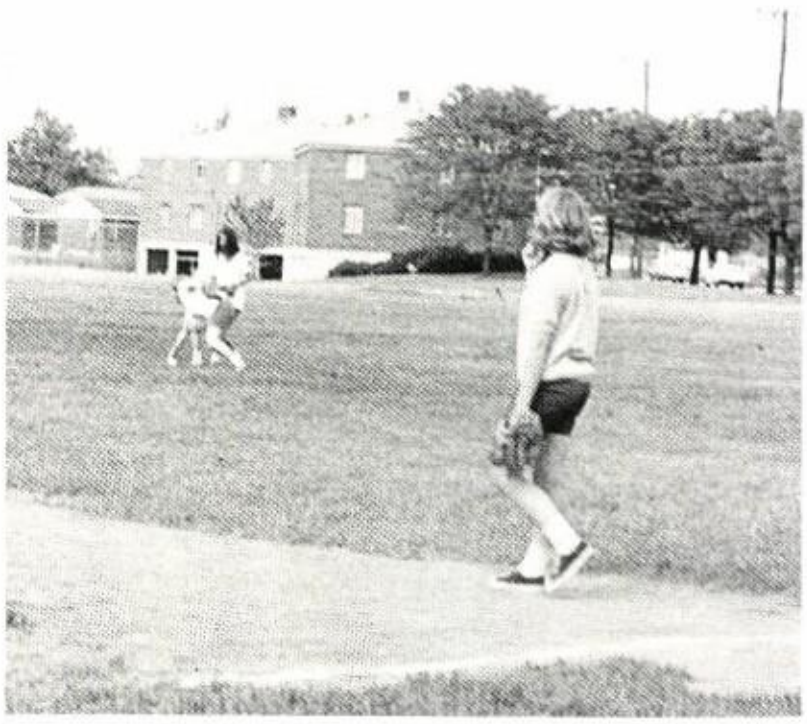
While waiting their turn at bat, the girls hold quick gossip sessions, proving that where gossip is concerned, the female of the species is faster than the mail.



Jan Palivec grabs another grounder, as Abbie Iselin and Terri Kohlmann run to back her up.



Sharon Beigel scores another run, as an unbelieving catcher helplessly waits for the ball.



A collision in right field slows down the throw to first baseman, Laura Muick.

Jo Blatz leads off for second as the fielders watch home, waiting for the next Patriot blast.

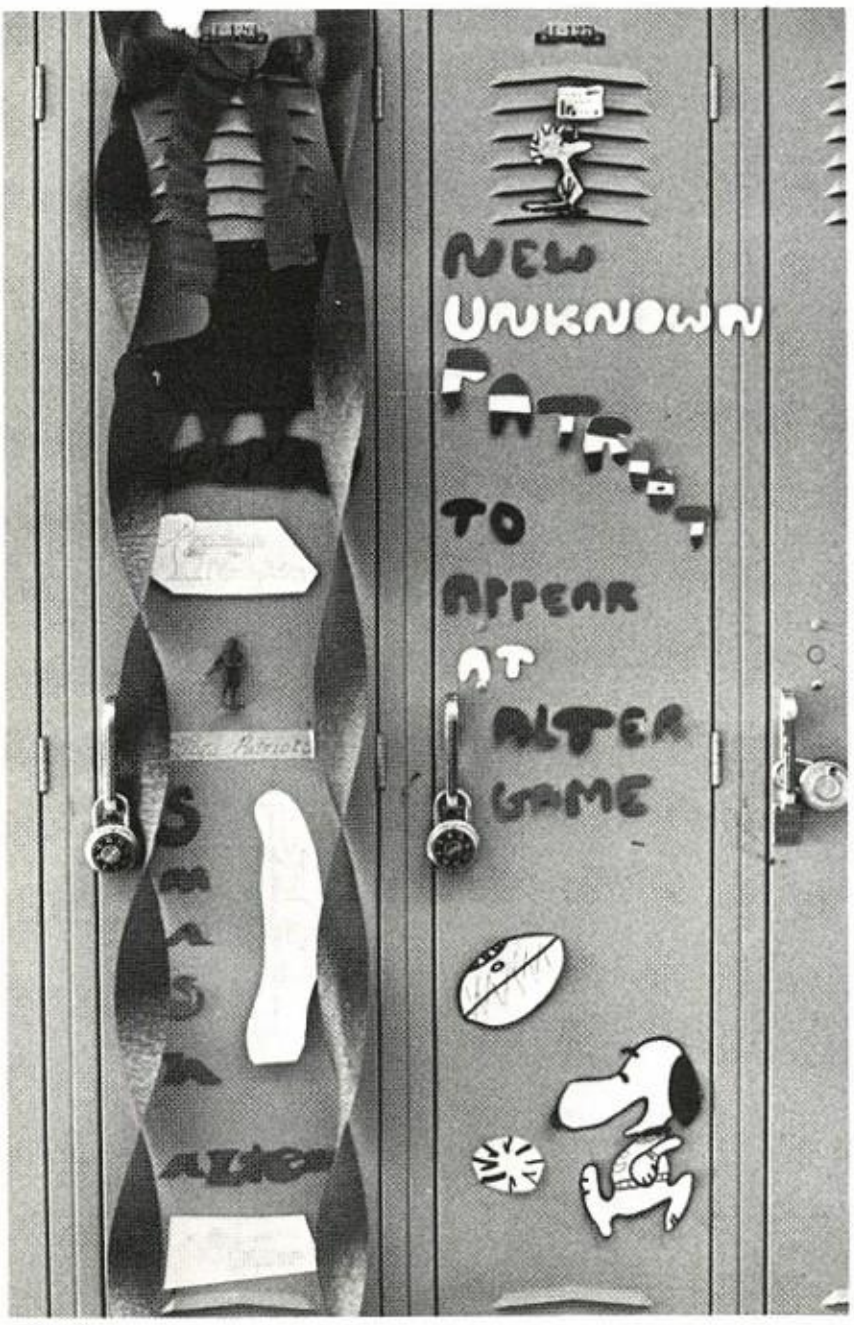
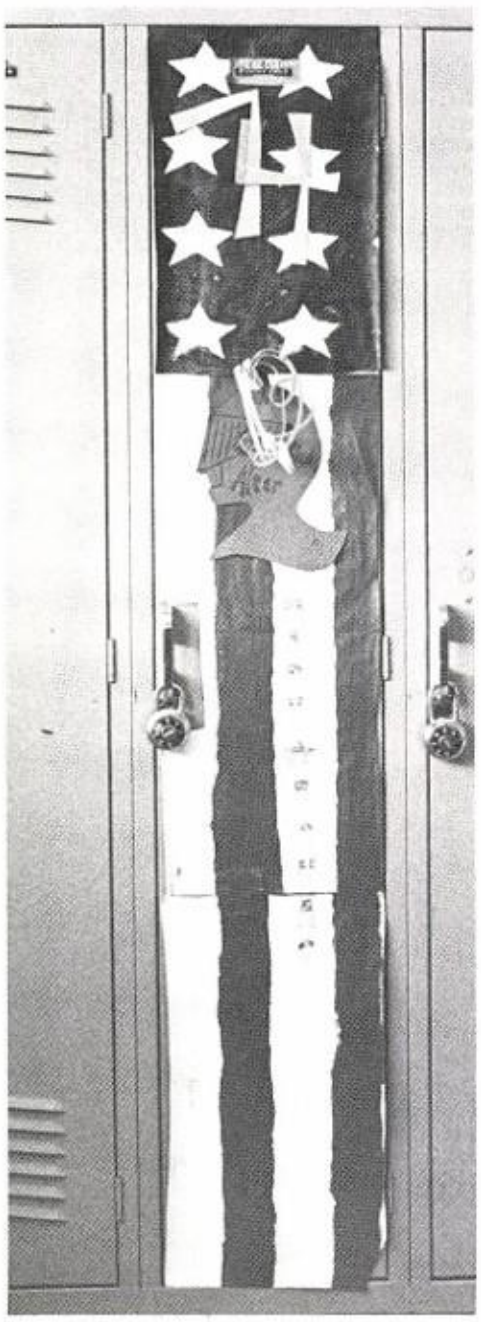
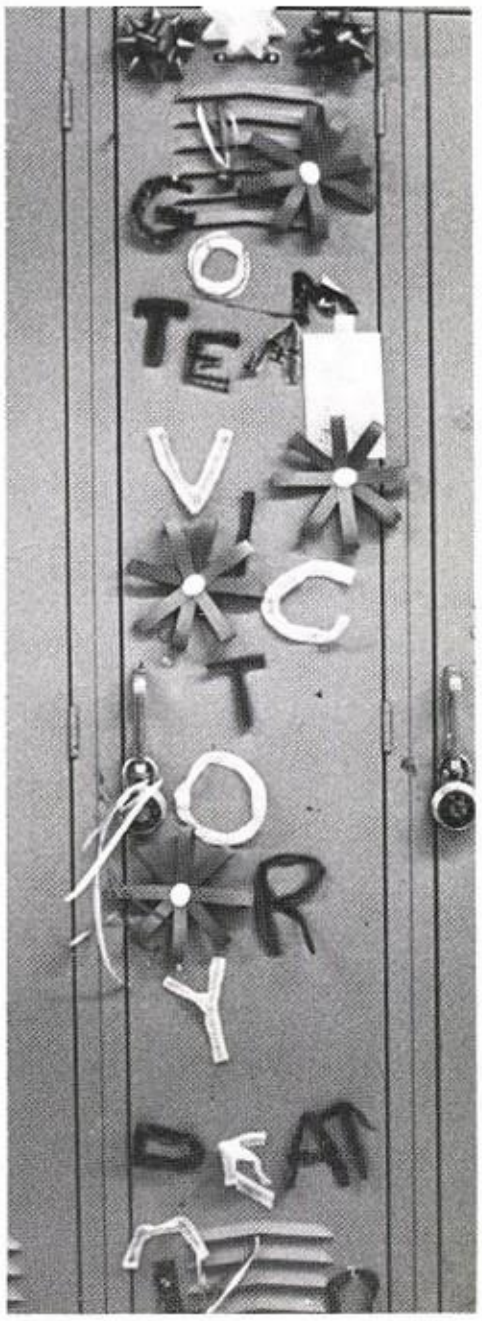
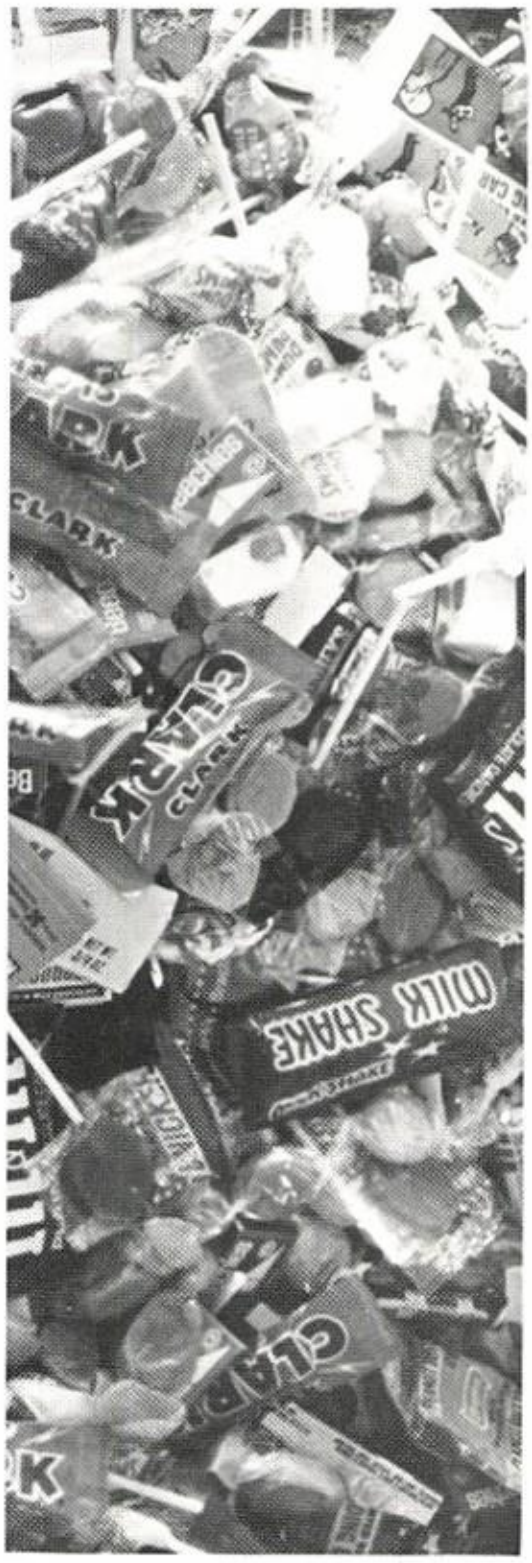
THAT LIVELY ATMOSPHERE UNDERLYING THE YEAR.

In a Junior pep rally skit, Carroll walked away from Alter victorious.

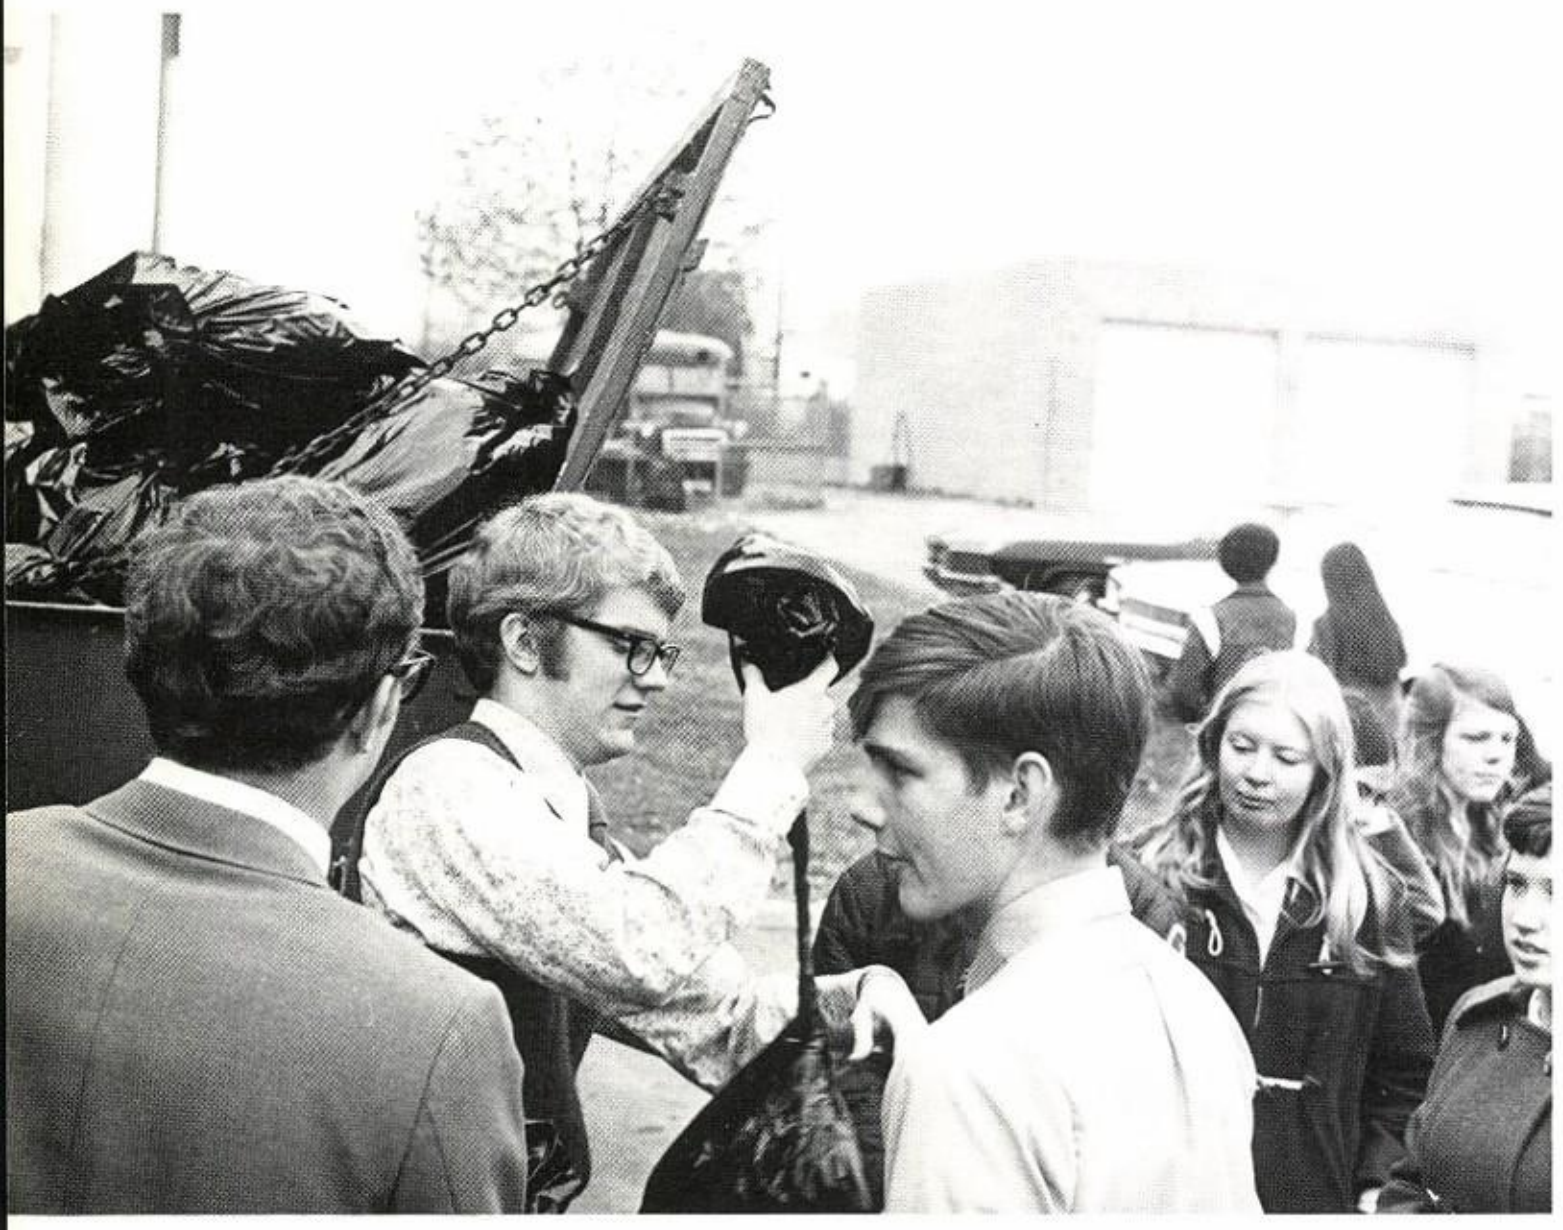








Clamoring pep rallies, practicing cheerleaders, decorated lockers, generously given Halloween candy, and car caravans were tokens of enthusiasm. Spirit mounted with each victory.



Junior earthlovers, Mary Jo Huelsman, Debbie Thomeczek and Pat Bunger, expressed their spirit through conservation. They sorted glass in the drive to assist the glass-bottle round-up (top left). Student Government organized an industrious campaign to clean up the school grounds (above).

On Earth Day Steve Schulte (left), Along with many others, displayed their interest in anti-pollution by riding their bikes to school.

SUPER TORCHRUNNERS!

The 1971 Senior Torchrunners put forth tremendous superhuman effort and unmatched spirit, as they paced the way to victory after victory during the football season. Although they seldom reached a game before halftime, the torchrunners unfailingly received a standing ovation from all Patriot fans. The 225 mile run to Ravenna broke all other torchrunner records for distance, and probably broke the record for curious policemen per mile. Shirts stenciled by the student government provided identification, and the senior girls provided nourishment to sustain the runners on their journey. It is evident that the torchrunners of 1971 surpassed the well-known traditional spirit of the Carroll Patriots.

The Glee Club and Band collaborated this year in presenting "A Yuletide Serenade," Reverend Ellis Harsham directed the singers as they celebrated the Christmas season; while Barb Downs and Linda Quinter accompanied them on the piano. Holiday songs such as "Hymn to Joy", "Strangers in the Streets" and "Hymn From an Irish Cabin" were presented. During the performance the Glee Club gained the experience necessary for their performance in the senior production of "Showboat."

Get me out of this crazy place . . .

"You know, until this minute it never occurred to me that boats sank anymore."

They were inevitably assisted by Cornelia's parents: Ottis Skinner (Marvin Miller), a famous actor, and his wife, Maud (played by Jeanne Ackerman). Two medical students, Leo McEvoy (Tim Haney), and Dick Winters (Steve VanDegrift), met the girls enroute to France and found themselves romantically involved.

As concerned parents, Mr. and Mrs. Skinner follow their daughter across the Atlantic.

Our Hearts Were Young and Gay

The Dramatics Club's latest endeavor was the three act play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." In the comedy, two 18 year old girls: Cornelia Ottis Skinner, portrayed by Sharon Hart, and Emily Kimbrough, played by Cindy Duwel took a trip to Paris to "emancipate" themselves.

Tom Scott

The 1970-1971 Student Government officers were: President, Denny Stucke; Treasurer, John Randolph; Secretary, Cay Clark; Vice-President, Jane Cullen.

The officers discussing the issues of Student Government with moderator, Sr. Rita.

"Our answer is the world's hope; it is to rely on youth — not a time of life but a state of mind, a temper of the will, a quality of the imagination, a predominance of courage over timidity, of the appetite for adventure over the love of ease. The cruelties and obstacles of this swiftly changing planet will not yield to obsolete dogmas and outworn slogans. It cannot be moved by those who cling to a present that is already dying, who prefer the illusion of security to the excitement and danger that come with even the most peaceful progress. It is a revolutionary world we live in; and this generation, at home and around the world, has had thrust upon it a greater burden of responsibility than any nation that has ever lived."

Cecil Bochenek and Gina Toomey.

— student exchanges
— a bulletin board covered with up-to-date
— articles
— handing out Student Updates

Such was the Public Relations Committee, run by a few very energetic people. Student Exchanges — going to other schools, and coming back realizing Carroll isn't so bad after all; remembering one big exchange where the kids stayed over night for a few days. A bulletin board in the gym lobby covered with information and interesting memos. Student Updates after each student government meeting, telling news of the meetings and other interesting items. The credit for these activities went to the Public Relations crew.

Assembly Committee Members: Jeff Glass, Tina Rafalko, Denise Landreman, Mary Sticht, and Steve Nock.

ASSEMBLY

Haii! Crack! A karate demonstration — A few men from a karate school showing how they defend themselves against certain attacks — Showing how to break brick blocks with their bare hands; this was one of the many assemblies enjoyed by the students. Other programs were: the Air Force band and orchestra; Free Fare — a band, sharing jokes and skits, ending with a serious talk about the greatness of our country; the Elder Band; the ballet; and musical performances by other schools. All these were planned by the assembly committee; a few people who wrote letters and used the telephone until a performance could be set for an innovative day.

PUBLICITY

Printing, painting and hanging! Constantly on the move! The Publicity Committee made posters for soc hops, homecoming, turnabout, prom, plays and any other activity around school. They also printed T-shirts for the Torchrunners, and for any other Carroll student wanting one. Altogether they helped everyone and anyone, printing posters and shirts — a constant after-school job.

SPIRIT

Those lively people!

Our bang-up friends.

Selling buttons, stickers, balloons, miniature footballs at homecoming, bows on Bow Day, and talking you into riding bikes on Earth Day; procuring a giant beaver to stir up spirit for the first football game against Beavercreek — making a victory tree that remained covered with pennants for every victory in all sports. Who were the people behind those crazy schemes? Why, the Spirit Committee!

SOCIAL

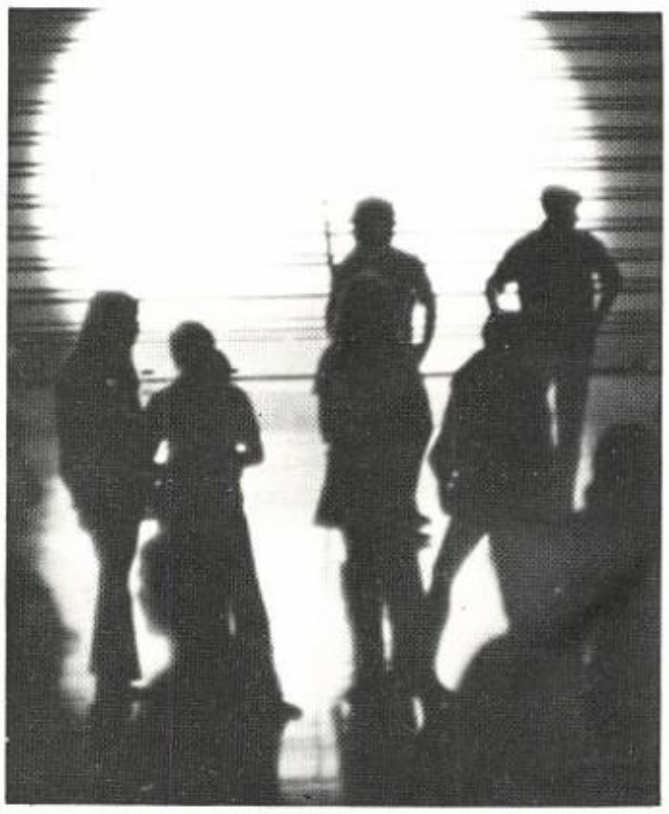
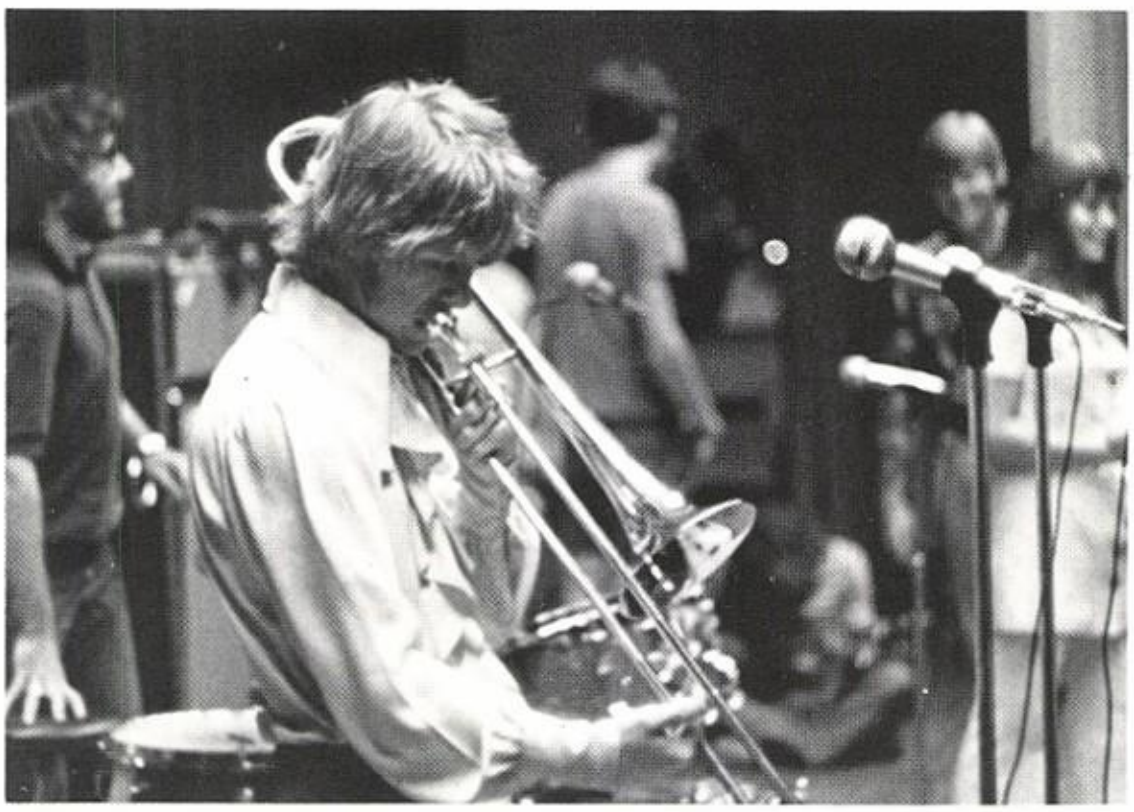
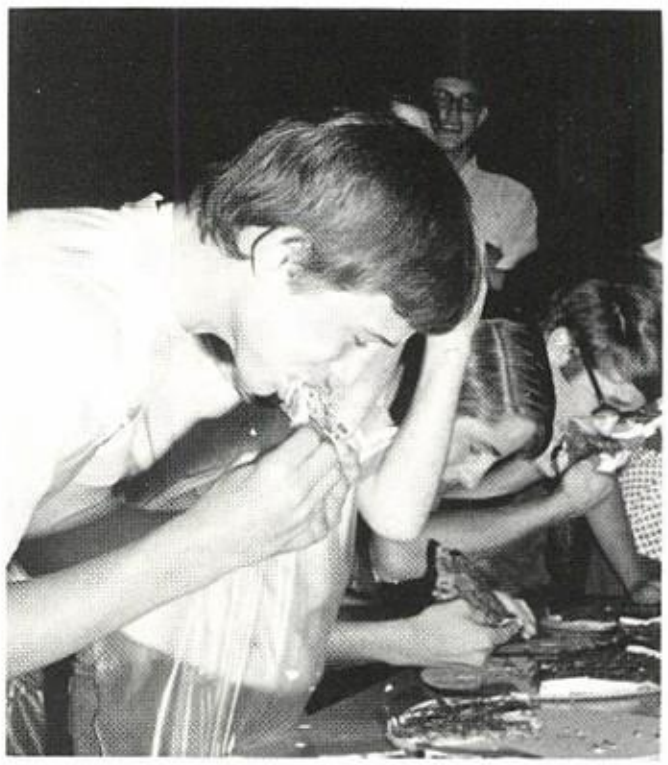
Committee heads Pam Jewell, Tom Ferguson and Pat Loehr.







Remember the soc hops and dances. The one after homecoming when everyone celebrated our glorious victory. How about the pizza dance, where the first guy to finish half a pizza won a prize. Remember the happy faces and sticky hands behind the concession stand as drink after drink was given to exhausted dancers. How about the great bands we had, dedicating songs to classes, and playing favorites. Remember this? Well, this was the Social Committee on the outside; on the inside they were busy people, thinking of bands, tickets, and refreshments; planning the next dance.

Band & Drill

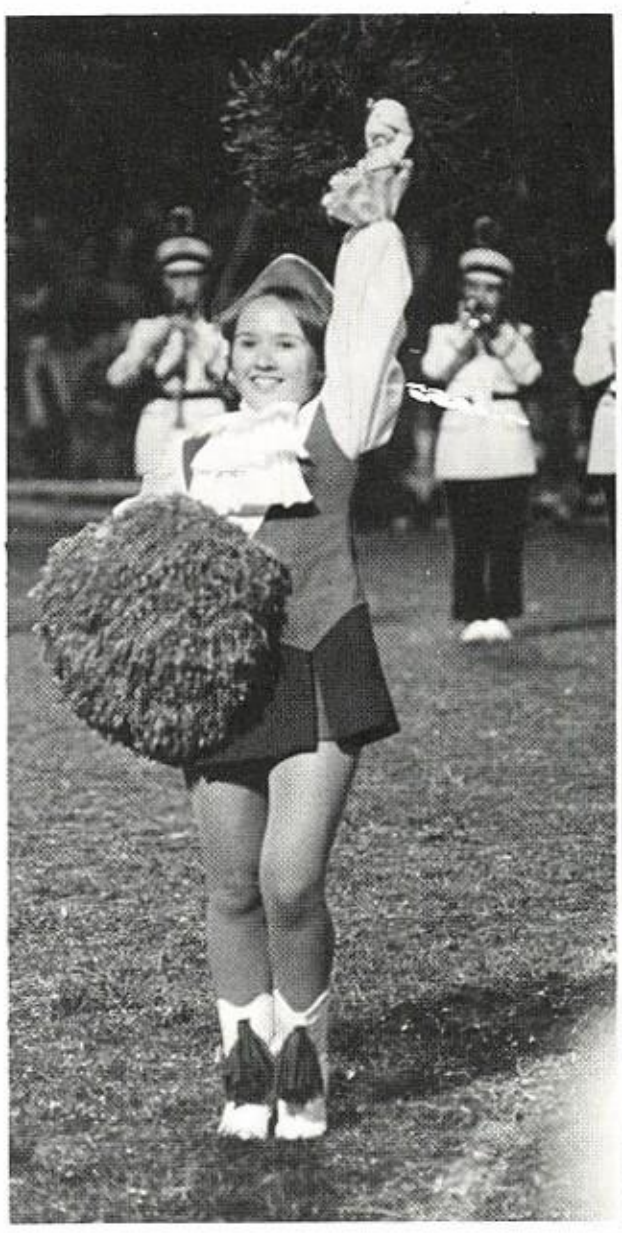
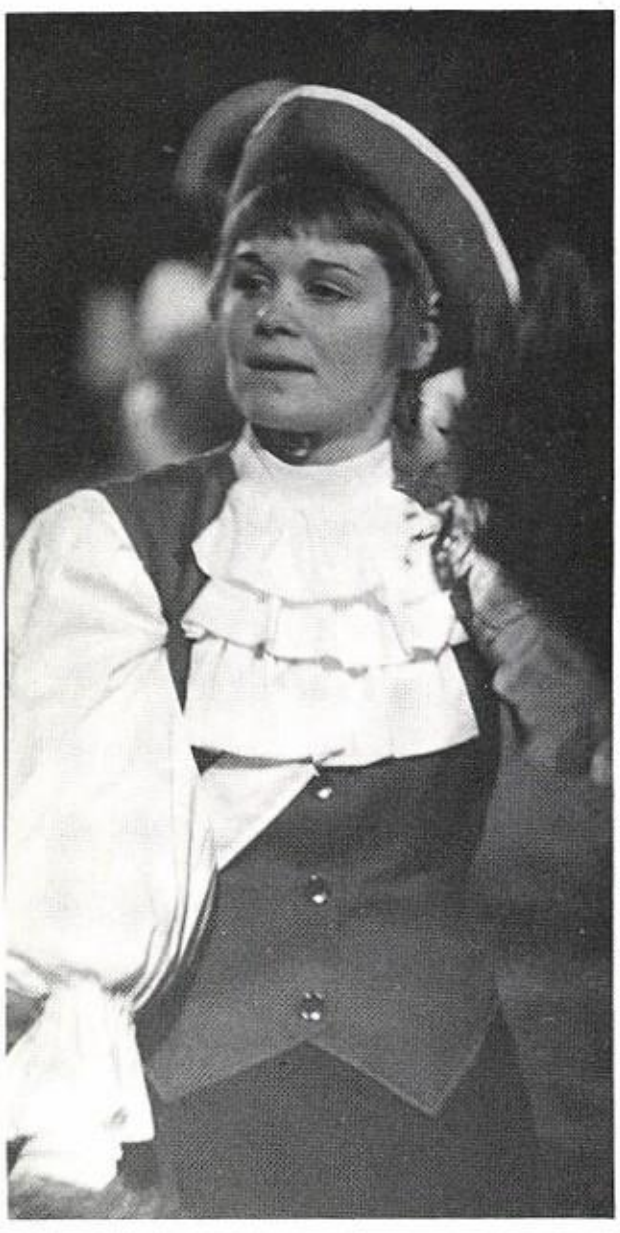
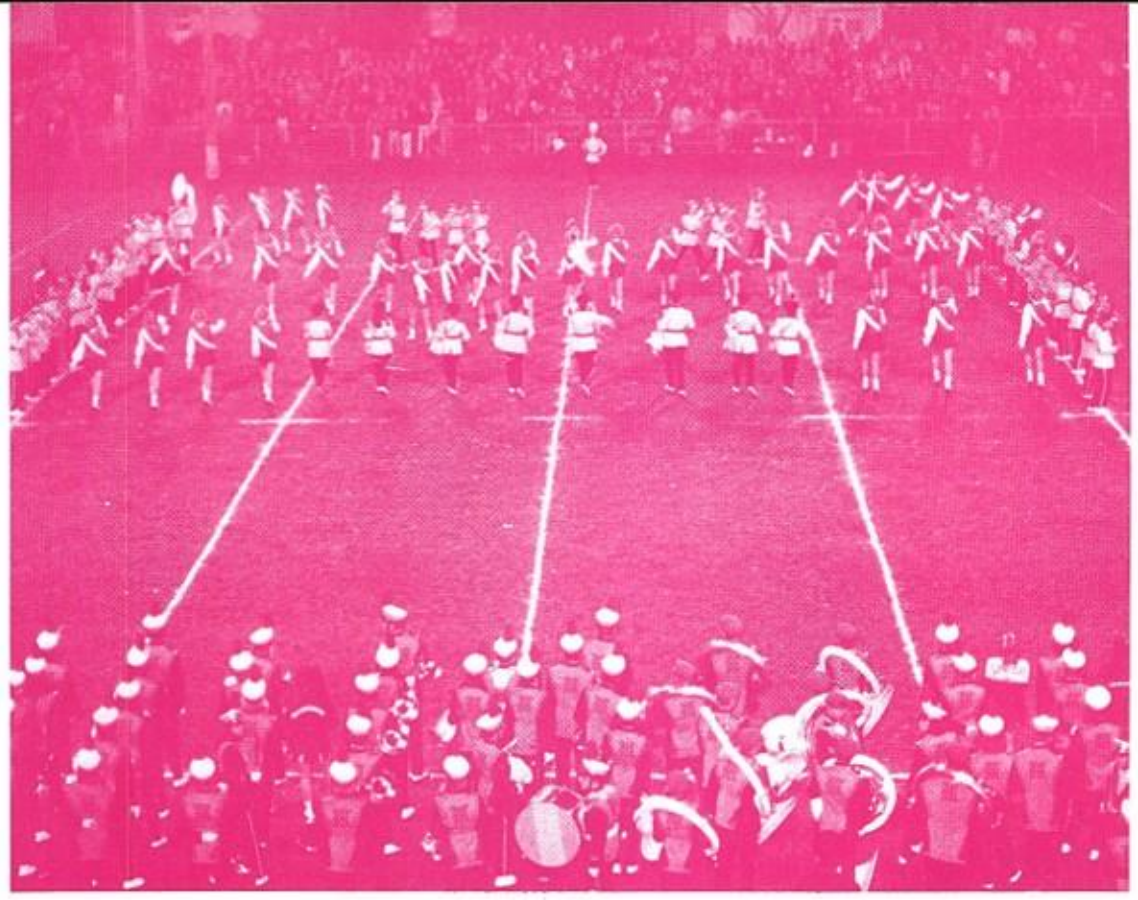
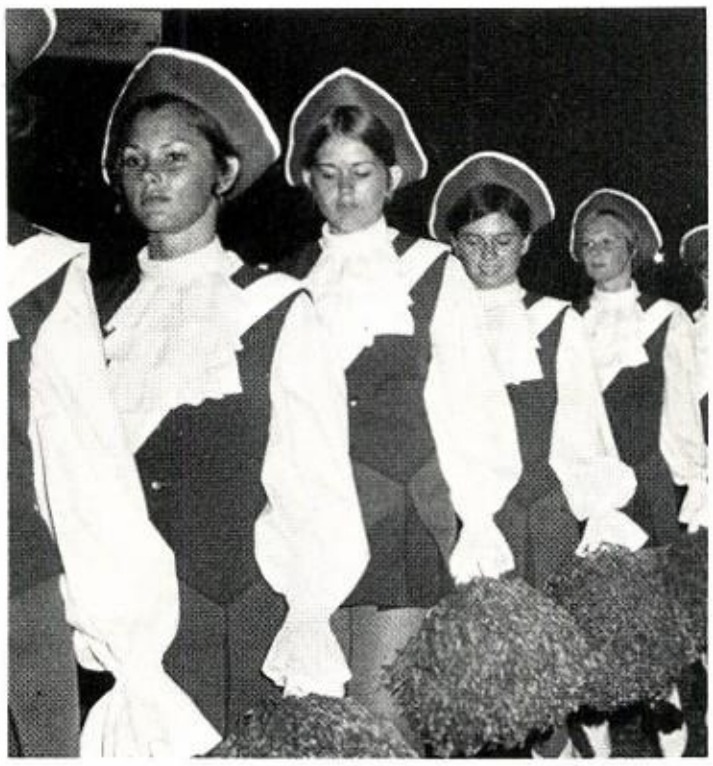
Team night! The first performance of a great season. Led on the field by drum major, Andy Wolff, the marching band and Liberty Belles displayed their smart style, patterns-in-motion and constant precision drill.





Teresa Brooks, Claudia Kinder, and Maureen Kelly parade a flourish of pom-poms and red, white, and blue.





Drill Team officers leading the march; 2nd Lieutenant, Elaine Kleek; Co-captain, Robin Kaehler; Captain, Sally Saberton; 1st Lieutenant, Jerrilyn Potts.

HOMECOMING '70

Victory cheers penetrated the air! A weekend burst into bonfire flames, romantic moments, splashes of color, and sparks of spirit! A grand way to welcome the alumni.

All he needs now is a banana.

Football mums, the crowning of the queen, football kisses, and a parade of floats. The sidelines were alive with excitement at half-time!

Student Government President, Denny Stucke, crowns Kathy Janik.

CAROUSEL

Me, myself, & you

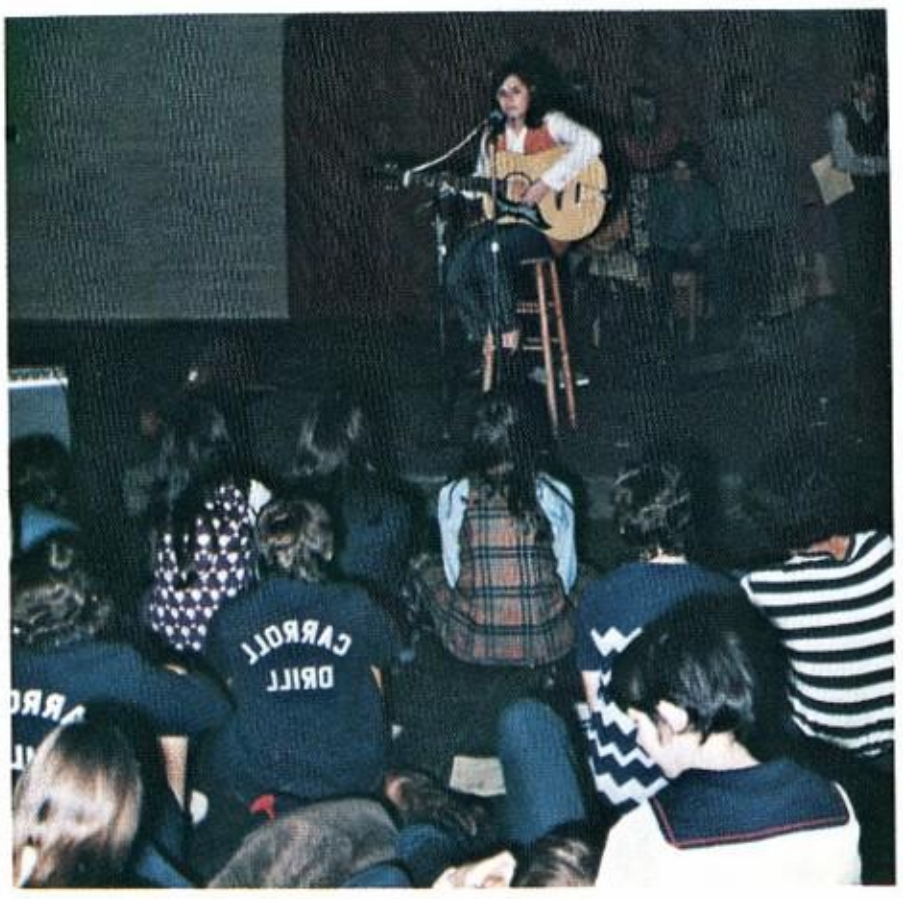
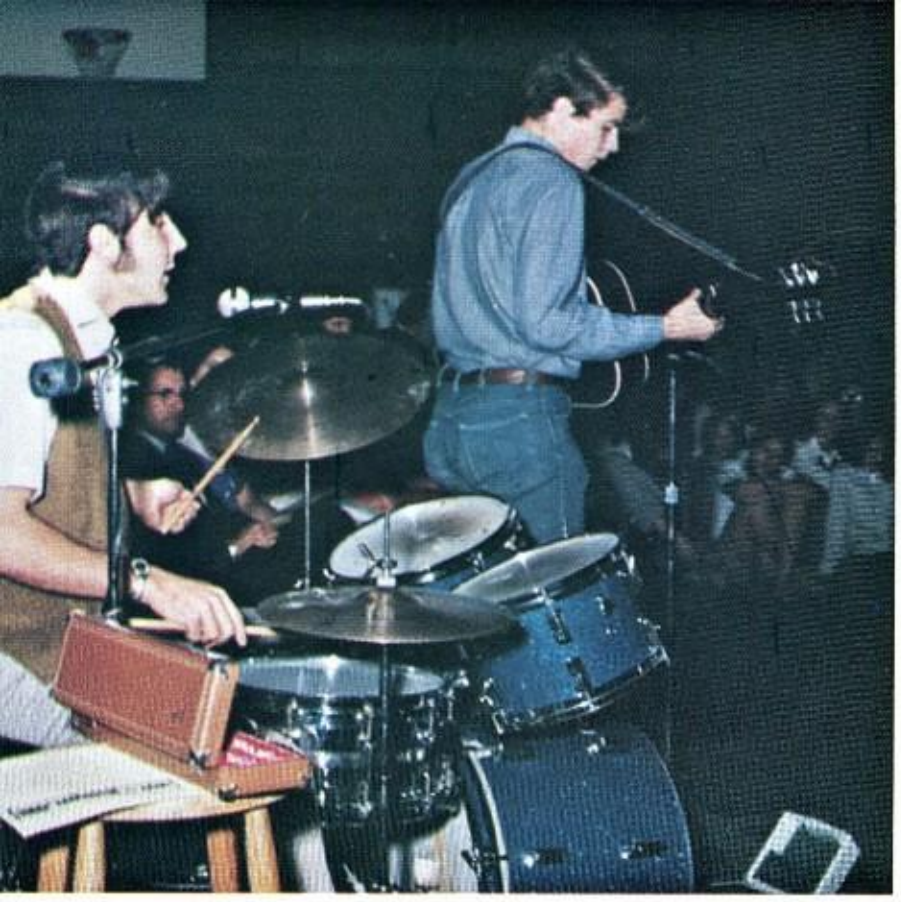
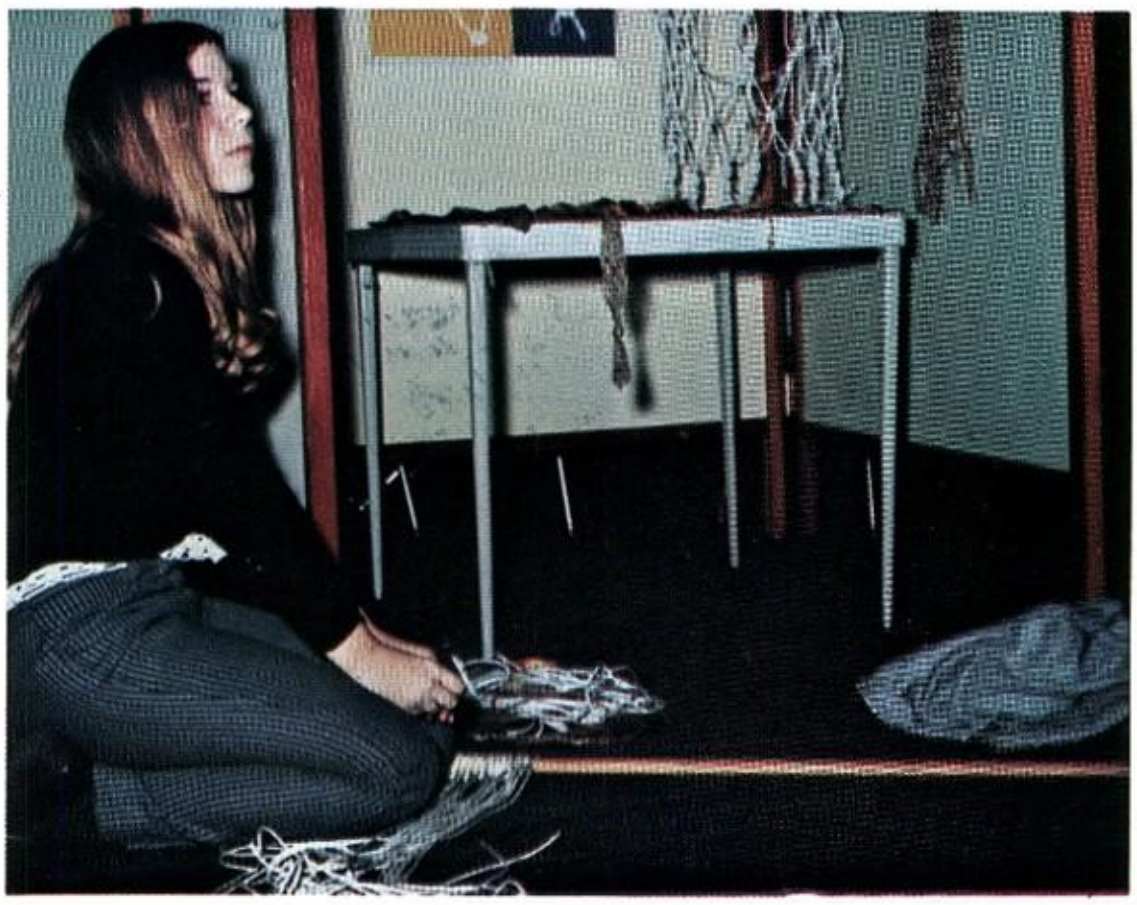
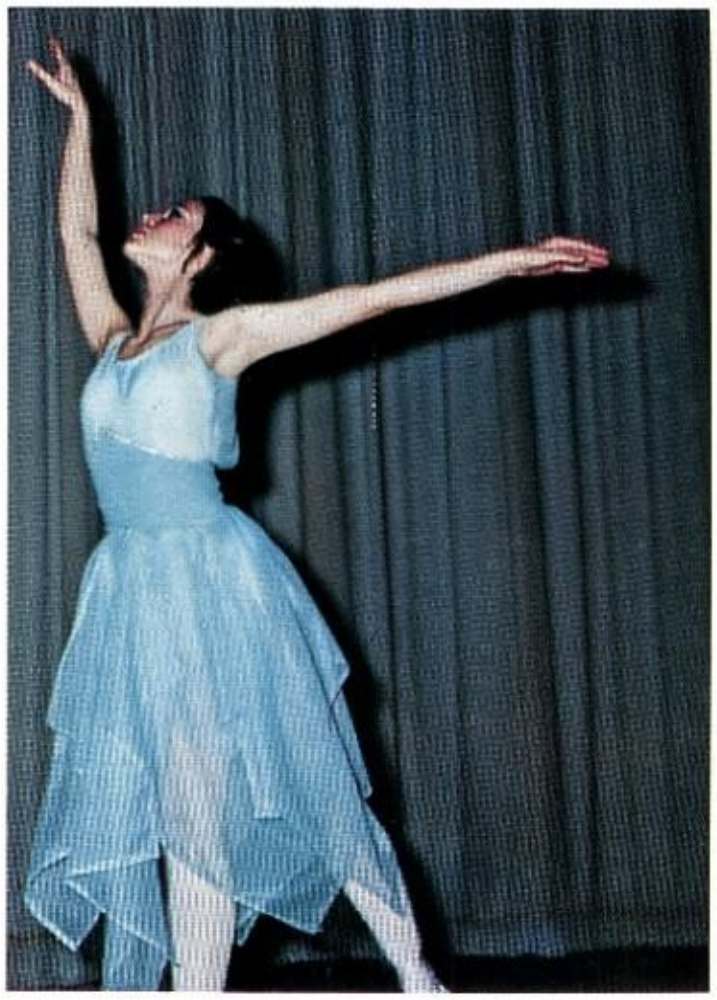
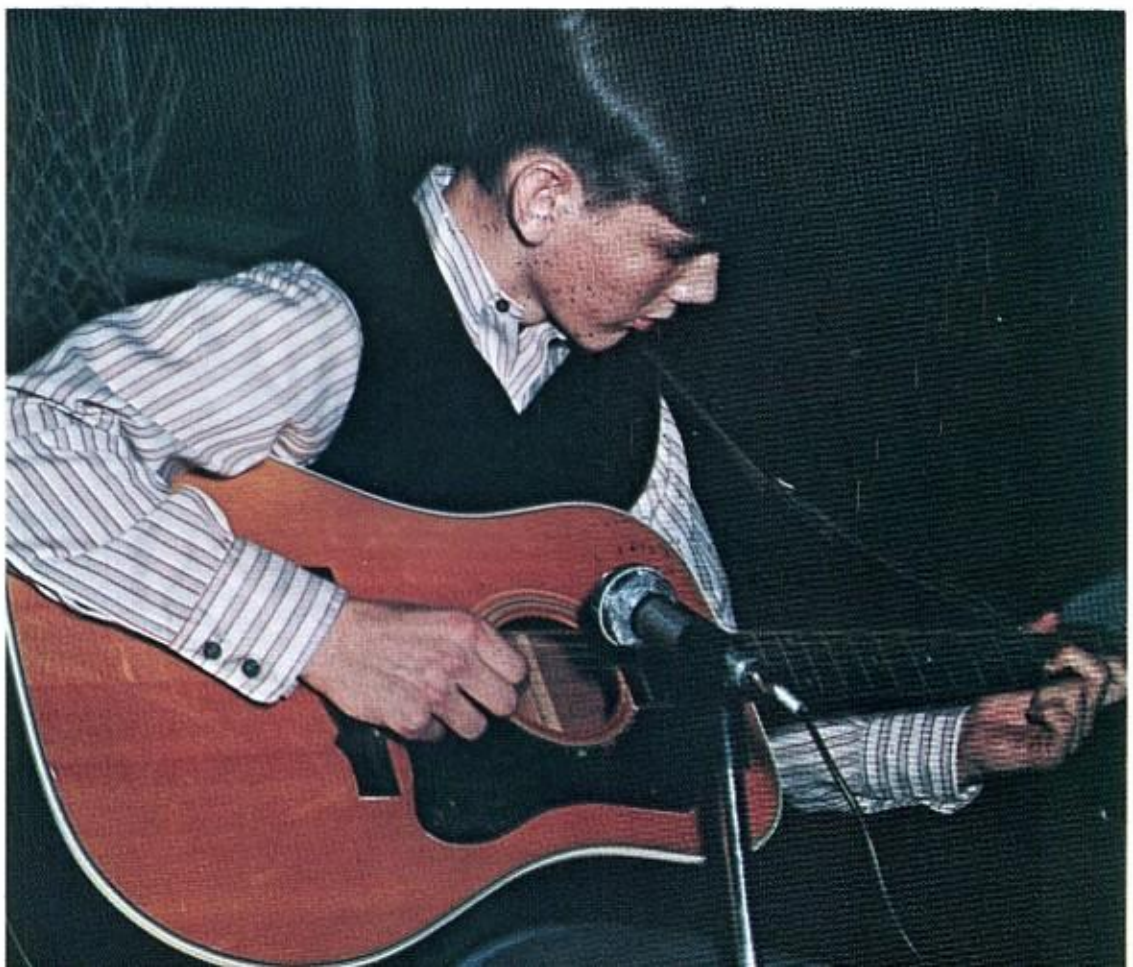
Me, Myself and You (one & two) was more than a Fine Arts Show. A salute to those who have talent but have seldom been recognized! To the surprise of many, Carroll is endowed with quite a few talented people: dramatists Denise Landerman and Mary Jane Donahue; pantomimists Donna White, Liz Odland, Peggy Fisher and Laurie Strevell; comedians Paula Schroer and Debbie Keller; artist Kathy Randolph; dancer Leslie Zara; vocalists and musicians Andy Wolff, Diane Hudson, Jackie Prete, Pat Haller, Tom Baer and Denny Stucke. Through Me, Myself and You, the student body was able to appreciate the contributions of others. A true success!











Joellen Koepnick catching a few z-z-z's between classes.

TALKING IT OVER

Fae Balsom sips a little $H_2O$ between classes.

"I have 25% fewer cavities!"

Members of the TV Club and Audio-Visual Club worked as behind the scenes crews. The TV Club specialized in presenting "Newspoint" — a periodical TV production, designed to inform the students of school concerns. Through this experience they learned the intricate techniques necessary for television production.

Service was the Audio-Visual Club's middle name. Its members delivered and serviced equipment for effective classroom presentations, assemblies and pep rallies. Several notable television programs were also video-taped for future use.

All in all, a group of skilled technicians emerged, and proved to be invaluable assets for everyone concerned.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Students were constantly caught unaware this past year as our shutterbugs snapped away. The club was organized to acquaint members with basic photographic techniques, and to stimulate interest in the art of photography. Results of their creative efforts could be viewed on the bulletin board across from the Student Government room. Interest was sparked by their officers: President — Pat Carrothers, Vice-President — Dave Schwab and Secretary-Treasurer — Chris Schmitt.

Newsboard stories are readied for viewing.

SCHEDULING AND GUIDANCE

Scheduling classes for the '71-'72 school year placed a heavy demand upon the guidance department and the student himself. The need for each student to fully understand his capabilities and achievement level was recognized as a necessary start. To allow each student a chance to excel in a course he chose, the guidance department set up the lottery system, and met with each student, individually, to plan his courses for the following year. With all the time and concern expended, this year should be a tremendous challenge.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Character, scholarship, leadership, and service are the outstanding qualities expected of every member of the National Honor Society. Members are asked to join on the basis of their achievements, and are retained in the club if they continue to achieve these high standards. The entrance requirements are set by national rules, therefore the honor of belonging to the N.H.S. is equal in every school.

SO MUCH OF LIFE AHEAD . . .

SO MANY ROADS TO CHOOSE . . .

YES, WE'VE ONLY JUST BEGUN

Graduation is a milestone in life.
It is an ending and a beginning. It is a stepping-stone from the past with its hours of study and its marvelous moments of fun to a new and somewhat different life filled with great challenges and responsibilities. Graduation is a sad and glad time of life when we must say "farewell" to fellow students and faculty and look ahead to new friends and acquaintances in our chosen profession.
It is a time of laughter and tears, praise and witticism, orations and reflections. It is a day to be dead-serious and light-hearted, enthusiastic and apprehensive.
It is leaving behind the old well-traveled ways and setting our on new unexplored roads, knowing that we are equipped through years of diligent study, work and application, with the tools necessary to make our way.
Graduation is a proud and wonderful time of life, a happy and unforgettable event, sprinkled with moments of deep contentment, satisfaction and high hopes for the future. Yes, Graduation is an end — and a beginning.
